ROBERT CABRERA, CHRISTOPHER CRAIN
and JOHN or JANE DOES 1-10,

Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiffs, DANTE SURGEON and JORDAN FENNER, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for their complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, LUKE BRENNAN, ROBERT CABRERA, CHRISTOPHER CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, individually and officially in their capacities as New York City police officers, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of their civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arise on July 27, 2019, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiffs in the vicinity of Townsend Avenue and East 171st Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiffs were subsequently transported to the 44th precinct and later to Bronx County Central booking. As a result, Plaintiffs were deprived of their liberties and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiffs were wrongfully incarcerated over the course of eighteen (18) hours. Plaintiffs were maliciously prosecuted until all criminal charges were dismissed on January 31, 2021 which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of the accused.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiffs filed their notices of claim with the City of New York in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

5. Over thirty (30) days have elapsed since the filing of this notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

6. Plaintiffs' 50-h hearing was scheduled on January 14, 2020 and has been adjourned on consent of the parties. Plaintiffs will comply with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-h of the New York General Municipal Law in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid stipulation.

7. This action and associated claims have been commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days after the occurrences upon which they are based upon availing upon the COVID-19 tolling provisions enacted by Governor Cuomo by Executive Order 202.6 et seq. that tolled the statute of limitations from March 20, 2020 to November 3, 2020 for a period of two hundred twenty-eight (228) days.

8. Plaintiffs seek monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Plaintiffs were lawfully sitting inside a motor vehicle at the aforesaid location when Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, approached to them.

22. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully questioned Plaintiffs regarding illegal activity, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

23. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 forcibly threw the Plaintiff Mr. Surgeon against the wall, causing scrapes and bruises on his face, eye, knees, arms and laceration on his face, punching him in his eye, causing swelling in his eye and throwing him to the ground.

26. At no time did Plaintiff Mr. Fenner give Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 a reason to throw him face and head first against a vehicle and throwing him to the floor.

27. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or stop Plaintiffs, as Plaintiffs had not committed any crime or violation of the law.

28. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 fabricated a false narrative, in which they claimed Plaintiff Mr. Surgeon committed one (1) count of Resisting Arrest, one (1) count of Criminal Mischief in the fourth degree, one (1) count of Unlawful Possession of Marijuana and one (1) count of Disorderly Conduct to place him under arrest, when they knew such claims to be untrue and complete fabrications.

29. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10 fabricated a false narrative, in which they claimed Plaintiff Mr. Fenner committed one (1) count of Resisting Arrest, one (1) count of Obstructing Governmental Administration in the second degree and one (1) count of Harassment in the second degree to place him under arrest, when they knew such claims to be untrue and complete fabrications.

30. Plaintiff Mr. Surgeon had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person including but not limited to being placed in handcuffs too tight, thrown against a wall, causing scrapes and bruises on his face, eye, knees, arms and a laceration to his face, then being punched in his eye repeatedly about his body, causing swelling in his eye.

31. Plaintiff Mr. Fenner had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person including but not limited to being placed in handcuffs too tight, thrown face and head against a vehicle.

32. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely fabricating false accounts that Plaintiff Mr. Surgeon resisted arrest, committed criminal mischief and disorderly conduct, and possessed marijuana.

33. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely fabricating false accounts that Plaintiff Mr. Fenner resisted arrest, obstructed governmental administration and committed harassment.

34. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 have displayed a pattern and practice of falsely accusing individuals of resisting arrest, committing criminal mischief, disorderly conduct, harassment and obstructing governmental administration in cases where Defendants have used excessive and unreasonable force.

35. During all of the events described, the Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiffs.

36. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when Defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiffs' being seriously injured.

37. Plaintiffs were transported by Defendants to the 44th Precinct, where they were illegally searched, photographed and fingerprinted.

38. Plaintiffs were wrongfully incarcerated over the course of eighteen (18) hours. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, Plaintiffs suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.

39. Defendants' malicious prosecutions against Plaintiffs were terminated in Plaintiffs' favor on January 31, 2020, when all charges were unconditionally and outright dismissed.

40. Plaintiffs assert that Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due to their discriminatory prejudices against Black or African American males, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against plaintiffs, so that they would provide defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota, and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

41. Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Plaintiffs' ethnic or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

42. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conducting violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

43. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with a Docket Number of CR-019962-19BX. Upon information and belief, the identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 Defendants are known only to the Defendants.

44. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

45. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

46. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

47. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

48. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

49. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

50. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

51. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

52. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

53. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

54. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

55. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

56. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

58. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including BRENNAN, CABRERA, CRAIN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

59. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
