INDEX NO.:VERIFIED COMPLAINTJURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff SHAWN SOTO, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On March 24, 2022, at approximately 1-2:00 p.m., Plaintiff Shawn Soto, while lawfully in the vicinity of E 137th and St Ann's Avenue, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was detained at the 40th Precinct and was then detained at Bronx Central Booking for an additional forty-eight hours before he was released on recognizance. His unlawful arrest and detention caused Plaintiff to miss two days of work and led to a further aggravation of his anxiety to the extent that Plaintiff was suffering from panic attacks following the arrest. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped and detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Sean Soto is a resident of the state of New York.

2. NYPD Police Detective Ezequiel Martinez, Shield No. 1763, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department
3. NYPD Police Detective Ezequiel Martinez, Shield No, 1763 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Detective Ezequiel Martinez, Shield No. 1763 was assigned to the Narcotics Section of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Detective Nelson (Ghost) Nin, Shield No. 5300, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department
6. NYPD Police Detective Nelson Nin, Shield No. 5300, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
7. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Detective Nelson Nin, Shield No. 5300, was assigned to the Narcotics Section of the NYPD
8. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbered One Through Three are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbered One Through Three are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

13. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on December 29, 2022.
14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
16. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. On March 24, 2022, at approximately, 1-2:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of E 137th St & St Ann's Avenue, County of the Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested and detained Plaintiff without legal justification.
18. Plaintiff was walking out of St. Ann's Deli with a cigarette and Advil that he had purchased there when he was accosted by the plain-clothed Defendant Officers who were undercover, who exited two unmarked vehicles.
19. Plaintiff was grabbed by the Defendant Officers who searched him with a pat down over his clothing and a search of the contents in his jacket.
20. No contraband or anything illegal was found on Plaintiff, just marijuana, which is legal.
21. Defendant Officers then escorted Plaintiff to an unmarked black van where they were already other individuals who had been arrested.
22. Plaintiff was kept in the unmarked black van for two hours while the Defendant Officers drove around the area, making subsequent arrests in the process.
23. Plaintiff was brought to the 40th Precinct at approximately 4:00 p.m. There, Plaintiff was strip searched. Plaintiff's phone, jewelry, and marijuana were removed from his person and were given to his girlfriend when she arrived at the precinct.
24. Plaintiff was detained at the 40th Precinct for seven hours. During this time, Plaintiff expressly requested medical assistance because he felt light-headed and was vomiting. At one point, Plaintiff asked to be taken to a hospital after his request for Gabapentin and Remeron--both of which were medications that he had been prescribed and was regularly taking—were ignored by the Defendant Officers. Plaintiff's requests for medical assistance were similarly ignored.

25. Plaintiff was moved from the 40th Precinct to Bronx Central Booking where a DNA sample was obtained from him, and he was held for a total of forty-eight hours.
26. None of the people who arrested Plaintiff were in uniform nor did they announce themselves as police officers when they seized him.
27. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of the Defendant Officers told him that he was being arrested, what he was being arrested for, or where he was being taken.
28. As a result of the Defendant Officers actions, Plaintiff missed two days of work, which financially set him back around $150. Plaintiff also experienced heightened anxiety in the immediate aftermath of his arrest, and experienced panic attacks that required the upping of his Gabapentin dosage from 15 mg to 30 mg.
29. On March 25, 2022, the defendant Detective Ezequiel Martinez, at approximately 6:45 p.m., provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff had committed a crime on January 13, 2022.
30. Specifically, defendant Martinez falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in criminal facilitation in the fourth degree back on January 13, 2022.
31. Plaintiff went before a Judge and was released on his own recognizance.
32. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on May 5, 2022.
33. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
34. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
35. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

36. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
37. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
38. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
39. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
40. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
41. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

42. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
43. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
44. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTIONFalse Imprisonment

45. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

46. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
47. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
48. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
49. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
50. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

51. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
52. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
53. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

57. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

58. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
59. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
60. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

61. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
62. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
63. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
64. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious, debilitating injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his injuries worsened, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
65. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
66. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
67. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

69. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
70. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
71. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
72. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
73. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
74. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
76. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

78. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

79. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
80. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
81. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
82. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

83. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
84. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff had been prescribed Gabapentin and Remeron to treat his depression, and required access to these medications during his detention at Central Booking, did not make any attempt to procure said medications for Plaintiff.
85. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff was experiencing light-headedness and was vomiting, and was requesting to be brought to a hospital for medical attention, did not at any point move Plaintiff to a hospital.
86. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in increased anxiety following his release on recognizance, which required an increase in his Gabapentin dosage from 15 mg to 30 mg to address symptoms of panic attacks.
87. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
88. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
89. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
90. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

91. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
92. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
93. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
94. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 55 hours in total.
95. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

96. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
97. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
98. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
99. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
100. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.
101. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries.

TWELVTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

102. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
103. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.
104. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.
105. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
106. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
107. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 55 hours.
108. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

109. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
110. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.
111. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

112. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
113. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
114. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
115. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.
116. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

117. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
118. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.
119. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
120. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

121. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

122. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff SHAWN SOTO demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
