POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTMENT

Re: CCRB Case No. 202409369 (Incident Date: September 18, 2024) regarding Police Officer Joshua Moscoso, Tax No. 960976 (PODS Case No. C-036562)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Police Officer Joshua Moscoso and has determined that the proposed penalty of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline is not warranted.

In this matter, Officer Moscoso stopped two individuals for jaywalking. He detained both individuals and brought them back to the stationhouse to issue summonses. The CCRB substantiated two allegations against Officer Moscoso for improperly detaining the individuals. After reviewing the evidence, the Police Commissioner finds that Officer Moscoso's actions were within Department guidelines. Officer Moscoso was not required to issue the summonses on scene nor was he prohibited from issuing the individuals summonses at the stationhouse.

Therefore, based on the foregoing, the Police Commissioner directs that Police Officer Moscoso receive no disciplinary action for the allegations that he improperly detained the individuals.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
Assistant Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office
