THE U.S. CONSTITUTION
MUNICIPAL LIABILITY "MONELL" CLAIM

64. The allegations set forth in paragraphs "1" through "63" inclusive are incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

65. Defendants P.O. ANGELES, P.O. WOOTEN, and SGT. STEVKO, and “JOHN DOES 1-3”, individually and collectively, within the scope of their employment and authority and under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted customs, policies, procedures, rules and/or usages of the NYPD and which were in violation of the rights of Plaintiff as secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and the United States Constitution.

66. The aforesaid customs, policies, procedures, rules and/or usages of the NYPD included but were not limited to, criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without legal justification or probable cause, abuse of process and authority, infliction of emotional distress, and failure to intervene when other officers, agents and/or employees violated Plaintiff’s well-established statutory and constitutional rights.

67. Because the NYPD is the policymaker for Defendant CITY with respect to the administration of law enforcement policies and procedures, and the NYPD’s unlawful policies and procedures, and practices in tolerating such misconduct were a substantial cause of the unlawful arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, Defendant CITY is liable to Plaintiff pursuant to Monell v. City of New York, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

72. Defendant CITY authorized, tolerated and ratified the misconduct of its officers, agents and employees generally, and of Defendants P.O. ANGELES, P.O. WOOTEN, and SGT. STEVKO, and “JOHN DOES 1-3”, specifically, by failing to: discipline officers, agents and employees; take adequate precautions in screening, hiring, training, educating, informing, supervising, promoting, and retaining officers, agents and employees; failing to turn over evidence of unlawful and criminal acts of prosecutors; and failing to establish and maintain a meaningful system for responding to complaints of investigative and prosecutorial misconduct, all of which constituted deliberate indifference by Defendant CITY to Plaintiff’s statutory and constitutional rights, including well-established rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and the United States Constitution, and deliberate indifference to the physical safety and well-being of Plaintiff.

73. As a direct result of Defendants’ acts and/or omissions, Plaintiff was caused to suffer damages including significant, severe, painful and permanent personal injuries, mental and physical anguish, psychological and emotional suffering, humiliation and embarrassment, all of which continue until this day.

74. The conduct of Defendants set forth above and complained of herein exhibited such a high degree of moral culpability that it renders Defendants liable to Plaintiff.

AND THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

75. The allegations set forth in paragraphs “1” through “74” inclusive are incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

76. It was Defendants’ governmental policy, procedure and/or practice regarding the wrongful arrest, and initiation and continuation of the criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without legal justification or probable cause, abuse of process and authority, infliction of emotional distress, and failure to intervene when other officers, agents and/or employees violated Plaintiff’s well-established statutory and constitutional rights which contributed to and caused harm to Plaintiff to occur, including the violation of Plaintiff’s statutory and constitutional rights as secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and by the United States Constitution under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments.

77. There have been patterns and a series of incidents of unconstitutional conduct by Defendants which have caused malicious prosecution, abuse of process and authority, infliction of emotional distress, and failure to intervene in similar instances as herein.

78. As a direct result of the acts, omissions, and policies of Defendants in failing to adequately screen, hire, train, educate, inform, supervise, promote, discipline and retain officers, agents and employees, Defendants acted with deliberate indifference to Plaintiff’s statutory and constitutional rights as secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and by the United States Constitution under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments.

79. Acting individually and collectively on behalf of the CITY and the District Attorney, Defendants withheld favorable, material evidence from Plaintiff and his attorney, alleged false and misleading information in the accusatory instrument used to bring said charges against Plaintiff, presented false and misleading testimony and arguments against Plaintiff, failed to correct such false allegations, testimony and arguments, and acted to conceal the aforementioned wrongdoing from Plaintiff and his attorney.

80. As a direct result of the aforesaid acts, omissions, and policies of Defendants, under color of State Law, Plaintiff was deprived of his rights as secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and by the United States Constitution under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments.

As a direct result of the aforesaid acts, omissions, and policies of Defendants, Plaintiff was additionally deprived of his rights under New York Common Law to be free from malicious prosecution, abuse of process, intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligent infliction of emotional distress, negligence, gross negligence, and other harm.

83. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights as secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the United States Constitution, and New York Common Law, Plaintiff was caused to suffer significant, severe, painful and permanent personal injuries, mental and physical anguish, psychological and emotional suffering, humiliation and embarrassment, all of which continue until this day, and further pecuniary damages and legal costs in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limitation of all lower courts, and in an amount to be determined at a trial of this action, including attorney's fees under 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

84. The conduct of Defendants set forth above and complained of herein exhibited such a high degree of moral culpability that it renders Defendants liable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK, P.O. LUIS ANGELES, P.O. COREY WOOTEN, and SGT. JOHN STEVKO, PERSONS EMPLOYED BY NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, and "JOHN DOES 1-3", PERSONS EMPLOYED BY CITY OF NEW YORK, individually and collectively, on all causes of action, in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limitations of all lower courts and in an amount to be determined at the trial of this action, together with all costs and interest, and for such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
