-----X
Plaintiff Mehdi Bensabeur, by his attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Mehdi Bensabeur is a citizen of the United States and a resident of New York.
3. POLICE OFFICERS AMET VRZIVOLI (Shield # 4643) and AALIYAH CARD (Shield # 27054) are and were all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. POLICE OFFICERS AMET VRZIVOLI (Shield # 4643) and AALIYAH CARD (Shield # 27054) are being sued in their individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of State causes of action filed a timely Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(h) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on March 26, 2019.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On November 3, 2018 at approximately 3:00 a.m. at 125th Street and Lexington Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Bensabeur was at a bar when police officers approached him. He was arrested for resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. Mr. Bensabeur was never physically or verbally aggressive with the police and complied with their instructions during the arrest. He was leaving a bar and accidentally bumped into a man. The man confronted him about and he apologized. As he tried to leave again, the man grabbed him by the arm and punched him in the back of the head. Two other men joined in assaulting him. The witnesses at the bar repeatedly told the police that he was attacked and that the assailants got away, but he was still arrested and subjected to excessive force.

15. Police officers physically assaulted Mr. Bensabeur while arresting him, causing one of his teeth to fall out and the other to become detached. He was hit multiple times by police, while one of them slammed him on the ground and another put a knee on his back. On the day of his arrest, Mr. Bensabeur was taken to Maimonides hospital for treatment of his teeth. One tooth extraction was done and he received sixteen stitches inside his mouth and lip.
16. At arraignment, Mr. Bensabeur was ROR'd.
17. Mr. Bensabeur was incarcerated for 19 hours. He attended approximately 5 court appearances. On account of his arrest, he missed 3 weeks of work at New York Caterers and 619 Caterers totaling $4,500 in lost wages. The police officer's assault on him caused his two front teeth to fall out. He has to temporarily wear dentures and get implants.
18. On March 19, 2019, Mr. Bensabeur pled guilty to disorderly conduct with a one-year conditional discharge. The remaining charges were dismissed.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

ASSAULT

19. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 18 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
20. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that he had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff. Plaintiff was assaulted by numerous officers.
21. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
22. The City, as the employer of defendants is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

BATTERY

23. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 22 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
24. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiffs, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiffs and caused such battery. Plaintiffs were assaulted by numerous officers.

25. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
26. The City, as the employer of Defendants is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

27. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 26 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
28. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

29. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 28 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
30. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
31. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
32. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to undue force upon his person over the course of the arrest.
33. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of her employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
34. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENCE

- 35. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 34 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 36. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
- 37. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to undue force without sufficient or any cause to do so.
- 38. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
- 39. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
- 40. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

- 41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 42. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
- 43. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained great emotional injuries.
- 44. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH CAUSES OF ACTION42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal claims (7th claim); and excessive-force (8th claim).

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
47. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
48. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of his Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
49. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' use of undue and excessive force upon him causing physical injury violated his Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to excessive force, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
50. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
51. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of his 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, she also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTIONMunicipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

52. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
53. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
54. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.

55. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
56. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
57. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
58. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
59. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, MEHDI BENSABEUR, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
