Re: CCRB Case No. 202206066 (Incident Date: September 10, 2022) regarding Police Officer Shazana Zaman, Tax No. 970336 (DADS No. 2023-29443)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the request for Charges and Specifications in connection with CCRB Case No. 202206066, pertaining to Police Officer Shazana Zaman. Having analyzed the facts and circumstances of this matter, the Police Commissioner has determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Zaman would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process.

In this matter, Police Officer Zaman, along with other members of her command, was conducting a vehicle checkpoint. During one interaction with a civilian, Police Officer Zaman requested that the civilian provide her identification. The civilian, who was already agitated from her interaction with another officer prior to Police Officer Zaman's request, refused to hand over her identification. As a result of her refusal, Police Officer Zaman reached into the vehicle, grabbed the individual's arm in an attempt to remove the identification from her hand. While doing this, Police Officer Zaman stated in sum and substance that the civilian would be arrested if she kept acting in that manner. Subsequently, at the direction of the supervising Lieutenant, Police Officer Zaman issued the civilian a summons for Disorderly Conduct. While the Police Commissioner agrees with the substantiated allegations in this matter, a lesser penalty than the proposed Charges and Specifications is warranted given the minimal use of force used in this case and Police Officer Zaman's professional history with the Department.

Therefore, as provided for within the 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the Police Department, the Police Commissioner, in the interest of justice and to retain jurisdiction over this matter, intends to direct the issuance of a Schedule "A" Command Discipline for the force allegations and the allegation that she threatened to arrest an individual.

Sincerely,

Re: CCRB Case No. 202206066 (Incident Date: September 10, 2022) involving Police Officer Shazana Zaman, Tax No. 970336 (DADS No. 2023-29443)

Commissioner Caban:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief Anthony S. Marino, dated March 6, 2024. Pursuant to Paragraph 2 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between CCRB and the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”).

Deputy Chief Marino stated that after reviewing the CCRB’s recommended penalty, you determined that you would be imposing a Schedule “A” Command Discipline on PO Zaman concerning two allegations: an improper use of force and a threat to arrest. More specifically, you determined that PO Zaman should receive a penalty other than Charges and Specifications, given her minimal use of force and PO Zaman’s professional history with the Department.

If the PO Zaman were to have accepted responsibility for her behavior in this matter, the CCRB would likely have reached a disposition similar to the one proposed by the Police Commissioner. The CCRB also notes that Deputy Chief Marino’s letter states that the PO Zaman issued the improper summons at the “direction of the supervisory Lieutenant.” The CCRB requests that the Department notify the CCRB of what, if any, discipline the supervisory Lieutenant will receive for directing the issuance of an improper summons.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Darche
Executive Director
NYC Civilian Complaint Review Board

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed your letter, dated March 12, 2024, regarding the CCRB case involving Police Officer Shazana Zaman and nevertheless maintains that it would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process to allow the Civilian Complaint Review Board to continue its prosecution of Police Officer Zaman, for the reasons expressed in my March 6, 2024 letter.

To accommodate the Statute of Limitations and in accordance with the Police Commissioner's direction, Police Officer Zaman was issued a Schedule "A" Command Discipline for the allegations of improper force and the allegation of threatening to arrest the individual.

Sincerely,

Anthony S. Marino
Deputy Chief
