49. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

50. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF

55. In arresting Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

56. In arresting Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

57. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

58. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

59. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF LUIS JIMENEZ

60. Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 59 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

61. That on 11/22/16 , at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

62. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

63. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

64. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

65. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

66. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

67. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Bentiez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marihuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him

Even though Ms. Tarantino was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to the apartment she, as an overnight guest, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance in the third degree. She was never presented with a search warrant despite numerous requests and never saw anything illegal in plain view. All charges against her were eventually dismissed.

No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. Despite requests a search warrant was never presented. The District Attorney's Office eventually dismissed both cases.

68. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

69. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

70. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

71. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

72. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

73. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

74. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

75. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

76. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

77. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

78. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of him constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

79. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF LUIS JIMENEZ

80. Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 79 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

81. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

82. Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section

83. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

84. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

85. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

86. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

87. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

88. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff LUIS JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RUBEN DELEON

117. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 116 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

118. That on or about 11/22/16, and while in the custody of the defendants in the County of Bronx, City of New York, the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON was intentionally touched, pushed, assaulted, battered, violated, strip searched, humiliated, photographed and handcuffed by the CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE, who were acting within the scope of their employment and authority in such a manner as to knowingly cause injury to plaintiff.

119. That on or about 11/22/16 CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE, their agents, servants and employees, acting as agents and on behalf of the CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE, within the scope of their employment, did intentionally, willfully and maliciously assault and batter the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON in that they have the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON and their act caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff, and in a hostile and/or offensive manner touched and beat the plaintiff and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON and caused such battery in and about his head, neck, back, body and limbs.

120. That by reason of the aforesaid intentional assault and battery which was committed in an excessive manner and with excessive force and without legal justification or privilege by the defendants, their agents, servants and employees, who were acting within the scope of their employment and authority and without any probable or reasonable cause, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON suffered great and permanent bodily injury in and about his head, neck, back, body and limbs and was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, and suffered conscious pain and suffering, and that she was otherwise damaged.

123. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RUBEN DELEON

124. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 123 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

125. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

126. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

127. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

128. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

129. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

130. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

131. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RUBEN DELEON

132. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-131 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

133. In arresting Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

134. In arresting Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

135. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

136. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

137. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RUBEN DELEON

138. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 137 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

139. That on 11/22/16, at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

140. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

141. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

142. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

143. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidence by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

144. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

145. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. He was simply an overnight guest with his wife and small child. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. He was arrested and prosecuted for several months even though the owner of the gun pled guilty in Federal Court shortly after 2/8/08. Eventually all charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

c. On 1/10/10 Gregory Jacobus was inside apartment 4 located at 2290 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York. Mr. Jacobus was visiting his chess teacher. He was simply an overnight guest in apartment 4 and was not a leaseholder and had no legal rights to the apartment. Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Ms. Reyes thought she was getting robbed until she realized the individuals were police officers. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

e. On 4/4/08 Shakenia Garlick was inside apartment 7B at 2487 Grand Avenue, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours several police officers broke down the front door and entered her apartment. No search warrant was ever presented. Ms. Garlick had no knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and same was never in plain view. Despite aggressive questioning by the officers Ms. Garlick insisted that they were making a mistake and were, perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

f. On 8/5/09 Edward Benitez was inside apartment 5E visiting his friend at 894 Rogers Place. It was the early afternoon and Mr. Benitez was inside the apartment for only a few minutes. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Benitez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marijuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him.

g. On 1/18/12 Jennifer Tarantino was inside apartment E1N at 3034 Grand Concourse, Bronx, NY. She was visiting her boyfriend who was renting out the spare bedroom to another individual. Around 10:00 p.m. Ms. Tarantino was awoken by a loud noise and several police officers were pointing their guns at her as she lie in bed. Even though Ms. Tarantino was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to the apartment she, as an overnight guest, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance in the third degree. She was never presented with a search warrant despite numerous requests and never saw anything illegal in plain view. All charges against her were eventually dismissed.

