Re: CCRB Case No. 202310971 (Incident Date: November 20, 2023) regarding Police Officer Mosa Parris, Tax No. 939746 (PODS Case No. C-033944)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the request for Charges and Specifications in connection with CCRB Case No. 202310971, pertaining to Police Officer Mosa Parris. Having analyzed the facts and circumstances regarding this matter, the Police Commissioner has determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Parris would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process.

In this matter, Officer Parris used her personal phone to attempt to facilitate the identification of the complainant in order to assist him in retrieving his invoiced property. The Police Commissioner has determined that this was a violation of the Department's general prohibition against members using their personal electronic devices while on duty. However, the Police Commissioner has also determined that this allegation falls outside the purview of the CCRB. Additionally, this allegation was investigated internally, and the violation was documented in the Cops Rapid Assessment and Feedback Tool (CRAFT).

Officer Parris has nearly twenty years of service with the NYPD and has no formal disciplinary history, nor any prior substantiated CCRB complaints. Therefore, as provided for within the 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the New York City Police Department, the Police Commissioner, in the interest of justice and to retain jurisdiction over this matter, intends to impose no disciplinary action for the alleged misconduct.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker

Re: CCRB Case No. 202310971 (Incident Date: November 20, 2023) involving
Police Officer Mosa Parris Tax No. 939746 (PODS No. C-033944)

Dear Commissioner Tisch:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief Michael P. Baker, dated May 14, 2025, informing the Civilian Complaint Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “CCRB”) of your intention to “retain jurisdiction over this matter” and to “impose no disciplinary action for the alleged misconduct.” Pursuant to Paragraph 6 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between CCRB and the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”), I am responding to Deputy Chief Baker’s notification.

Deputy Chief Baker stated that “the Police Commissioner has determined that this was a violation of the Department’s general prohibition against members using their personal electronic devices while on duty...” but also that “this allegation falls outside the purview of the CCRB.” CCRB agrees with the former but disagrees with the latter. Police Officer Parris did, in fact, use her own personal cell phone device to take a photograph of the complainant to send to another member of service for the purposes of identifying the complainant. The complainant told Police Officer Parris to stop recording him on her phone and she denied recording him. Police Officer Parris also admitted to using her personal cell phone to take the picture of the complainant. This is a clear cut violation of the Department’s rules and Police Officer Parris should be held accountable for this misconduct.

CCRB acknowledges the fact that Police Officer Parris has no formal disciplinary history and no prior CCRB allegations during her almost twenty (20) years of service with the Department. However, by not imposing any disciplinary action, it grossly diminishes the seriousness of this misconduct. Police Officer Parris must be held accountable for this misconduct and CCRB should be permitted to prosecute this case. CCRB requests that you allow our agency to pursue the prosecution of these Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Parris.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: CCRB Case No. 202310971 (Incident Date: November 20, 2023) regarding Police Officer Mosa Parris, Tax No. 939746 (PODS Case No. C-033944)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed your letter, dated May 19, 2025, concerning the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") case involving Police Officer Mosa Parris, and nevertheless maintains that it would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process to allow the Civilian Complaint Review Board to continue its prosecution of Police Officer Parris for the reasons expressed in my May 14, 2025 letter.

Therefore, the Police Commissioner affirms her decision to exercise Provision Two of the Memorandum of Understanding and now directs that no disciplinary action be imposed for the alleged misconduct.

Sincerely,

TS
