VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff WILLIAMS LORANCE, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On September 24, 2021, at approximately 9:45 p.m., Plaintiff Williams Lorance, while lawfully in the vicinity of Albermale Road and Flatbush Avenue, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Williams Lorance is a resident of the state of New York.
2. NYPD Police Officer Adan Suazorodas, Shield No. 10750 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

3. NYPD Police Officer Adan Suazorodas, Shield No. 10750 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Adan Suazorodas, Shield No. 10750 was assigned to the 70th Police Precinct of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
7. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
9. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
10. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on February 28, 2022.
11. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On September 24, 2021, at approximately 9:45 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of Albermarle Road and Flatbush Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff.
15. Plaintiff was driving when he pulled over on Flatbush Avenue to make a phone call.
16. The driver of an unmarked vehicle with tinted windows approached Plaintiff, made a u-turn, pulled up behind Plaintiff's vehicle, and turned on the vehicle's overhead lights.
17. Approximately two Defendant officers exited the unmarked vehicle and approached Plaintiff.
18. Plaintiff rolled down his window and asked "What's the problem?"
19. Defendant Officers requested Plaintiff hand over his license and registration, and Plaintiff did so.
20. Defendant Officers then asked Plaintiff to step out of the vehicle.
21. Defendant Officers removed from Plaintiff's front pocket a small knife that he had used earlier in the day to cut wires while installing new lights for his vehicle.
22. Defendant Officers handcuffed Plaintiff tightly, causing significant bruising and cuts to his arms and wrists.
23. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of the Defendant Officers told him that he was being arrested, what he was being arrested for, or where he was being taken.
24. Defendant Officers placed Plaintiff inside a police vehicle and transported him to the 70th precinct where he was searched and placed into a cell.
25. Eventually, the Defendant Officers took Plaintiff into an interrogation room where they questioned him.
26. Plaintiff was placed back into the cell where he remained for approximately an hour before he was removed to be processed.
27. The Defendant officers fingerprinted and photographed Plaintiff.
28. The Defendant Officers informed Plaintiff that they needed to take his DNA in order to give him a Desk Appearance Ticket.
29. Defendant Officers further informed Plaintiff that if he refused they would have to charge him with obstruction because of a new law.

30. Defendant Officer stated that if Plaintiff refused to give DNA, Plaintiff would have to be processed again for the obstruction charge before he was allowed to leave.
31. Plaintiff submitted to the DNA test and was placed back into the cell.
32. During his time in custody, Defendant Officers pushed Plaintiff into the cell and shoved his head against the cell wall.
33. Plaintiff informed Defendant Officers that they pushed on his abdomen, causing him to feel nauseous.
34. As a result, Plaintiff requested water or anything that would help with the nausea.
35. Defendant Officer told Plaintiff to get it himself when he is released.
36. Eventually, Plaintiff vomited in the cell and was left to sit next to the vomit until he was released.
37. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
38. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Fourth Degree and Damaged Glass.
39. Plaintiff was released with a Desk Appearance ticket after spending approximately 9 hours in custody.
40. Plaintiff's case was dismissed on February 15, 2022 after three court appearances.
41. As a result of this incident, Plaintiff doesn't feel comfortable driving around the city because whenever he sees a patrol car he becomes nervous and begins sweating profusely. Therefore, he was unable to return to his job where he is required to drive.
42. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
43. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
44. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

45. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
46. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

47. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
48. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
49. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

53. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
54. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

56. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Excessive Force

62. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing Plaintiff, pushing Plaintiff into a cell, pushing Plaintiff's head against the cell constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

64. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
66. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
67. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
68. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

72. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
73. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
74. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Intervene

75. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
76. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
77. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
78. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his injuries worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

83. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
84. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
85. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
86. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
87. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

88. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
89. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
90. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
91. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

92. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
93. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
94. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
95. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
96. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

97. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
98. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff was suffering the rejection of his kidney implant and required medication and additional treatment from medical professionals, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.

99. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in a month-long hospitalization, increased severity in Plaintiff's nephrological injuries that were suffered by Plaintiff that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.
100. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
101. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
102. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
103. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

104. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
105. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.
106. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
107. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
108. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
109. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

110. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
111. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner roughly handcuffed, grabbed, choked and threw Plaintiff into a vehicle and brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
112. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
113. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
114. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
115. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.
