Case Summary

On April 22, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB online.

On April 20, 2019, at approximately 10 a.m., Sergeant Teara Wilson, Police Officer Fouger Rene, Police Officer David Rodriguez, Police Officer Nicole Cornand, Police Officer Kurt Liebe, Police Officer Joseph Delligatti, and Police Officer Michael Robbins, all of the 115th Precinct, responded to a call regarding an escaped patient from the § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Wilson entered and searched § 87(2)(b) in Queens (Allegations A and B: Abuse of Authority, exonerated). Sgt. Wilson frisked § 87(2)(b) and his son, § 87(2)(b) (Allegations C and D: Abuse of Authority, substantiated). PO Rene grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s wife, and pushed her against the wall and ultimately to the ground (Allegation E: Force, exonerated). PO Rene allegedly used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b) and restricted her breathing (Allegations E and F: Force, unsubstantiated). Emergency Service Unit (ESU) officers responded to this incident and damaged a lock on § 87(2)(b)'s closet and room dividers within his apartment (Allegation G: Abuse of Authority, exonerated). Sgt. Wilson failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card (Allegation I: Abuse of Authority, substantiated).

Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) were arrested or summonsed during this incident.

Body-worn camera footage was obtained and will be discussed in further detail below.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Teara Wilson entered § 87(2)(b) in Queens.

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Teara Wilson searched § 87(2)(b) in Queens.

§ 87(2)(g) The investigation established the following facts:

On April 20, 2019, at approximately 10 a.m., Sgt. Wilson, PO Rene, PO Robbins, PO Liebe, PO Rodriguez, PO Delligatti and PO Cornand, responded to a 911 call placed by peace officers from § 87(2)(b). The peace officers requested the NYPD's assistance at § 87(2)(b), to regain custody of an emotionally disturbed person (EDP), § 87(2)(b) who escaped the facility. When the officers arrived, the peace officers identified § 87(2)(b) as the last known residence of § 87(2)(b). Officers knocked on the door, but did not hear anything inside the apartment. Sgt. Wilson instructed the officers to enter the apartment to locate § 87(2)(b) though she did not enter the apartment herself. The officers saw movement behind a curtain, which the officers did not have access to due to the cluttered condition of the apartment, and as such, Sgt. Wilson called ESU to complete the search for § 87(2)(b). ESU officers arrived, entered and searched the apartment, but did not locate § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) (BR 01) testified that he was at home with his wife, § 87(2)(b) and son, § 87(2)(b) when he heard knocking on the door. Upon opening the door, § 87(2)(b) saw four officers, including Sgt. Wilson, who all informed him that they received a call about an individual needing assistance inside the apartment and asked if anyone needed help. § 87(2)(b) said no, but told the officers he wanted to check with § 87(2)(b) who had a propensity to call 911 if he felt like harming himself. § 87(2)(b) invited the officers inside while he went to speak with § 87(2)(b). The officers began asking § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) if they knew anyone by the name of § 87(2)(b) which § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) denied. § 87(2)(b) also came out of her room and the officers then asked everyone to exit the apartment. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did so and stood to the left of the apartment door in the hallway area. Additional officers entered the apartment.

§ 87(2)(b) (BR 02) and § 87(2)(b) (BR 03) § 87(2)(g) were each in their respective bedrooms when they heard voices calling out a name. § 87(2)(b) said she heard the name, "§ 87(2)(b)" while § 87(2)(b) said he heard the name, "§ 87(2)(b)". When § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) exited their bedrooms, they saw at least one officer inside the apartment and the front door open. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) exited the apartment at the officers' request.

The EVENT (BR 04) for this incident listed Peace Officer Ward as the 911 caller, who stated that § 87(2)(b) who escaped from the psychiatric ward, was possibly inside of § 87(2)(b), in Queens, as he heard movement inside the apartment, but no one was responding to the door. § 87(2)(b) was not violent and did not have any weapons, but his condition was listed as unknown.

Police Officer Nicole Cornand of the 115th Precinct recorded this incident on her body-worn camera (BR 05-06). In the footage, PO Cornand walks up the stairs in a residential building behind PO Liebe and approaches three individuals, known to the investigation as the peace officers who requested the response of the NYPD, standing at the end of a hallway. PO Liebe asks, "What's the situation?" and a male wearing a windbreaker and baseball cap responds, "He's a patient at § 87(2)(b)." PO Liebe asks, "What's he diagnosed with?" The male says, "Definitely § 87(2)(b) but confirms that the escaped patient is not violent. PO Liebe asks, "You know he's in there?" A female, wearing a jean jacket and lanyard with identification around her neck says, "Yeah. The neighbors told us they seen him," and provides the patient's name as § 87(2)(b). PO Cornand asks, "§ 87(2)(b) and points to the apartment door. A female voice responds, "Yes." The peace officers confirm that they are at the location to take § 87(2)(b) back to the facility (see time stamp on player <<00:00 – 01:17>>). Sgt. Wilson instructs the officers to talk to § 87(2)(b) through the door and "let § 87(2)(b) know that [they're] going to take down the door." PO Rodriguez begins knocking on the door and calling for § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Wilson tells PO Rodriguez, "If he opens the door, he can speak with us through the door. Put your foot there and we can talk to him through there but otherwise we're going to come in regardless." PO Rodriguez continues to knock on the door (<<02:21 – 04:00>>). PO Cornand begins knocking on the door and calling for § 87(2)(b). After she knocks, PO Cornand says, "Oh. The door's open. The door's open." Sgt. Wilson pushes the door farther open and says, "So put your foot there," and officers enter the apartment (<<04:47 – 05:28>>). While the officers are inside the house, Sgt. Wilson says, "Come out the house. Come out the house." The officers then exit followed by § 87(2)(b) (<<9:33 – 09:55>>), § 87(2)(b) (<<11:39>>), and § 87(2)(b) (<<16:10>>).

