POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202200991 (Incident Date: February 4, 2022) regarding Police Officer Conrade Joseph, Tax No. 969832 (DADS No. 2023-28398)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances in this matter and determined that no disciplinary action is warranted in connection with the single allegation that Police Officer Joseph improperly questioned an individual.

In this matter, Police Officer Joseph responded to a 911 call about a suicidal female. The caller was from a doctor's office familiar with the individual and indicated that she had threatened to kill herself. The responding officers, including Officer Joseph, reasonably believed that there was an emergency which required them to enter the individual's home to investigate the situation. Once in the home, Officer Joseph asked the individual "Do you have any weapons in the house? Do you own any guns?" These questions were clearly asked in an effort to ensure both the individual's and the officers' safety, as there was a clear danger stemming from the individual's threat to harm herself. The questions were not accusatory, nor were they asked in an effort to investigate any potential criminality; Officer Joseph was merely trying to protect all parties from any harm that could arise from weapons that might be located in the vicinity of a suicidal person.

COURTESY • PROFESSIONALISM • RESPECT

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Police Officer Joseph will receive no disciplinary action for the alleged violation of Patrol Guide Procedure 212-11 (Investigative Encounters/Unlawful Questioning).