h. On 11/18/11 Sabrina Souffront was in apartment 4A located at 1465 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY. Ms. Souffront was visiting a friend and was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to said apartment. No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. The basement apartment was a music studio and Velez and Concepcion were recording. In the early morning hours, all of a sudden, several police officers rushed into the studio and assaulted Velez and Concepcion and arrested them for possession of marihuana. Velez and Concepcion were not leaseholders and had no legal ties to the basement apartment. In addition, Velez and Concepcion never saw any illegal substances in plain view at anytime they were in the recording studio. All charges were eventually dismissed.

j. On 6/17/10 Samantha Morales was inside apartment 5B located at 1000 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY. 146. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

147. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

148. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

149. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

150. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

151. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a "punishment post" due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated "I'm not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he's going to make it difficult for me if I don't."

152. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

153. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD'S polices, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

154. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff's right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

155. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

156. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

157. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RUBEN DELEON

158. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 157 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

159. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

160. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of New York County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

161. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff RUBEN DELEON, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

162. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

163. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

164. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

165. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

166. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RUBEN DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF KIMBERLY LLANOS

195. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 194 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

196. 197. That on or about 11/22/16 CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE, their agents, servants and employees, acting as agents and on behalf of the CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE, within the scope of their employment, did intentionally, willfully and maliciously assault and batter the Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS in that they have the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS and their act caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff, and in a hostile and/or offensive manner touched and beat the plaintiff and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff KIMBERLY

200. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

201. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF KIMBERLY LLANOS

202. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 201 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

203. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

204. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

205. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

206. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

207. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS was injured in mind and body as she was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

208. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

209. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF KIMBERLY LLANOS

210 Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-209 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

211. In arresting Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

212. In arresting Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

213. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for her safety.

214. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

215. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF KIMBERLY LLANOS

216. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 215 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

217. That on 11/22/16, at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

218. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

219. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

220. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

221. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

222. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

223. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. He was simply an overnight guest with his wife and small child. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. He was arrested and prosecuted for several months even though the owner of the gun pled guilty in Federal Court shortly after 2/8/08. Eventually all charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

c. On 1/10/10 Gregory Jacobus was inside apartment 4 located at 2290 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York. Mr. Jacobus was visiting his chess teacher. He was simply an overnight guest in apartment 4 and was not a leaseholder and had no legal rights to the apartment. 224. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS' injuries including the violation of her constitutional rights, the deprivation of her freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

225. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

226. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

227. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

228. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

229. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

230. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

231. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of her rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

232. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

233. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

234. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time she was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of her constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

235. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF KIMBERLY LLANOS

236. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 235 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

237. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

238. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

239. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

240. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

241. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

242. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff

KIMBERLY LLANOS to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS' rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

243 The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

244. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff KIMBERLY LLANOS has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

of New York.

296. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

297. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

298. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

299. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidence by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

300. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

301. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. He was simply an overnight guest with his wife and small child. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. He was arrested and prosecuted for several months even though the owner of the gun pled guilty in Federal Court shortly after 2/8/08. Eventually all charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

c. On 1/10/10 Gregory Jacobus was inside apartment 4 located at 2290 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York. Mr. Jacobus was visiting his chess teacher. Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Ms. Reyes thought she was getting robbed until she realized the individuals were police officers. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

e. On 4/4/08 Shakenia Garlick was inside apartment 7B at 2487 Grand Avenue, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours several police officers broke down the front door and entered her apartment. No search warrant was ever presented. Ms. Garlick had no knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and same was never in plain view. Despite aggressive questioning by the officers Ms. Garlick insisted that they were making a mistake and were, perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

f. On 8/5/09 Edward Benitez was inside apartment 5E visiting his friend at 894 Rogers Place. It was the early afternoon and Mr. Benitez was inside the apartment for only a few minutes. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Benitez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marihuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him

Even though Ms. Tarantino was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to the apartment she, as an overnight guest, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance in the third degree. She was never presented with a search warrant despite numerous requests and never saw anything illegal in plain view. All charges against her were eventually dismissed.

h. On 11/18/11 Sabrina Souffront was in apartment 4A located at 1465 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY. Ms. Souffront was visiting a friend and was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to said apartment. No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. They were charged with criminal possession of a controlled substance even though narcotics were not found and certainly not in plain view at anytime. Despite requests a search warrant was never presented. The District Attorney's Office eventually dismissed both cases.

302. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

303. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

304. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

305. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

306. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

307. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

- a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a "punishment post" due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated "I'm not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he's going to make it difficult for me if I don't."

308. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

309. That the above customs, polices and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD'S polices, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

310. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff's right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

311. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

312. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time she was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

313. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF FRANCISCO JIMENEZ

314. Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 313 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

316. Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

318. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

319. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

320. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

321. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

322. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff FRANCISCO JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

359. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

360. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

361. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

362. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

363. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

364. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

365. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RICHARD DELEON

366. Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-366 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

367. In arresting Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

368. In arresting Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

369. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

370. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

371. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY- FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF RICHARD DELEON

372. Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 -371 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

373. That on 11/22/16, at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

374. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

375. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

376. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

377. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

378. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

379. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Ms. Reyes thought she was getting robbed until she realized the individuals were police officers. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

e. On 4/4/08 Shakenia Garlick was inside apartment 7B at 2487 Grand Avenue, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours several police officers broke down the front door and entered her apartment. Despite aggressive questioning by the officers Ms. Garlick insisted that they were making a mistake and were, perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

f. On 8/5/09 Edward Benitez was inside apartment 5E visiting his friend at 894 Rogers Place. It was the early afternoon and Mr. Benitez was inside the apartment for only a few minutes. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Bentiez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marihuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him

No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. They were charged with criminal possession of a controlled substance even though narcotics were not found and certainly not in plain view at anytime. Despite requests a search warrant was never presented. The District Attorney's Office eventually dismissed both cases.

380. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

381. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

382. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

383. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

384. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as “good cops” but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

385. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

386. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

387. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

388. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

389. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

390. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time she was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

391. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY- FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF RICHARD DELEON

392. Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 391 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

393. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

394. Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

395. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff RICHARD DELEON, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

396. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

397. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

398. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

399. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

400. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff RICHARD DELEON has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

431. AS AND FOR A THIRTY- NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JOSE MEDINA

436. Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 435 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

437. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

438. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

439. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

440. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

441. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

442. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

443. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF

445. In arresting Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

446. In arresting Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

447. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

448. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

449. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JOSE MEDINA

450. Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 449 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

451. That on 11/22/16, at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

452. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

453. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

454. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

455. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

456. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

457. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. He was simply an overnight guest with his wife and small child. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. He was arrested and prosecuted for several months even though the owner of the gun pled guilty in Federal Court shortly after 2/8/08. Eventually all charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

c. On 1/10/10 Gregory Jacobus was inside apartment 4 located at 2290 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York. Mr. Jacobus was visiting his chess teacher. He was simply an overnight guest in apartment 4 and was not a leaseholder and had no legal rights to the apartment. Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Ms. Reyes thought she was getting robbed until she realized the individuals were police officers. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

e. On 4/4/08 Shakenia Garlick was inside apartment 7B at 2487 Grand Avenue, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours several police officers broke down the front door and entered her apartment. No search warrant was ever presented. Ms. Garlick had no knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and same was never in plain view. Despite aggressive questioning by the officers Ms. Garlick insisted that they were making a mistake and were, perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

f. On 8/5/09 Edward Benitez was inside apartment 5E visiting his friend at 894 Rogers Place. It was the early afternoon and Mr. Benitez was inside the apartment for only a few minutes. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Benitez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marijuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him.

g. On 1/18/12 Jennifer Tarantino was inside apartment E1N at 3034 Grand Concourse, Bronx, NY. She was visiting her boyfriend who was renting out the spare bedroom to another individual. Around 10:00 p.m. Ms. Tarantino was awoken by a loud noise and several police officers were pointing their guns at her as she lie in bed. Even though Ms. Tarantino was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to the apartment she, as an overnight guest, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance in the third degree. She was never presented with a search warrant despite numerous requests and never saw anything illegal in plain view. All charges against her were eventually dismissed.

