4. FACTUAL CHARGES
November 20, 2018 Incident

30. On November 20, 2018, at approximately 12:00 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of Grand Avenue and West Tremont Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez was illegally stopped, seized and searched, battered and assaulted, detained, and arrested, by and/or at the direction of Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

31. On said date and time, Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez, was lawfully present as a pedestrian in the vicinity of this second complained-of-incident.

32. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally approached, stopped, and detained Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez, armed with their handguns that were aimed at Plaintiff, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

33. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally seized and search Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez, with their outstretched hands suddenly and violently grabbing him about his person and recovering no contraband, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

34. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 proceeded to violently contort Plaintiff's arms behind his back so that they could apply metal handcuffs disregarding Plaintiff's complaints that the cuffs were placed on too tightly causing her significant discomfort and pain.

35. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ignored all of plaintiffs' pleas to loosen the handcuffs, which resulted in Plaintiff's wrists and hands sustaining loss of feeling, redness, and swelling.

36. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez, in a police vehicle and transported him against his will to an NYPD Precinct, where he was questioned as to his pedigree, fingerprinted, strip-searched, photographed, and illegally detained in a dank and dirty cell before being transported to Central Booking where Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, searched, retina-scanned, and illegally detained throughout various dank and dirty cells until he was arraigned and transported to and illegally incarcerated the Manhattan Detention Complex for a period of time until he was thereafter transported to and illegally incarcerated at Rikers Island Correctional Facility for a period of time until his release from physical custody on or about September 21, 2021.

37. As a result, Plaintiff, Mr. Polanco, was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by and/or at the direction of Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of approximately three-and-a-half (3 ½) years until his release from physical custody on or about February 3, 2022. During his incarceration at Manhattan Detention Complex and Rikers Island Correctional Facility, Plaintiff was subjected to searches, strip-searches, gratuitous assaults and batteries, countless civil rights violations, and all the attendant indignities attributable to illegal incarceration in a correctional facility.

38. As a result, Plaintiff, Mr. Rodriguez, was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by and/or at the direction of Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of approximately three (3) years until his release from physical custody on or about September 21, 2021. During his incarceration at Manhattan Detention Complex and Rikers Island Correctional Facility, Plaintiff was subjected to searches, strip-searches, gratuitous assaults and batteries, countless civil rights violations, and all the attendant indignities attributable to illegal incarceration in a correctional facility.

39. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, signed the criminal complaint against Plaintiffs, in which he knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against plaintiffs, namely that both Plaintiffs committed the criminal offense of robbery.

40. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest Plaintiffs, because Defendants never observed Plaintiffs commit any crime or violation of the law.

41. Due to the lack of probable cause for the seizure of Plaintiffs' persons, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of Assault and Battery by Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

42. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly, maliciously, and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which Defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiffs before forwarding to prosecutors.

43. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, and a gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith.

44. Plaintiffs assert that Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs with the full knowledge that they had committed no crimes or violations of the law.

45. Plaintiffs, therefore, assert that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant their criminal prosecution, at any point, they were denied their rights to a fair trial and due process and were maliciously prosecuted from the moment of their arraignment, until the criminal proceeding was irrefutably terminated in favor of Plaintiffs when all adverse charges under Bronx County Criminal Court Indictment Nos. 3231/18 and 4218/18 were outright dismissed and sealed on the merits on or about December 10, 2021 and February 3, 2022, respectively, pursuant to §160.50 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decision to stop, seize, and arrest Plaintiffs without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiffs to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiffs to excessive force.

48. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiffs, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

49. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against plaintiff in retaliation for plaintiffs' exertions of their constitutional right to freely express their opinion and inquiries, namely plaintiffs' displeasure with the manner in which defendants addressed them, their use of a personal cell phone, and their polite request for an explanation of their conduct.

50. As a result, Plaintiffs' mental health issues were aggravated and they developed a severe fear of police officers, which prevented them from venturing from their house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled their desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

51. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of plaintiffs due to solely to their statuses as Hispanic or Latino individuals.

52. Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiffs by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

53. Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated plaintiffs' civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

54. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

55. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

56. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemin throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

57. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

58. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD

‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

59. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

60. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

61. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

62. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

63. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came from the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

64. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

65. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiffs’ arrests without probable cause.

66. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

67. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to plaintiffs’ underlying arrests, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiffs’ civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

68. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

69. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

70. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

71. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

72. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

73. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including MCCREADY, BEACH, GINANDES, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiffs' civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

74. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiffs were caused to suffer the loss of their liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Protected Speech or Activity Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

75. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

76. Plaintiffs engaged in speech and activities that were protected by article I, section 8, of the constitution of the State of New York.

77. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against plaintiffs that were motivated or substantially caused by plaintiff's constitutionally protected speech or activities.

78. Defendants' retaliatory actions against plaintiffs resulted in deprivations to their liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against them in the absence of probable cause.

79. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected plaintiffs' protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing them from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling their desire to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

80. Accordingly, plaintiffs' rights to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by article I, section 8, of the constitution of the State of New York, were violated by defendants.

81. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

82. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
