FACTS

41. On August 27, 2004, at approximately 9:00 p.m., plaintiffs COLIN STARGER, JESSICA SHILLER, KEVIN WINKLER, and ELIZABETH ROBERTS were lawfully present in the vicinity of Second Avenue and E. 17th Street, in the County, City and State of New York.

42. On August 27, 2004, at approximately 9:30 p.m., plaintiff BRENDAN CARNEY was lawfully present in the vicinity of Avenue A and E. 10th Street, in the County, City and State of New York.

43. On August 27, 2004, at approximately 9:30 p.m., all other plaintiffs were lawfully present in the vicinity of St. Mark's Church, in the County, City and State of New York.

44. At aforesaid times and places, members of the New York City Police Department began indiscriminately arresting everyone present at those locations.

45. Defendant police officers used unnecessary force in taking plaintiffs into custody.

46. Defendant police officers handcuffed plaintiffs and placed them under arrest, despite defendants' knowledge that they lacked probable cause to do so.

47. Upon information and belief, defendant police officers acted pursuant to an unconstitutional mass arrest policy that directed them to arrest individuals who were participating in or were perceived to be participating in protests against the Republican National Convention.

48. Upon information and belief, defendants MAYOR MICHAEL BLOOMBERG, POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND KELLY, CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO, CHIEF NICHOLAS ESTAVILLO, ASST. CHIEF BRUCE SMOLKA, DEPUTY COMMISSIONER JOHN COLGAN, CHIEF PATRICK DEVLIN, INSP. THOMAS GRAHAM, CHIEF JAMES O'NEILL, INSP. JAMES ESSIG, DEP. INSP. JAMES MCCARTHY, CHIEF MICHAEL SCAGNELLI, CAPT. JOSEPH DOWLING, CAPT. LORENZO JOHNSON, DEPUTY COMMISSIONER STEPHEN HAMMERMAN, ASST. DEPUTY COMMISSIONER THOMAS DOEPFNER, LT. DANIEL ALBANO, DEPUTY INSPECTOR KERRY SWEET, and SENIOR COUNSEL RUBY

MARIN-JORDAN were personally involved in formulating and/or implementing the policies and procedures that resulted in plaintiffs' unlawful arrests, incarcerations, and prosecutions.

49. Defendant police officers deliberately handcuffed plaintiffs too tightly and kept plaintiffs handcuffed for an excessive period of time, causing plaintiffs pain and injury.

50. Defendants transported plaintiffs to Pier 57 in Manhattan, New York.

51. Plaintiffs were unlawfully denied Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses.

52. "Arresting officers" were instructed by employees of THE CITY OF NEW YORK under the supervision of defendants HAMMERMAN, DOEPFNER, ALBANO, SWEET, and MARIN-JORDAN to create false accounts of plaintiffs' arrests.

53. Some or all plaintiffs were charged, inter alia, with disorderly conduct under New York Penal Law section 240.20 (the "Disorderly Conduct Statute"), subdivisions 5 and 6, and/or with parading without a permit under New York City Administrative Code section 10.110 ("Section 10.110").

54. Upon information and belief, members of the NYPD are authorized to arrest persons for violation of the Disorderly Conduct Statute, subsection 5, who are engaged in peaceful protest on the roadways of New York City on the ground that they are obstructing pedestrian and/or vehicular traffic, without first being required to issue an order that gives such persons an opportunity to engage in peaceful protest without substantially impeding pedestrians and/or vehicles.

55. Upon information and belief, members of the NYPD are authorized to arrest persons for violation of the Disorderly Conduct Statute, subsection 6, who congregate to peacefully protest on the roadways of New York City and refuse an order to disperse, without first being required to issue an order that gives such persons an opportunity to engage in peaceful protest without substantially impeding pedestrians and/or vehicles.

56. Section 10-110, both on its face and as interpreted and applied by the NYPD during the RNC, is unconstitutionally vague, impermissibly overbroad and improperly applies strict liability.