h. On 11/18/11 Sabrina Souffront was in apartment 4A located at 1465 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY. Ms. Souffront was visiting a friend and was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to said apartment. No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. The basement apartment was a music studio and Velez and Concepcion were recording. In the early morning hours, all of a sudden, several police officers rushed into the studio and assaulted Velez and Concepcion and arrested them for possession of marihuana. Velez and Concepcion were not leaseholders and had no legal ties to the basement apartment. In addition, Velez and Concepcion never saw any illegal substances in plain view at anytime they were in the recording studio. All charges were eventually dismissed.

j. On 6/17/10 Samantha Morales was inside apartment 5B located at 1000 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours, all of a sudden several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Ms. Morales and all of the occupants. k. On 6/16/10 Coty Morales was inside apartment 4K at 995 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours he heard a bang on the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. No search warrant was ever presented despite numerous requests. The District Attorney's Office declined to prosecute the case.

m. On 2/1/12 Hector Figueroa, Sr., Hector Figueroa, Jr. and Laurita Figueroa were inside apartment 6A at 360 Morris Avenue, Bronx, NY. All were arrested and charged with possession of marihuana despite the fact that nothing of an illegal nature was ever found in the apartment and in point of fact no contraband was ever in the apartment. No search warrant was ever presented despite numerous requests. The District Attorney's Office declined to prosecute the case.

n. On 2/28/14, Damario Morales and Robert Lopez, Jr., were exiting the basement apartment of 766 Union Avenue when all of a sudden several police officers rushed towards them and pushed and pulled them into the apartment and arrested Ms. Morales, Mr. Lopez and all of the occupants of the basement apartment. Mr. McNeil and Ms. Paulino and all of the occupants. Mr. McNeil nor Ms. Paulino were leaseholders, owners or renters of the house but only overnight guests. They were charged with criminal possession of a controlled substance even though narcotics were not found and certainly not in plain view at anytime. Despite requests a search warrant was never presented. The District Attorney's Office eventually dismissed both cases.

458. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

459. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

460. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

461. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

462. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

463. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a "punishment post" due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated "I'm not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he's going to make it difficult for me if I don't."

464. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

465. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD'S polices, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

466. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff's right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

467. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

468. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time she was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

469. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTY- SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JOSE MEDINA

470. Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 469 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

471. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

472. Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

473. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff JOSE MEDINA, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and strip searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

474. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

475. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

476. Defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE subjected Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

477. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

478. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JOSE MEDINA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF

480. That at all times the Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was and is a resident of County of the Bronx, City and State of New York.

481. That on 11/22/16, at approximately, 6:00 a.m., Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was lawfully in the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, State of New York and doing nothing illegal, improper or acting suspicious in anyway. In point of fact, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was not in possession of any contraband on his person, no contraband was in plain view and Plaintiff was entirely unaware of any contraband on the premises if there were was indeed any at all (which there was not). Moreover, Plaintiff was not the leaseholder nor a resident of any apartment within 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx.

482. That on 11/22/16, at approximately, 6:00 a.m., in the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, State of New York, ROSA, DOE and ROE, absent an arrest warrant, probable cause, reasonable cause or any legal justification, approached Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ for no reason and summarily stopped, frisked, searched, grabbed, assaulted, battered, and detained him in an aggressive and excessive manner.

484. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was subjected to a strip search while in the custody of defendants without any legal reason or justification.

485. That Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was arraigned after his arrest and thereafter falsely and maliciously prosecuted with committing a crime or crimes.

564. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 563 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

565. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

566. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

567. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

568. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

569. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

570. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

AS AND FOR A FORTY-SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ

573. In arresting Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

574. In arresting Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ, police officers including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

575. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

576. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

577. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTY- EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ

578. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 137 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

579. That on 11/22/16, at approximately 6:00 a.m., within the vicinity of 1235 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

580. The CITY and NYPD on a consistent and constant basis, have a policy or a program, whether implicit or explicit, that its' agents, employees and others acting under the direction of defendants including but not limited to ROSA, DOE and ROE, with or without a valid search warrant, with or without lawful entry onto private real property or a premises such as an apartment, unlawfully detain, harass, seize, search, destroy and illegally remove personal property and thereafter arrest individuals within such a premises who are neither leaseholders nor owners of said premises (as herein) and who are only present in a room on said real property where contraband is not in plain view.

