Plaintiff ERIC ROMULUS, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff alleges that on June 17, 2020, at approximately 3:37 pm plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of East 16th Street and Quentin Road, Brooklyn, New York when defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, falsely arrested, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff violate the law or commit a crime, nor did the officers possess objective facts to establish probable cause to believe he committed a crime. Nevertheless, the officers unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff and transported him to the 61st Precinct against his will whereat he was unlawfully searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and detained in a holding cell for many hours. The officers provided the DA's office with false, misleading, and incomplete evidence that purportedly formed their basis for arresting plaintiff and charging him with crimes. Plaintiff was transported to Kings County Central Booking whereat the unlawful detention continued. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted based upon the false and misleading allegations made by the officers. On June 18, 2020, plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, and charged with crimes he did not commit and that the officers lacked probable cause to accuse him of committing, including Grand Larceny, Petit Larceny, Tampering With a Witness, Harassment, and Intimidating a Witness. Bail was set by the Court at arraignment and plaintiff posted bail and was released from custody on June 18, 2020. Plaintiff was required to appear in criminal court on several occasions before all charges were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on November 16, 2021.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

23. On June 17, 2020, at approximately 3:37 pm plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of East 16th Street and Quentin Road, Brooklyn, New York when defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, falsely arrested, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

24. On June 17, 2020, at approximately 3:30 pm plaintiff exited the target store located at 1715 East 13th Street, Brooklyn, New York without purchasing any items from the store.

25. Additionally at no time relevant herein did anyone, including the defendants, recover any stolen credit cards or allegedly stolen property from plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

26. At no time relevant herein did any video evidence exist that showed plaintiff or an individual that looked like plaintiff committing a crime or stealing credit cards and other items from another individual's motor vehicle.

27. However, when plaintiff exited the Target store, he was surrounded by several civilians who accused him of stealing credit cards and other items from a man's vehicle and using the stolen credit card in the store.

28. The civilians surrounded plaintiff, refused to allow him to walk away and physically assaulted plaintiff.

29. Plaintiff's friend saw plaintiff getting physically assaulted and he told the men to stop assaulting plaintiff.

30. Plaintiff was able to run away from the men when his friend began telling them men to leave plaintiff alone.

31. Plaintiff ran to the vicinity of East 16th Street and Quentin Road, Brooklyn, New York, where he was stopped again by some of the men who were assaulting him and caught him at that location.

32. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff violate the law or commit a crime, nor did the officers possess objective facts to establish probable cause to believe he committed a crime.

33. Nevertheless, the defendant officers responded to the vicinity of East 16th Street and Quentin Road, Brooklyn, New York where they unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff and transported him to the 61st Precinct against his will whereat he was unlawfully searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and detained in a holding cell for many hours.

34. The officers provided the DA's office with false, misleading, and incomplete evidence that purportedly formed their basis for arresting plaintiff and charging him with crimes.

35. Plaintiff was transported to Kings County Central Booking whereat the unlawful detention continued.

36. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted based upon the false and misleading allegations made by the officers.

37. On June 18, 2020, plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, and charged with crimes he did not commit and that the officers lacked probable cause to accuse him of committing, including Grand Larceny, Petit Larceny, Tampering With a Witness, Harassment, and Intimidating a Witness.

38. Bail was set by the Court at arraignment and plaintiff posted bail and was released from custody on June 18, 2020.

39. Plaintiff was required to appear in criminal court on several occasions before all charges were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on November 16, 2021.

40. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted based upon the false and misleading allegations made by the officers.

41. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime, nor did the officers have probable cause to accuse him of committing a crime.

42. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff violate the law or commit a crime, nor did the officers possess objective facts to establish probable cause to establish probable cause to believe he committed a crime.

43. The defendants provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading, and incomplete evidence to support their purported basis for arresting plaintiff and charging him with crimes.

44. Defendants fabricated the allegations made against plaintiff that were sworn to under the penalty of perjury in the criminal court complaint.

45. The criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor.

46. Defendants' unlawful and unconstitutional conduct caused plaintiff to endure being arrested for crimes he did not commit.

47. Moreover, plaintiff suffered extreme emotional distress from having to address the false charges brought against him in the criminal prosecution.

48. The defendant officers' false, misleading, and incomplete allegations against plaintiff formed the basis for a criminal prosecution being initiated against him, without probable cause.

49. Those officers that did not physically touch plaintiff but observed their fellow officers violating plaintiff's rights under New York State law and the Constitution but neglected to intervene to stop their fellow officers from continuing to violate plaintiff's rights under New York State law and the United States Constitution are liable to plaintiff for their failure to intervene.