57. Upon information and belief, while at Pier 57, plaintiffs were exposed to toxic chemicals and substances, including but not limited to brake fluid, diesel fuel, asbestos, chlorinated hydrocarbons, benzene, lead and sulfur.

58. Defendants were aware at all relevant times that Pier 57 contained toxic chemicals and substances.

59. Defendant THE HUDSON RIVER PARK TRUST was aware, at the time that it leased Pier 57 to defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, that the pier would be used to house human beings for an extended period of time.

60. From Pier 57, plaintiffs were transported to Manhattan Central Booking.

61. While in custody at Pier 57 and at Manhattan Central Booking, plaintiffs were subjected to unreasonable overcrowding, extremes of heat and/or cold, denial of access to necessary medication and medical attention, denial of adequate food and water, and/or denial of access to counsel.

62. Plaintiff JEREMY BIDDLE was held and detained in police custody for approximately fifteen hours.

63. Plaintiff GUSTAVO ORTIZ was held and detained in police custody for approximately thirty hours.

115. On or about August 28, 2004, plaintiff ELIZABETH ROBERTS accepted an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal.

116. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DEPRIVATION OF FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

117. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs “1” through “116” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

118. All of the aforementioned acts of defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.

119. All of the aforementioned acts deprived plaintiffs of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

120. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, with all of the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

121. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and the rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

122. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FALSE ARREST UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

(BY ALL PLAINTIFFS EXCEPT KERNS AND LEE)

123. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “122” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

124. As a result of the aforesaid conduct by defendants, plaintiffs were subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest by the defendants and taken into custody and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained, and confined, without any probable cause, privilege or consent.

125. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs' liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear for their safety, and they were humiliated and subjected to handcuffing and other physical restraints, without probable cause.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

126. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "125" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

127. Defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence before the District Attorney.

128. Defendants did not make a complete and full statement of facts to the District Attorney.

129. Defendants withheld exculpatory evidence from the District Attorney.

130. Defendants were directly and actively involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against plaintiffs TIMOTHY ASSAM, LANEY BARBER, ANDREW BUSHONG, PHILIP ELLMANN, MARLENE TOERPER, MARCELLUS HALL, DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

131. Defendants lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against plaintiffs TIMOTHY ASSAM, LANEY BARBER, ANDREW BUSHONG, PHILIP ELLMANN, MARLENE TOERPER, MARCELLUS HALL, DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

132. Defendants acted with malice in initiating criminal proceedings against plaintiffs TIMOTHY ASSAM, LANEY BARBER, ANDREW BUSHONG, PHILIP ELLMANN, MARLENE TOERPER, MARCELLUS HALL, DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

134. Defendants lacked probable cause to continue criminal proceedings against plaintiffs TIMOTHY ASSAM, LANEY BARBER, ANDREW BUSHONG, PHILIP ELLMANN, MARLENE TOERPER, MARCELLUS HALL, DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

135. Defendants acted with malice in continuing criminal proceedings against plaintiffs TIMOTHY ASSAM, LANEY BARBER, ANDREW BUSHONG, PHILIP ELLMANN, MARLENE TOERPER, MARCELLUS HALL, DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY, and COLIN STARGER.

136. Defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence throughout all phases of the criminal proceeding.

137. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff TIMOTHY ASSAM's favor on March 16, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

138. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff LANEY BARBER's favor on May 17, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

139. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff ANDREW BUSHONG's favor on March 16, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

140. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff PHILIP ELLMANN's favor on October 22, 2004, when all charges against him were dismissed.

141. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff MARLENE TOERPER's favor on September 29, 2004, when all charges against her were dismissed.

142. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff MARCELLUS HALL's favor on March 16, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

143. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY's favor on May 17, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

144. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff COLIN STARGER's favor in or about November 2004, when all charges against him were dismissed.

