Plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On September 6, 2020, at approximately 10:00 p.m., plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR, while lawfully driving in the vicinity of Sterling Place and Ralph Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to use of excessive force and neglect by the defendant Officers, causing him to suffer physical injuries when a defendant NYPD officer crashed into his vehicle in an unmarked van. After receiving medical attention at Interfaith Medical Center, Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the 77th Precinct Police Station for approximately 48 hours until plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, charged with crimes he did not commit, and released on his own recognizance. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial until the false charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about March 16th, 2021. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, subjected to excessive force and neglect, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD OFFICER SHOEB H. SIDDIQUI, Shield No. 24863, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. NYPD OFFICER SHOEB H. SIDDIQUI, Shield No. 24863, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 77th Precinct.
5. NYPD OFFICER SHOEB H. SIDDIQUI, Shield No. 24863, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
6. New York City Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers 1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officers John Does and Jane Does Numbers 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on May 17, 2021.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On September 6, 2020, at approximately 10:00 P.M., Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of Sterling Place and Ralph Avenue, in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully crashed into his vehicle, stopped, questioned, searched, and falsely arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. On the evening of the relevant incident, the plaintiff made a trip to Rite Aid on Fulton Street and Ralph Avenue in Brooklyn, NY with two friends accompanying him in his vehicle.

17. Plaintiff had left Rite Aid and was driving south on Ralph Avenue toward his home, located at 501B Howard Avenue in Brooklyn, NY.

18. As their vehicle approached the intersection of Sterling Place, the traffic light was green, allowing Plaintiff and the vehicle in front of him to proceed through the intersection.

19. Before the plaintiff's car could cross the intersection, an unmarked van rammed into the driver's side panel of the plaintiff's car, causing him to crash into the vehicle in front of him.

20. The crash caused the plaintiff's airbags to deploy and the windshield to shatter; his car was totaled.

21. The unmarked van had displayed no lights or emergency sirens, and the plaintiff had heard no horns or screeching brakes to warn him of the van's presence.

22. Plaintiff observed a uniformed NYPD officer exit the unmarked van; the officer walked up onto the sidewalk and asked the plaintiff if he had been drinking.

23. The plaintiff replied that he had not been drinking, and asked the defendant officer for his name and badge number; the officer ignored this request.

24. The plaintiff got out of his vehicle and called the police, then proceeded to take a video of the scene.

25. When other defendant officers arrived at the scene, they sided with their fellow officer who had crashed into the plaintiff's vehicle.

26. When EMS arrived on the scene, the plaintiff boarded an ambulance to be taken to the hospital to be treated for his injuries from the crash.

27. It was at this time that the plaintiff was placed in handcuffs by a defendant officer; no field sobriety or breathalyzer test was administered at the scene.

28. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

29. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

30. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

31. Plaintiff was then transported to Interfaith Medical Center where he was examined and minimally treated for a fractured rib and severe lower back injuries, all while still in handcuffs.

32. At Interfaith, the plaintiff was denied any medication for his pain until more defendant officers could arrive and collect a blood sample for alcohol testing.

33. At approximately 3:00 a.m., the additional officers finally arrived, took a blood sample, sealed it, and left the hospital with the sample; the plaintiff overheard a nurse tell the officers that there had been no evidence of alcohol in his urine.

34. Defendants then transported Plaintiff to the 77th Precinct police station against his will, where Plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted, and detained in a holding cell.

35. At approximately 12:00 p.m. the following day, Plaintiff was transported from the 77th Precinct to Kings County Central Bookings.

36. The defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

37. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that the plaintiff was guilty of Driving While Intoxicated.

38. On September 7, 2020 after approximately 48 hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed, and released from custody on his own recognizance.

39. Thereafter, on or about March 16, 2021, all criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

40. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

41. The unlawful search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

42. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

43. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

44. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

45. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

46. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

47. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

48. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

49. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

50. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

51. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

52. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

53. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

57. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

58. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

59. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

60. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

62. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

64. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 63 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

65. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

66. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

67. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

68. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

69. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

71. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

73. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

75. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by crashing into his vehicle.

76. The Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, and defendant NYPD OFFICER SHOEB H. SIDDIQUI, SHIELD NO. 24863, and all their agents, contractors, servants, employees, and/or licensees, were negligent, careless, and reckless in the ownership, operation, management, maintenance, supervision, use and control of the aforesaid vehicle; failing to keep the motor vehicle under control at all times; failing to operate the motor vehicle in a safe and reasonable manner; failing to exercise reasonable care in the operation of a motor vehicle; failing to operate the subject vehicle in compliance with state and city traffic laws; and the Defendant was otherwise negligent, careless and reckless in the circumstances then and there prevailing.

77. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

78. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

79. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, economic, and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

82. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, handcuffing him in the back of an ambulance and denying him reprieve from his pain, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

85. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 84 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

86. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

87. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

88. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

89. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

90. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

91. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to financial, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

94. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, DENNIS TAYLOR. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

96. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

97. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

99. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

101. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 100 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

103. The Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, and defendant NYPD OFFICER SHOEB H. SIDDIQUI, SHIELD NO. 24863, and all their agents, contractors, servants, employees, and/or licensees, were negligent, careless, and reckless in the ownership, operation, management, maintenance, supervision, use and control of the aforesaid vehicle; failing to keep the motor vehicle under control at all times; failing to operate the motor vehicle in a safe and reasonable manner; failing to exercise reasonable care in the operation of a motor vehicle; failing to operate the subject vehicle in compliance with state and city traffic laws; and the Defendant was otherwise negligent, careless and reckless in the circumstances then and there prevailing.

104. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

105. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 104 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

106. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

107. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

108. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

109. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

110. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

111. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

112. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

113. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 112 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

114. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

115. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

116. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

117. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

118. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

119. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

120. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

121. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

122. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff DENNIS TAYLOR demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
