Re: CCRB Case No. 202402600 (Incident Date: March 8, 2024) regarding Police Officer Cameron Deluise, Tax No. 967039 (PODS Case No. C-035129)

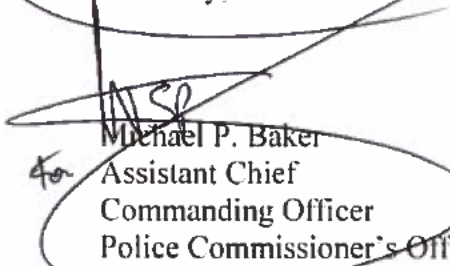

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the request for Charges and Specifications in connection with CCRB Case No. 202402600, pertaining to Police Officer Cameron Deluise. Having analyzed the facts and circumstances regarding this matter, the Police Commissioner has determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against said officer would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process.

In this matter, Police Officer Deluise responded to a shelter after police officers at the location requested additional units. When Officer Deluise arrived, he observed the officers struggling to place an individual in handcuffs. As Police Officer Deluise assisted, the individual continued to actively resist. Police Officer Deluise utilized two hand strikes to the head, which were deemed reasonable, since the individual continued to resist being handcuffed.

Therefore, based on a lack of a prior substantiated CCRB history and a parallel investigation conducted by the NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau, and as provided for within the 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the New York City Police Department, the Police Commissioner, in the interest of justice and to retain jurisdiction over this matter, intends to issue no discipline for the alleged excessive force allegation. Separate and apart, Police Officer Deluise shall receive training in Patrol Guide Procedure No. 200-02 (Mission, Vision, and Values of the New York City Police Department/Discourtesy) to address the remaining allegation.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
Assistant Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office

Re: CCRB Case No. 202402600 (PODS Case No. C-035129)

Dear Commissioner:

I am writing in response to the letter from Assistant Chief Michael P. Baker, dated August 28, 2025, informing the Civilian Complaint Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “CCRB”) of your intent to dismiss the Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Cameron Deluise, issue no discipline for the alleged excessive force allegation, and impose training for the remaining discourtesy. Pursuant to Paragraph 2 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between CCRB and the New York City Police Department, I am responding to Assistant Chief Baker’s notification.

Assistant Chief Baker stated that you analyzed the facts and circumstances of this matter and determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Deluise would be detrimental to the Police Department’s disciplinary process. Instead, you intend to dismiss the charges, impose no penalty for the alleged excessive force, and issue training for the alleged discourtesy.

The CCRB respectfully disagrees with your assessment. Officer Deluise’s Body-Worn Camera at time 1:29 clearly records Officer Deluise punching the complainant twice in the face. Police Officer Deluise’s misconduct was captured on Body-Worn Camera, fully supported by the evidence, and warrants the serving of Charges.

The CCRB disagrees with your assessment and requests that the NYPD serve Charges and Specifications upon Police Officer Deluise.

Respectfully submitted,

p.p., Andre Applewhite, Chief Prosecutor for Jonathan Darche, Executive Director
NYC Civilian Complaint Review Board

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed your letter, dated September 2, 2025, concerning the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") case involving Police Officer Cameron Deluise, and nevertheless maintains that it would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process to allow the Civilian Complaint Review Board to continue its prosecution of Police Officer Deluise for the reasons expressed in my August 28, 2025, letter.

Therefore, the Police Commissioner affirms her decision to exercise Provision Two of the Memorandum of Understanding and now directs that no disciplinary action be imposed for the excessive force allegation. Separate and apart, Police Officer Deluise will receive formalized training regarding the discourtesy allegation.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