50. There have been hundreds of lawsuits and Notices of Claims filed with the City of New York, and complaints filed with the Civilian Complaint Review Board by members of the public alleging that NYPD police officers continue to engage in said unconstitutional and unlawful behavior, but the NYPD has not taken reasonable steps to ensure that its officers follow the NYPD's current written policies and training regarding these issues and has not retrained or disciplined its officers for continuing to behave in an unlawful and unconstitutional manner toward members of the public under these circumstances, even when the officers admit to engaging in unconstitutional behavior like the officers did in the underlying incident involving plaintiff in this case.

51. The NYPD and defendant City of New York are deliberately indifferent to the fact that its police officers persistently pervasively continue to unlawfully and unconstitutionally stop, question, frisk, search and falsely arrest members of the public without probable cause.

52. Defendant City of New York is liable to plaintiff for the damages he suffered stemming from the unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment because defendant City of New York is deliberately indifferent about its police officers' unlawful and unconstitutional behavior when NYPD officers unlawfully stop, question, frisk, search and falsely arrest members of the public without probable cause.

53. The City of New York has been deliberately indifferent about the fact that its police officers have been engaging in said unconstitutional behavior for decades and the NYPD has not taken reasonable steps to ensure its police officers do not continue to engage in this unconstitutional behavior, through discipline or retraining police officers who engage in this behavior and violate the law and the Constitution of the United States.

54. The deliberate indifference by the NYPD and defendant City of New York towards its officers when they engage in such unlawful and unconstitutional behavior is the proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries because the officers knew there would not be any consequences for violating plaintiff's rights and engaging in the unlawful conduct since the City of New York and the NYPD are deliberately indifferent when NYPD officers behave in that manner.

55. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest and false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, excessive force, and denial of due process/ right to a fair trial of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, economic, and emotional trauma.

56. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest and false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and denial of due process/ right to a fair trial of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, economic, and emotional trauma.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal Liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for Policy of Deliberate Indifference When NYPD Officers Violate the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution

94. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. Plaintiff was unlawfully searched, interrogated, frisked, falsely arrested plaintiff, maliciously prosecuted, and denied the right to due process, without an objective factual legal basis to seize, arrest and prosecute plaintiff pursuant to an unconstitutional policy and practice of the NYPD that is deliberately indifferent to the fact that many NYPD officers, including defendants engage in this type of misconduct on a regular basis without being disciplined and/ or retrained.

96. There is a policy, practice, or custom within the New York City Police Department, wherein New York City Police Officers illegally frisk, search, interrogate, falsely arrest, and fabricate evidence, without a specific, articulable factual basis supporting a reasonable suspicion or probable cause to believe the individual had violated any law or ordinance.

97. The NYPD and defendant City of New York are deliberately indifferent to the fact that its police officers persistently and pervasively continue to unlawfully and unconstitutionally violate the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights of members of the public.

98. Defendant City of New York is liable to plaintiff for the damages he suffered stemming from the unlawful frisk, search, interrogation, and false arrest of plaintiff because defendant City of New York is deliberately indifferent about its police officers' unlawful and unconstitutional behavior when NYPD officers unlawfully search, and falsely arrest members of the public when there is no factual basis to suspect the individual has committed a crime.

99. The City of New York has been deliberately indifferent about the fact that its police officers have been engaging in said unconstitutional behavior and the NYPD has not taken reasonable steps to ensure its police officers do not continue to engage in this unconstitutional behavior, through discipline or retraining police officers who engage in this behavior and violate the law and the Constitution of the United States.

100. The deliberate indifference by the NYPD and defendant City of New York towards its officers when they engage in such unlawful and unconstitutional behavior is the proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries because the officers knew there would not be any consequences for violating plaintiff's rights and engaging in the unlawful conduct since the City of New York and the NYPD are deliberately indifferent when NYPD officers behave in that manner.

101. As a result of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department's policy wherein New York City Police Officers illegally and unconstitutionally, search, and falsely arrest individuals without a specific, articulable factual basis supporting a reasonable suspicion or probable cause to believe the individual had violated any law or ordinance, and the New York City Police Department's deliberate indifference about the fact that New York City Police Officers routinely continue to conduct these searches, arrests, and criminal prosecutions, without reasonably articulable suspicion and/or probable cause, there is a pattern, policy, custom or practice of New York City Police Officers searching, falsely arresting and maliciously prosecuting individuals without a factual basis supporting a legal reason to do so.

102. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure, or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

103. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules devised, implemented, enforced, promoted, encouraged, and sanctioned by the City of New York, including but not limited to : (a) the failure to adequately and properly screen, train, and supervise New York City Police Officers; (b) the failure to properly and adequately monitor and discipline New York City Police Officers; and (c) the overt and tactical encouragement and sanctioning of, and the failure to rectify, the New York City Police Departments suspicionless seizures, searches, arrests, and prosecutions.

104. The City of New York has acted with deliberate indifference to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights of plaintiff and other individuals. As a direct and proximate result of the acts and omissions of the City of New York, plaintiff has been deprived of her rights under the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

105. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.

JURY DEMAND

106. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff ERIC ROMULUS demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest, and such other relief as is appropriate under the law.