PO Liebe's body-worn camera (BR 07, 05) footage depicts PO Liebe and PO Delligatti walk through the apartment, open doors, and look behind mattresses pressed against the wall (<<04:30 – 05:44>>).

Sgt. Wilson (BR 08), PO Rodriguez (BR 09), PO Rene (BR 10), and PO Liebe (BR 11) were all interviewed regarding this incident. Sgt. Wilson acknowledged that officers entered the apartment but could not recall if she instructed them to do so. PO Rodriguez and PO Liebe both testified that they entered the apartment on Sgt. Wilson's instruction.

The "emergency doctrine" recognizes that the Constitution "is not a barrier to a police officer seeking to help someone in immediate danger." The emergency exception is comprised of three elements: (1) the police must have reasonable grounds to believe that there is an emergency at hand and an immediate need for their assistance for protection of life or property; (2) the search must not be primarily motivated by an intent to arrest and seize evidence; and (3) there must be some reasonable basis, approximating probable cause, to associate the emergency with the area or place to be searched. People v. Doll 21 N.Y.3d 663 (2013) (BR 12).

A protective sweep, aimed at protecting the officers, is not a full search of the premises, but may extend only to cursory inspection of those spaces where a person might be found. Maryland v. Buie 494 U.S. 325 (1990) (BR 13).

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Teara Wilson frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Teara Wilson frisked § 87(2)(b)

In Sgt. Wilson's body-worn camera footage (BR 14, 06), after § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) exit the apartment, Sgt. Wilson says, to no officer in particular, "Sit these two people on the steps. Toss them. Make sure they don't have any weapons" (<<12:57 – 13:02>>). A few minutes later, § 87(2)(b) exits the apartment (<<14:57 – 15:10>>).

In PO Rodriguez's body-worn camera footage (BR 15, 06), after Sgt. Wilson tells an officer to frisk the occupants, PO Rodriguez approaches § 87(2)(b) who is on the stairs, and says, "You have anything on you?" § 87(2)(b) says, "Like what?" PO Rodriguez responds, "Any weapons. Anything that might harm us?" § 87(2)(b) says, "Of course not." PO Rodriguez then pats § 87(2)(b) down along his waistband and legs (<<13:50 – 14:31>>).

In PO Rene's body-worn camera footage (BR 16, 06), when § 87(2)(b) exits the apartment, PO Rene grabs § 87(2)(b)'s right arm and places him against the wall. PO Rene pats § 87(2)(b)'s left pants pocket (<<08:41 – 08:44>>).

Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) testified that they were frisked during the incident.

Sgt. Wilson testified that an officer "eventually" and "more than likely" frisked § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) for officer safety because the job involved an EDP, the occupants were not "the most friendly people," and "a frisk never hurt anybody." Sgt. Wilson did not know if she instructed an officer to frisk the occupants and did not know if she observed the frisks. Sgt. Wilson did not recall seeing any bulges on § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b).

PO Rodriguez testified that he did not recall being instructed to frisk § 87(2)(b) or asking § 87(2)(b) if he had any weapons on him. After reviewing his body-worn camera footage, PO Rodriguez testified that he asked § 87(2)(b) if he had any weapons on him because officers "generally" ask that question to ensure they will not be poked with anything sharp during a frisk. PO Rodriguez did not think that § 87(2)(b) was armed, but frisked him because Sgt. Wilson instructed him to do so and he wanted to ensure that § 87(2)(b) did not have anything on his person that could harm the officers while the apartment was being investigated.

PO Rene did not remember any other occupant exiting the apartment other than § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). Upon reviewing his body-worn camera, which depicts § 87(2)(b) exit the apartment and PO Rene frisk him, PO Rene confirmed that he had no independent recollection of § 87(2)(b) exiting the apartment. PO Rene frisked § 87(2)(b)'s pocket because officers believed § 87(2)(b) may have been § 87(2)(b) and EDP jobs "always present a threat to officers' safety." § 87(2)(b) did not have any bulges on his person that resembled a weapon.