FOURTH THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
MALICIOUS ABUSE OF PROCESS UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

145. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "144" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

146. Defendants issued legal process to place plaintiffs under arrest.

147. Defendants arrested plaintiffs in order to obtain a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process.

148. Defendants acted with intent to do harm to plaintiffs without excuse or justification.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
EXCESSIVE FORCE UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

149. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "148" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

150. The level of force employed by defendants was objectively unreasonable and in violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

151. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs were subjected to excessive force and sustained physical injuries.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FIRST AMENDMENT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

152. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "151" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

153. The arrest and detention of plaintiffs was intended to, and did, chill plaintiffs' right to assemble peaceably.

154. The arrest and detention of plaintiffs was intended to, and did, chill plaintiffs' right to free speech.

155. The arrest and detention of plaintiffs was intended to, and did, chill plaintiffs' right to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

156. Plaintiffs were denied Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses in retaliation for their exercise of their First Amendment rights.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
CONDITIONS OF CONFINEMENT UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

157. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "156" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

158. Plaintiffs were subjected to unlawful conditions of confinement including, but not limited to, exposure to toxic substances, unreasonable overcrowding, extremes of heat and/or cold, denial of access to necessary medication and medical attention, denial of adequate food and water, denial of bathroom facilities, and/or denial of access to counsel.

159. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FAILURE TO INTERVENE UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

160. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “159” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

161. Each and every individual defendant had an affirmative duty to intervene on plaintiffs’ behalf to prevent the violation of their constitutional rights.

162. The individual defendants failed to intervene on plaintiffs’ behalf to prevent the violation of their constitutional rights despite having had a realistic opportunity to do so.

163. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of the individual defendants, plaintiffs’ constitutional rights were violated.

NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
VIOLATION OF EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

164. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “163” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

165. Plaintiffs were not considered for Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses.

166. Other individuals arrested on August 27, 2004, who were not perceived to have been participating in RNC-related protests, were considered for Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses.

167. In failing to consider plaintiffs for Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses because of their perceived participating in RNC-related protests, defendants violated plaintiffs’ right to equal protection and deprived them of rights, remedies, privileges and immunities guaranteed to every citizen of the United States, in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

168. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were detained for an excessive period of time.

TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DENIAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO FAIR TRIAL
UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

169. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "168" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

170. Defendants created false evidence against plaintiffs.

171. Defendants forwarded false evidence to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's office.

172. Defendants misled juries, judges, and/or prosecutors by providing false testimony and proffering false evidence throughout the criminal proceedings.

173. In creating and forwarding false information to prosecutors, defendants violated plaintiffs' constitutional right to a fair trial under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

ELEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DISORDERLY CONDUCT STATUTE, SUBSECTION 5

174. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "173" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

175. Subsection 5 of the Disorderly Conduct Statute violates the First Amendment and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and is therefore unconstitutional, insofar as it is applied to persons engaged in peaceful protest on public roadways in a manner that permits their arrest without first giving them an order that provides an opportunity for them to engage in peaceful protest without substantially impeding pedestrians and/or vehicles.

TWELFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DISORDERLY CONDUCT STATUTE, SUBSECTION 6

176. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “175” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

177. Subsection 6 of the Disorderly Conduct Statute violates the First Amendment and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and is therefore unconstitutional, insofar as it is applied to persons who congregate to peacefully protest on public roadways in a manner that permits their arrest without first giving them an order that provides an opportunity for them to engage in peaceful protest without substantially impeding pedestrians and/or vehicles.

THIRTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
PARADING WITHOUT A PERMIT

178. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “177” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

179. New York City Administrative Code section 10.110, Parading Without a Permit, insofar as it permits defendants to require a permit for persons to walk on a public sidewalk or ride on a public roadway for the purpose of peaceful protest, violates the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article I, Sections 8 and 12 of the New York State Constitution.

FOURTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
MUNICIPAL LIABILITY

180. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “179” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

181. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

182. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, making mass arrests without individualized probable cause; arresting individuals for peacefully participating in a political protest or for simply being in the vicinity of a political protest; using unnecessary force in taking individuals into custody; deliberately handcuffing detainees too tightly; denying Desk Appearance Tickets and/or summonses; detaining individuals for excessive periods of time; exposing detainees to toxic substances and other unlawful conditions of confinement; and falsifying documents, videotapes, evidence, and testimony.

183. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of plaintiffs.

184. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.

185. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.

186. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and detained.

187. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

188. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived plaintiffs of federally protected rights, including, but not limited to, the right:

- A. Not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
- B. To be free from seizure and arrest not based upon probable cause;
- C. Not to have excessive force imposed upon them;
- D. To be free from unwarranted and malicious criminal prosecution;
- E. To be free from malicious abuse of process;
- F. To exercise their First Amendment rights;
- G. Not to be subjected to unlawful conditions of confinement;
- H. Not to have cruel and unusual punishment imposed upon them; and
- I. To receive equal protection under the law.

189. As a result of the foregoing, each plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages in the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

PENDANT STATE CLAIMS

(BY ALL PLAINTIFFS EXCEPT BARBER, CALABRESE, POGGE, CARNEY, INGBER, LEE, MILNE, STARGER, SHILLER, WINKLER, and ROBERTS)

190. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “189” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

191. On or about November 26, 2004, and within ninety (90) days after the claim herein accrued, plaintiffs duly served upon, presented to and filed with the City of New York and the Hudson River Park Trust, a Notice of Claim setting forth all facts and information required under General Municipal Law § 50-e and section 11 of the Hudson River Park Act.

192. The City of New York and the Hudson River Park Trust have wholly neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof and more than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the presentation of such claim as aforesaid.

193. The City of New York demanded hearings pursuant to General Municipal Law § 50-h and said hearings were conducted on the following dates: plaintiff JEREMY BIDDLE – May 4, 2005; plaintiff GUSTAVO ORTIZ – April 15, 2005; plaintiff TIMOTHY ASSAM – April 5, 2005; plaintiff ANDREW BUSHONG – July 7, 2005; plaintiff PHILIP ELLMANN – March 23, 2005; plaintiff MARLENE TOERPER – March 14, 2005; plaintiff MARCELLUS HALL – June 2, 2005; plaintiff SCOTT KERNS – May 11, 2005; plaintiff DAVID CHRISTOPHER MARTY – June 30, 2005; plaintiff SHEA MURDOCK – March 10, 2005; plaintiff KELLY SESHIMO – March 17, 2005; plaintiff KRISTIAN ROEBLING – March 15, 2005.

194. The City of New York failed to schedule a hearing pursuant to General Municipal Law § 50-h for plaintiff KEVIN LANDWEHR and such hearing is accordingly deemed waived.

195. This action was commenced against the Hudson River Park Trust within one (1) year after the cause of action herein accrued and against the City of New York within one (1) year and ninety (90) days after the cause of action herein accrued.

196. Plaintiffs have complied with all conditions precedent to maintaining the instant action.

197. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as outlined in C.P.L.R. § 1602.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF UNDER N.Y. STATE LAW MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANT CITY OF NEW YORK ONLY)

214. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “213” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

215. On or about August 27, 2004, the defendant City of New York, its agents, servants and employees, and the aforesaid defendant police officers commenced a criminal proceeding against plaintiffs, and falsely and maliciously, and without probable cause, charged plaintiffs with crimes.

216. Defendants, with the consent and participation of one another, continued said proceeding despite the fact that they knew or should have known that plaintiffs had not committed any crimes, that there were no exigent circumstances justifying a warrantless arrest, and that there was no need for the arrest and imprisonment of plaintiffs.

217. Defendants were directly and actively involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

218. Defendants lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

219. Defendants were motivated by actual malice in initiating criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

220. Defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence before the District Attorney.

221. Defendants did not make a complete and full statement of facts to the District Attorney.

222. Defendants withheld exculpatory evidence from the District Attorney.

223. Defendants were directly and actively involved in the continuation of criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

224. Defendants lacked probable cause to continue criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

225. Defendants were motivated by actual malice in continuing criminal proceedings against plaintiffs.

226. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff TIMOTHY ASSAM's favor on March 16, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.

227. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of defendants, the criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff LANEY BARBER's favor on May 17, 2005, when all charges against him were dismissed.
