VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff JENNIFER DORCHY, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On July 20, 2016, at approximately 6:30 a.m., plaintiff Jennifer Dorchy, while lawfully present in the vicinity of New Lots Avenue and Alabama Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff was subsequently denied the right to due process and a fair trial. All criminal charges brought against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on July 20, 2017. Plaintiff was deprived of her constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, and denied plaintiff the right to due process in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff JENNIFER DORCHY is a resident of the state of New York.

3. DETECTIVE MATTHEW SOLOMITO, Tax No. 951284, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. DETECTIVE MATTHEW SOLOMITO, Tax No. 951284, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 75th Precinct Detective Squad.

5. DETECTIVE MATTHEW SOLOMITO, Tax No. 951284, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. LIEUTENANT HENRY DAVERIN, Tax No. 945645, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. LIEUTENANT HENRY DAVERIN, Tax No. 945645, is and was at all times relevant herein, was assigned to the 75th Precinct.

8. LIEUTENANT HENRY DAVERIN, Tax No. 945645, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

11. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

12. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. On July 20, 2016, at approximately 6:30 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of New Lots Avenue and Alabama Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, and searched plaintiff without reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or any legal justification.

14. By way of background, on July 20, 2016, at approximately 6:00 a.m., the defendant police officers unlawfully executed a search warrant inside of 645 Alabama Avenue, Basement Apartment, Brooklyn, New York.

15. At the time of the execution of the search warrant, plaintiff was not inside of the apartment. Instead, plaintiff was finishing her morning jog when she was unlawfully stopped, questioned and frisked by the defendant officers without reasonable suspicion or probable cause in the vicinity of New Lots Avenue and Alabama Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

16. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law, nor did plaintiff behave in a manner that would lead a reasonable police officer to believe that plaintiff committed, was about to commit or was committing a crime.

17. The officers did not recover any illegal drugs, weapons or contraband from plaintiff, nor did they recover any illegal drugs, guns, or contraband in plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

18. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by the defendant police officers without legal justification or probable cause.

19. Plaintiff was transported by the defendant police officers to the 75th Precinct against her will, where she was photographed, fingerprinted and then placed in a holding cell by the defendants.

20. Plaintiff was detained in a filthy holding cell filled with cockroaches and feces at the 75th Precinct for approximately 12 hours.

21. On July 20, 2016, at approximately 6:30 p.m., plaintiff was transported to Brooklyn County Central Booking.

22. The defendant police officers intentionally provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and incomplete information regarding their basis for arresting and prosecuting plaintiff and falsely charged plaintiff with crimes she did not commit.

23. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff was found to be in possession of marijuana when in fact she was no possession of marijuana.

24. Based upon the false, misleading and/or incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers, a prosecution was initiated against plaintiff.

25. After approximately 27 hours in custody, on July 21, 2016, at approximately 10:30 a.m., plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court and charged with crimes she did not commit and was released from custody.

26. Plaintiff was maliciously and unlawfully charged plaintiff with Unlawful Possession of Marijuana.

27. Thereafter, on July 20, 2017, all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

28. As result of the false arrest and imprisonment by the defendant officers, plaintiff missed an important job interview which was scheduled for July 20, 2016 at 10:30 a.m., and thus missed out on a lucrative employment opportunity.

29. As a result of the unlawful search, the defendant police officers damaged plaintiff's property in her apartment.

30. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of due process and the right to a fair trial against plaintiff.

31. The unlawful search, false arrest, and false imprisonment, and denial of the right to fair trial by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

32. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 31 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

33. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, and frisked, unlawfully seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned plaintiff without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

34. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

35. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 34 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

36. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

37. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

38. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

39. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

40. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

42. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

43. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

44. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

45. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

46. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

47. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

48. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 47 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

49. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

50. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

55. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

56. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

57. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

58. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

59. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Jennifer Dorchy, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

60. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Jennifer Dorchy, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

62. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

64. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 63 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

65. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

66. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

67. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

68. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

72. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Jennifer Dorchy demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

STUART E. JACOBS, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am a partner of the law firm of JACOBS & HAZAN, LLP, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is because plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
