POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202311094 (Incident Date: October 31, 2023) regarding Detective Jason Zummo,
Tax No. 939739 (PODS No. C-033574)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances in connection with CCRB Case No. 202311094, pertaining to Detective Jason Zummo, and has determined that disciplinary action is not warranted in connection with the substantiated allegation.

The Police Commissioner has determined that the actions of Detective Zummo were reasonable and proper while investigating a double homicide, at the homicide suspect's last known residence. Detective Zummo entered the location, after receiving consent to enter with his partner, as well as with officers from the Department of Probation, and Department of Corrections (Parole officer). The Parole Officer and the Probation Officer proceeded to conduct a quick and limited protective sweep of the apartment, for the safety of everyone (on scene), due to the significant danger the individual posed if present. Both Detective Zummo and his partner testified that they also received consent to conduct a protective sweep from the wanted individual's sister who resided at the location. It has been determined that these actions were reasonable to reduce the danger of the potential threat to the officers.

Given the totality of the circumstances, Detective Zummo's positive employment history with the department, and in the interest of justice, the Police Commissioner directs that no disciplinary action be imposed against Detective Zummo for the allegation of an improper search.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "MPB", is written over the typed name and title.
