Plaintiff, by his attorneys, GREENBERG & STEIN, P.C., for his complaint against the above Defendants, City of New York, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, individually and in their capacities as police officers, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action in which Plaintiff seeks relief through 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the state of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. Plaintiff's claims arise from a December 18, 2023, incident, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully arrested and detained Mr. McKenzie. As a direct and proximate result, Mr. McKenzie was unlawfully detained. Mr. McKenzie was deprived of his liberty for approximately two days and suffered serious physical and emotional injuries. Plaintiff was then maliciously prosecuted, until the dismissal of all charges.

3. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

JURISDICTION

4. This action arises under the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988 and pursuant to the Laws and constitution of the State of New York.

5. The jurisdiction of this Court is predicated upon 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(a)(3) and (4), 1367(a) and the doctrine of supplemental jurisdiction.

VENUE

6. Venue is laid within the Supreme Court State of New York, County of Bronx in that Defendant City of New York is located within and a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred within the boundaries of the Supreme Court.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff, DEQUAWN MCKENZIE "Mr. McKenzie," resides at 952 East 231st Street, Bronx, NY, 10466. Mr. McKenzie was unlawfully arrested.

8. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

9. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives and supervisory officers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.

10. At all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant Defendants, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policy makers and/or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants John or Jane Does 1-10, as such knowledge is in the exclusive possession of the defendants.

12. At all times relevant herein, Defendants, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, and/or the NYPD. Defendants, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

13. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

14. That within the time prescribed by law, a sworn Notice of Claim stating, among other things, the time when and place where the injuries and damages were sustained, together with Plaintiffs' demands for adjustment thereof was duly served on the Plaintiffs behalf on the Comptroller for the City of New York and that thereafter said Comptroller for the City of New York refused or neglected for more than thirty (30) days, and up to the commencement of this action, to make any adjustment or payment thereof, and that thereafter, and within the time provided by law, this action was commenced.

15. That pursuant to General Municipal Law 50-h, plaintiff appeared at a virtual 50-H hearing by the Office of the Comptroller or at the office of a designated agent.

16. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff was damaged in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On or about December 18, 2023, at approximately 05:00 PM in the vicinity of E 198th Street and Briggs Avenue, County of Bronx, State of New York, Plaintiff was falsely arrested.

18. Defendants Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10 were Mr. McKenzie's arresting officer and signed his criminal court complaint knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. McKenzie of other related charges, all of which Defendants knew to be untrue.

19. At all relevant times, Defendants did not have a valid, judicially authorized arrest warrant for Mr. McKenzie.

20. At all relevant times, Defendants did not have probable cause to arrest Mr. McKenzie.

21. Defendants falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and illegally searched and seized Mr. McKenzie.

22. At no time was Mr. McKenzie in actual, constructive, or statutory possession of contraband, and had not committed any crime or violation of the law.

23. Defendants did not possess probable cause or other justification for the arrest or seizure of Mr. McKenzie's person.

24. Mr. McKenzie had multiple assaults and batteries, committed to his person, by defendants City of New York and the above named officers, including being placed in handcuffs.

25. As a result of Defendants knowingly and intentionally made false statements and allegations, Mr. McKenzie was falsely arrested and charged with crimes that Defendants falsely claimed were committed by Mr. McKenzie.

26. At all relevant times, Defendants intentionally provided said false information that would be likely to influence a prosecutor's decision to charge plaintiff with a crime or violation of the law so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. McKenzie.

27. Defendants were fully aware that Mr. McKenzie did not commit any crimes, but Defendants knowingly and intentionally decided to fabricate said observation to justify an otherwise invalid arrest and to ensure that Plaintiff was maliciously prosecute and ultimately convicted.

28. Plaintiff was rear handcuffed by defendants and placed in a NYPD vehicle to be transported to an NYPD precinct.

29. Upon arrival at said location or while plaintiff remained detained and he was illegally searched, questioned, photographed and fingerprinted by, or at the direction of Defendants, including being stripped searched twice with a visual cavity inspection.

30. All charges against Mr. McKenzie were unconditionally dismissed pursuant to CPL § 160.50, representing a termination of the criminal charges in Mr. McKenzie's favor.

31. Defendants never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as defendants were fully aware that any evidence against Plaintiff was either fraudulent or fabricated, including the observation provided by defendants, in which Mr. McKenzie falsely accused.

32. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for various felonies.

33. Defendants intentionally, knowingly and falsely made said allegations to conceal their otherwise illegal, tortious and sinister acts, namely arresting an individual without probable cause.

34. Defendants suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the fabrication of false evidence and the gratuitous use of excessive force against plaintiff.

35. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause or using excessive force to effectuate his arrest.

36. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's wrongful arrest and subsequent malicious criminal prosecution.

37. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact their police officers.

38. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD, and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

39. In a report by NBC Channel 4 News, New York, entitled “Ex NYPD Sergeant Accused of Assaulting Man at Homeless Shelter, Stomping on His Head More Than 10 Times,” by Jonathan Dienst and Joe Valiquette, horrific allegations against a former NYPD police sergeant were detailed, including his use of extreme and excessive force, as well as his falsifying evidence that was forwarded to prosecutors. The former NYPD sergeant is no longer by NYPD and his criminal case is presently being prosecuted by the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York. Another article from citylimits.org, entitled “CityViews: Is NYPD Oversight Really making Homeless Shelters Safer,” by Daniel Castillo, discusses how the NYPD police officers have begun to jointly enforce the law within many homeless shelters, but how such added policing has only worsened the already crime riddled areas. It also details how ongoing problems have only deteriorated since the newly enacted joint jurisdiction.

40. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

41. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

42. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

43. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

44. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

45. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

46. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

47. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

48. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

49. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and City of New York.

50. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

51. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City, and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD, and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Nico R. Martino, Adam R. Keegan, and John and Jane Does 1-10.

52. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42. U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

146. Plaintiff re-alleges and re-avers Paragraphs 1 through 145 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

147. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

148. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

149. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

150. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

151. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

152. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of plaintiff's civil rights enumerated within the Constitution of the United States.

153. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
