Plaintiff, THOMAS SCOTT, by and through his attorneys, THE LAW OFFICES OF MICHAEL S. LAMONSOFF, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint, respectfully alleges, upon information and belief:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff brings this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages and attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. § 1988 for violations of his civil rights, as said rights are secured by said statutes and the Constitution of the United States of America.

JURISDICTION

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
3. Jurisdiction is founded upon 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343, and 1367.
4. This court has jurisdiction over each federal claim pursuant to concurrent jurisdiction.

VENUE

5. Venue is properly laid in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, in that the events giving rise to this claim occurred in New York County in the State of New York.

JURY DEMAND

6. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b).

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff, THOMAS SCOTT, is, and has been, at all relevant times, a resident of Bronx County, City and State of New York.
8. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
9. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, maintains the New York City Police Department, a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the New York State Criminal Procedure Law, acting under the direction and supervision of the aforementioned municipal corporation, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
10. At all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendant, POLICE OFFICER BRIAN BENVENUTO (TAX 952459), was a duly sworn member of said department and was acting under the supervision of said department and according to his official duties. Defendant Benvenuto is sued herein in his official and individual capacities. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant Benvenuto was assigned to the 6th Precinct of the NYPD.

11. At all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendant, LIEUTENANT JOSEPH KOURAKOS (TAX 924039), was a duly sworn member of said department and was acting under the supervision of said department and according to his official duties. Defendant Kourakos is sued herein in his official and individual capacities. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant Kourakos was assigned to the 6th Precinct of the NYPD.
12. At all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or CITY OF NEW YORK.
13. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
14. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

15. On January 21, 2017, at approximately 2:30 a.m., Plaintiff THOMAS SCOTT was lawfully walking near the intersection of Bleecker Street and Macdougall Street in the County, City, and State of New York.
16. At this time, Defendants Benvenuto and Kourakos arrived at the location on duty and in plain clothes.

17. Without any legal justification or excuse, the Defendants approached Plaintiff and began searching him.
18. The search revealed no evidence of any guns, drugs, or contraband.
19. Plaintiff was not engaged in any unlawful or suspicious activity.
20. Nonetheless, the Plaintiff was formally arrested, was placed in handcuffs, and was transported to the station house of a local area precinct believed to be the 6th Precinct where he was searched and detained for several hours.
21. The search yielded no evidence of any guns, drugs, or contraband
22. At no time on January 21, 2017, did Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of law.
23. At no time on January 21, 2017, did the Defendants possess probable cause to arrest Plaintiff or to order Plaintiff's arrest.
24. At no time on January 21, 2017, did the Defendants possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest Plaintiff.
25. Plaintiff was held for several hours at the stationhouse before he was transported to New York County Central Booking where he was held for several additional hours before he was arraigned on a criminal complaint containing false allegations provided by the Defendants.
26. Specifically, Defendants Benvenuto and Kourakos swore out a criminal complaint against Plaintiff stating that Plaintiff was in possession of cocaine and marijuana.
27. These and other allegations were false and Defendants Benvenuto and Kourakos knew they were false when they made them.
28. Pursuant to these false allegations, the Plaintiff was charged with criminal possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree, and attempted criminal possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree.

29. Defendants Benvenuto and Kourakos provided knowingly false and misleading information to prosecutors at the New York County District Attorney's Office.
30. Each of the allegations were false and the Defendants knew them to be false when they were made.
31. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff THOMAS SCOTT sustained, inter alia, embarrassment, humiliation, physical injuries, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
32. All of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.
33. All of the aforementioned acts deprived Plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and were therefore in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.
34. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers with all of the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.
35. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.
36. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR FALSE ARREST
UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

37. Plaintiff THOMAS SCOTT repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
38. As a result of the Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff was subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest, taken into custody, and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained, and confined without any probable cause, privilege, or consent.
39. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was falsely arrested without probable cause

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR DENIAL OF RIGHT TO FAIR TRIAL UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

40. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
41. At no time did Defendants have any legal basis for commencing criminal process, nor was there any reasonable basis to believe said conduct set forth herein was lawful, reasonable, or otherwise appropriate.
42. Defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence to the New York County District Attorney.
43. Defendants did not make a complete and full statement of facts to the District Attorney.
44. Defendants withheld exculpatory evidence from the District Attorney.

45. Defendants were directly and actively involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
46. Defendants lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
47. Defendants acted with malice in initiating criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
48. Defendants directly and actively involved in the continuation of criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
49. Defendants lacked probable cause to continue criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
50. Defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence throughout all phases of the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
51. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of Defendants the criminal proceedings were terminated in Plaintiff's favor when his charges were dismissed in the interests of justice.
52. By so doing, the individual Defendants, individually and collectively, subjected Plaintiff to fabrication of evidence, denial of fair trial, and denial of due process, and thereby violated, conspired to violate, and aided and abetted in the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
53. By reason thereof, Defendants Benvenuto and Kourakos have violated 42 U.S.C. §1983 and caused Plaintiff to suffer emotional and physical injuries, mental anguish, incarceration and the deprivation of liberty, and the loss of his constitutional rights.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

54. Plaintiff THOMAS SCOTT repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.

55. Defendants fabricated knowingly false material evidence and forwarded said evidence to prosecutors at the New York County District Attorney's Office.
56. As a result, Plaintiff suffered deprivation of his liberty, as he was required to make numerous court appearances to contest the false accusations against him.
57. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was detained and falsely arrested, detained, and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FOR MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

58. Plaintiff, repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
59. Defendants arrested, searched, and incarcerated plaintiff THOMAS SCOTT, in the absence of any evidence of criminal wrongdoing, notwithstanding their knowledge that said search, arrest and incarceration would jeopardize Plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety, and violate his constitutional rights.
60. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials, with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.
61. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials pursuant to the customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

62. Those customs, policies, patterns, and practices include, but are not limited to:
- i. requiring officers to make a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
 - ii. requiring precincts to record a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
 - iii. failing to take any measures to correct unconstitutional behavior when brought to the attention of supervisors and/or policy makers;
 - iv. failing to properly train police officers in the requirements of the United States Constitution.
63. The aforesaid customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department directly cause, inter alia, the following unconstitutional practices:
- i. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to inflate the officer's arrest statistics;
 - ii. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to positively affect precinct-wide statistics;
 - iii. falsifying evidence and testimony to support those arrests;
 - iv. falsifying evidence and testimony to cover up police misconduct.
64. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department constitute a deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of Plaintiff, THOMAS SCOTT.
65. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.

66. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.
67. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, Plaintiff was placed under arrest unlawfully.
68. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating the constitutional rights of Plaintiff.
69. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers, and were directly responsible for the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.
70. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived Plaintiff of federally protected constitutional rights, particularly their Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights to be free from unreasonable search and seizure.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against each Defendant on each of the foregoing causes of action as follows:

- i. an order awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- ii. an order awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- iii. reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. §1988; and
- iv. directing such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper, together with attorneys' fees, interest, costs and disbursements of this action.

VERIFICATION

JESSICA MASSIMI, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am an attorney at LAW OFFICES OF MICHAEL S. LAMONSOFF, attorneys of record for Plaintiff, THOMAS SCOTT, in the action within. I have read the annexed and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files.

The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is that Plaintiff is not presently in the county wherein the attorneys for the Plaintiff maintain their offices.