581. The above must be considered, as the facts herein suggest, when an individual is in a room on a premises where contraband is not in plain view, it cannot be said, as a matter of law, that said individual is to be in actual or constructive possession of contraband nor in possession pursuant to a Penal Law statutory presumption. Nonetheless, defendants on a consistent and constant basis unlawfully stop, seize, search and arrest individuals, such as the Plaintiff herein, in such a scenario even though the stop, seizure and arrest of said individual, including Plaintiff herein, is lacking in reasonable cause, probable cause or legal justification.

582. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY and NYPD which caused the police officers herein to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, illegally seize and search the Plaintiff unlawfully, commit an assault and battery to Plaintiff's person under the belief that said police officers would not suffer any disciplinary actions for their improper and unconstitutional conduct.

583. The CITY and NYPD'S failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at a premises for a sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters or mail addressed to them at the premises, as opposed to individuals who are mere guests or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the premises as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the premises, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them as well as having no personal belongings within the premises that demonstrate something more than a temporary or overnight guest, are all factors that the CITY and NYPD have consistently and constantly ignored in a deliberate and malicious fashion.

584. As the same fact patterns are present over the past several years with alarming frequency, it is apparent and obvious that a pattern by the CITY and NYPD has developed and is in place demonstrating continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff herein. The pattern demonstrates either a defacto policy or custom that exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or that this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.

585. The below examples demonstrate a small sample of the pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the CITY and NYPD by arresting innocent individuals who are merely present in a location when contraband is not in plain view and have no legal ties to the premises being searched either with or without a search warrant, either legally or illegally.

a. On 10/22/10, Joanne BROWN, Andrea Doby and Tameka Gunter were inside apartment 4E at 1684 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, NY. They were doing nothing illegal or improper and were simply visiting a friend. None of the aforementioned individuals were leaseholders or had any legal connections to the premises. All 3 individuals were only in the apartment for a short while when all of a sudden several police officers entered the apartment and arrested all of the occupants. Despite several requests the officers never presented a search warrant. All 3 of the above-mentioned individuals were charged with possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree despite the fact that none of them ever were aware of or had any knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and contraband was not in plain view at anytime. All charges were eventually dismissed.

b. On 2/8/08, Tony Mizell was inside apartment 2 at 950 Saint John Avenue, Bronx, NY. Mr. Mizell was not a leaseholder of said premises and had no legal connection to the apartment. He was simply an overnight guest with his wife and small child. All of a sudden, in the early morning hours, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested all of the occupants for possession of a weapon. A search warrant was never presented. The weapon was located in a back bedroom inside a closet within a coat pocket. Mr. Mizell had no connection to the gun, the bedroom or the closet. He was arrested and prosecuted for several months even though the owner of the gun pled guilty in Federal Court shortly after 2/8/08. Eventually all charges were dismissed against Mr. Mizell.

c. On 1/10/10 Gregory Jacobus was inside apartment 4 located at 2290 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York. Mr. Jacobus was visiting his chess teacher. He was simply an overnight guest in apartment 4 and was not a leaseholder and had no legal rights to the apartment. Early in the morning while Mr. Jacobus was in the shower, several police officers rushed into the apartment and arrested Mr. Jacobus and his chess teacher. A search warrant was never presented. Mr. Jacobus never saw any contraband in the apartment at anytime and had no knowledge of any contraband if there was indeed any. After spending several days in jail, a Grand Jury dismissed all charges against Mr. Jacobus.

d. On 6/12/07 Joanne Reyes was inside apartment 1F at 1530 Sheridan Ave, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours Ms. Reyes heard a loud bang and several people rushed into her apartment. Ms. Reyes thought she was getting robbed until she realized the individuals were police officers. Even though Ms. Reyes was not a leaseholder to the apartment and no contraband was in plain view at anytime and Ms. Reyes never saw any contraband within the apartment at anytime, she was handcuffed, arrested and taken to a local precinct and then central booking. Her pleas for her medications were summarily ignored throughout the entire time she was detained. After being prosecuted for several months the case was eventually dismissed.

