Index No.

CITY OF NEW YORK, RICHARD RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, TYRELL HINES, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, RICHARD RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arose on September 11, 2019, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, assaulted, arrested and detained plaintiff in the vicinity of the intersection of Faile Street and Seneca Avenue, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was subsequently transported to the 41st NYPD precinct and later to Bronx County Central Booking. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to a fair trial until the Bronx County District Attorney unconditionally dismissed all charges against plaintiff on November 1, 2019, resulting in the termination of the criminal proceeding in plaintiff's favor.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff has made served a notice of claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Section fifty-e of the New York General Municipal Law (GML § 50-e).

5. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

6. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal defendant's demand for an examination, pursuant to GML § 50-h, or said demand was untimely made.

7. This action and associated claims have been commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days plus all applicable tolling, after the occurrences upon which they are based.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff, Mr. TYRELL HINES ("Mr. Hines"), is an adult Black or African American male, who presently resides in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York.

10. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant hereto, defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), was responsible for the policy. practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD defendants herein.

12. In addition, at all times here relevant, defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant RICHARD RUIZ (“RUIZ”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 18806, Tax Id No. 962071, assigned to NYPD 41st Precinct, and, as such, was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant and employee of the defendant, City of New York. Defendant RUIZ is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

14. At all relevant times, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants.

15. At all relevant times herein, defendants JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On, or about, September 11, 2019, at approximately 2:30 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of Faile Street and Seneca Avenue, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Plaintiff was lawfully present at the sidewalk of the aforementioned location with three of his friends when Defendants, including RUIZ and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, pulled over the police car.

18. Plaintiff has been playing card with three other friends at a table on the sidewalk at the aforementioned location since approximately 11:30 a.m. Plaintiff was still in the card game when Defendants, including RUIZ and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, pulled over and approached him.

19. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, proceeded to unlawfully question regarding illegal activity, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

20. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of the law.

21. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, unlawfully search Plaintiff and Plaintiff's personal property without a judicially authorized search warrant or any other legal authority to do so.

22. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, grabbed Plaintiff, slap him in the back of his head multiple times, subjected Plaintiff to ongoing verbal abuse and then slammed his head against the vehicle from which he had been removed by Defendants.

23. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, then fabricated the observations to justify their illegal search and seizure of plaintiff, including that the Plaintiff was in possession of marijuana.

24. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, physically restrained and removed plaintiff by rear handcuffing him in an excessively tight fashion, which resulted substantial pain and physical discomfort to plaintiff's wrists.

25. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, then forcibly removed plaintiff to the 41st NYPD precinct after grabbing his person and shoving him into a police transport vehicle.

26. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, then criminally process plaintiff, which included fingerprinting, retina scans and various invasive bodily searches.

27. Defendants, including RUIZ, and JOHN or JANE DOES 1 - 10, illegally strip-searched Plaintiff's person inside the precinct, including taking off his pants, and while he was naked, ordering him to squat and cough, exposing his rectum and anus, despite having no individualized suspicion that Plaintiff secreted any contraband into a body cavity or orifice.

28. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, then subjected plaintiff to illegal interrogation tactics by threatening him with a protracted criminal prosecution followed by a lengthy imprisonment, if he did not comply with defendants' demands by agreeing to testify and provide false evidence against the defendants' true target and suspect.

29. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, retaliated against plaintiff by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that defendants observed plaintiff in possession of marijuana.

30. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that plaintiff would be criminally prosecuted, namely that plaintiff was never in possession of a knife, pepper spray and boxcutter or any other burglar tools.

31. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, based upon said fabricated observations, falsely informed prosecutors that plaintiff was illegally in possession of marijuana, despite their full and complete knowledge that plaintiff had committed no crimes or violations of the law and that a criminal prosecution would never succeed in the total absence of any probable cause to believe otherwise.

32. After plaintiff's arraignment, he was compelled to return to court multiple times to contest egregiously false criminal charges alleged against him by defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10.

33. Defendants' malicious prosecution against Plaintiff terminated in Plaintiff's favor on November 1, 2019, when all charges were unconditionally outright dismissed and sealed.

34. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, arrested and attempted cause a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution as leverage against their true target, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

35. Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

36. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

37. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

38. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with a Docket Number of 2019SX024782. Upon information and belief, the identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 Defendants are known only to the Defendants.

39. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

40. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemin throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

41. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

42. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

43. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

44. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

45. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD’s failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

46. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

47. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

48. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

49. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

50. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

51. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

52. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

53. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

54. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, RUIZ AND JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10.

55. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

56. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

57. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including RUIZ, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

58. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Protected Speech or Activity Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

150. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

151. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

152. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to New York City Admin. Code § 14-151

153. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

154. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

155. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

156. Plaintiff is a member of a racial or ethnic minority and protected class.

157. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation.

158. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

159. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

160. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

161. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

162. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

163. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, § 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, § 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and § 296, ¶ 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

164. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

165. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 & 1983 Against Individual Defendants

166. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

167. Plaintiff is a member of a racial or ethnic minority and protected class.

168. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity.

169. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

170. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

171. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

172. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

173. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

174. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

175. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 & 1986 Against Individual Defendants

176. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

177. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

178. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

179. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

180. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

181. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

182. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

183. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

184. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

185. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

186. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 10-403.

187. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

188. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

189. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

190. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

191. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

192. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

193. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

194. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

195. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

196. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true, As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

197. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

198. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

199. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

200. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

201. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention & Supervision Under
New York State Law

202. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

203. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee Defendants.

204. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

205. Defendant City placed Defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

206. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employee Defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

207. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee Defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

208. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

209. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

210. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

211. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

212. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates to such an extent that is tantamount to a deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

213. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

214. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

215. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, pursuant to Constitution of the United States.

216. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