e. On 4/4/08 Shakenia Garlick was inside apartment 7B at 2487 Grand Avenue, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours several police officers broke down the front door and entered her apartment. No search warrant was ever presented. Ms. Garlic had no knowledge of any contraband in the apartment and same was never in plain view. Despite aggressive questioning by the officers Ms. Garlic insisted that they were making a mistake and were, perhaps, in the wrong apartment. She was arrested for possession of a controlled substance. The substance was her pre-natal vitamins. The case was dismissed by the District Attorney's Office when the laboratory analysis indicated negative for a controlled substance.

f. On 8/5/09 Edward Benitez was inside apartment 5E visiting his friend at 894 Rogers Place. It was the early afternoon and Mr. Benitez was inside the apartment for only a few minutes. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door and several police officers rushed into the apartment. Despite the fact that Mr. Bentiez was not a resident of the apartment, not a leaseholder and had no legal connection to the apartment he was arrested for possession of marihuana which was neither on his person or in plain view in any part of the apartment. After several court appearances all charges were dismissed against him

g. On 1/18/12 Jennifer Tarantino was inside apartment E1N at 3034 Grand Concourse, Bronx, NY. She was visiting her boyfriend who was renting out the spare bedroom to another individual. Even though Ms. Tarantino was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to the apartment she, as an overnight guest, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance in the third degree. She was never presented with a search warrant despite numerous requests and never saw anything illegal in plain view. All charges against her were eventually dismissed.

h. On 11/18/11 Sabrina Souffront was in apartment 4A located at 1465 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY. Ms. Souffront was visiting a friend and was not a leaseholder of the apartment and had no legal rights to said apartment. No contraband was ever in plain view and she had no knowledge of any contraband within the apartment. In the early morning hours, Ms. Souffront heard a loud bang at the front door and several police officers rushed into the apartment and detained all of the occupants. Ms. Souffront later learned that in one of the bedrooms, within a closet, was a small amount of narcotics. Ms. Souffront was completely unaware of the existence of anything illegal in the apartment and in fact was never even in that particular bedroom during her visit. She was arrested and held in jail for over 24 hours. Eventually all charges against her were dismissed.

i. On 7/29/11 Ismael Velez and Michael Concepcion were inside the basement apartment at 512 East 162nd Street, Bronx, NY. In the early morning hours, all of a sudden, several police officers rushed into the studio and assaulted Velez and Concepcion and arrested them for possession of marihuana. Velez and Concepcion were not leaseholders and had no legal ties to the basement apartment. In addition, Velez and Concepcion never saw any illegal substances in plain view at anytime they were in the recording studio. All charges were eventually dismissed.

j. On 6/17/10 Samantha Morales was inside apartment 5B located at 1000 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY. No search warrant was ever presented despite numerous requests. The District Attorney's Office declined to prosecute the case.

n. On 2/28/14, Damario Morales and Robert Lopez, Jr., were exiting the basement apartment of 766 Union Avenue when all of a sudden several police officers rushed towards them and pushed and pulled them into the apartment and arrested Ms. Morales, Mr. Lopez and

They were charged with criminal possession of a controlled substance even though narcotics were not found and certainly not in plain view at anytime. Despite requests a search warrant was never presented. The District Attorney's Office eventually dismissed both cases.

586. As is evidenced from the above, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, strip searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers.

587. Moreover, it is the direct result of police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

588. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance, arresting individuals when not in possession of a valid search warrant as well as police officers arresting individuals for possession of contraband within a premises when either no such contraband exists or is not in plain view and the nexus between the contraband and the individual being arrested is so lacking that reasonable cause to effectuate the arrest is not present especially in light of the fact when the individual is only a temporary or overnight guest in the premises and is not the leaseholder.

589. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

590. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

591. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of Transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Kathleens of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Anthony Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a "punishment post" due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated "I'm not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he's going to make it difficult for me if I don't."

592. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

593. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD'S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

594. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff's right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

595. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

596. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time she was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

597. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A FORTY-NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ

598. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 597 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

599. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed ROSA, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

600. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

601. That on or about 11/22/16, defendants CITY, NYPD, ROSA, DOE and ROE without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER JIMENEZ during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner.