A corollary of the statutory right to temporarily detain for questioning is the authority to frisk if the officer reasonably suspects that he is in danger of physical injury by virtue of the detainee being armed. People v. De Bour 40 N.Y.2d 210 (1976) (BR 17).

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations C and D be closed as substantiated.

Allegation (E) Force: Police Officer Fouger Rene used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Force: Police Officer Fouger Rene used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (G) Force: Police Officer Fouger Rene restricted § 87(2)(b)'s breathing.

It is undisputed that after § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were out of the apartment and ESU arrived, they were instructed to go downstairs to the lobby area. PO Rene stood on the stairs, while § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) remained in the lobby area. § 87(2)(b) complained to the officers that she had to go upstairs. § 87(2)(b) attempted to walk up the stairs past PO Rene, who forcibly prevented her from going up the stairs, causing her to land at the base of the stairs. PO Rene then handcuffed § 87(2)(b) for the duration of the time she was in the lobby.

§ 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) testified that she told PO Rene and other officers that she had to use the restroom and had medical problems, but the officers ignored her. § 87(2)(b) walked up approximately six steps of the staircase when PO Rene asked her where she was going. § 87(2)(b) informed PO Rene that she was going to use a neighbor's bathroom. PO Rene extended his right arm across § 87(2)(b)'s breast area and used "a lot of force on [her] chest," telling her to step down. § 87(2)(b) felt that she was losing her balance and held onto the railing lining the stairs. PO Rene grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the left side of her neck and shoulder area, causing her to feel pressure on her neck and have trouble breathing. § 87(2)(b) fell onto her back on the landing area with PO Rene on top of her. PO Rene tried to grab § 87(2)(b)'s neck, shoulder, back, and head area. § 87(2)(b) rolled onto her right side so that her face was pinned to the ground, but she did not remember how she was able to roll over. Officers lifted § 87(2)(b) off the ground and PO Rene handcuffed her. § 87(2)(b) alleged bruising, spasms, and pain to her neck, shoulder, and back as a result.

On § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) went to § 87(2)(b) in Queens. § 87(2)(a) PHL § 18(6)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g) and § 87(2)(b) asked to use the restroom several times and that § 87(2)(b) went down onto the ground. However, due to an officer standing in front of him in the lobby, § 87(2)(b) did not see how § 87(2)(b) ended up on the ground.

§ 87(2)(b) testified that he was standing in the lobby to the left of the stairs, but was able to see the staircase. As § 87(2)(b) walked three quarters of the way up the stairs, PO Rene grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s throat with his hand and "choke-slammed" § 87(2)(b) to the floor. § 87(2)(b) did not see how § 87(2)(b) landed.

In PO Rene's body-worn camera footage (BR 28, 06), § 87(2)(b) who is in the lobby in front of the stairs, complains that she has to urinate. PO Rene, who is wearing black gloves, tells § 87(2)(b) that she cannot go upstairs. § 87(2)(b) says, "Listen, I gotta pee." PO Rene tells § 87(2)(b) she cannot go upstairs to which § 87(2)(b) responds, "I'm going to my apartment," and continues to walk up the stairs. PO Rene grabs § 87(2)(b)'s left arm, turns § 87(2)(b) around, and walks § 87(2)(b) down the stairs. Once § 87(2)(b) is at the base of the stairs, she abruptly turns her body, lifts her right arm, and swings her arm toward PO Rene. PO Rene pushes § 87(2)(b) against a wall and then § 87(2)(b) lands on the ground. The struggle continues, but the exact actions each party takes is not clear due to the struggle affecting the clarity of the footage. § 87(2)(b) says, "I have § 87(2)(b) You pushed me. PO Rene says, "You put your hands on me" (<<12:43 – 14:00>>).

PO Rodriguez's body-worn camera captures § 87(2)(b) walking up the stairs and PO Rene grabbing her arm and walking her back down to the base of the stairs. At the base of the stairs, § 87(2)(b) punches PO Rene in the upper left arm. PO Rene then grabs § 87(2)(b) and pushes her against the wall so that her back is against the wall. § 87(2)(b) hits PO Rene with her left hand again. PO

Rodriguez then tells § 87(2)(b) to back up and PO Rodriguez faces away from the struggle with § 87(2)(b) (<<43:09 – 43:25>>).

PO Rene, § 87(2)(b) testified that once the occupants were downstairs, he stood on the second or third step. After 15 to 20 minutes, § 87(2)(b) began walking upstairs. PO Rene said, “You can’t go upstairs until [ESU] clears the room.” PO Rene did not remember § 87(2)(b) responding. § 87(2)(b) pushed past PO Rene, and brushed her shoulder against PO Rene’s shoulder. § 87(2)(b) passed PO Rene by one additional stair. PO Rene grabbed § 87(2)(b)’s hand and asked her to come downstairs. § 87(2)(b) turned around and punched PO Rene with a closed fist in the chest. PO Rene grabbed § 87(2)(b)’s shoulders and guided her off the stairs to the floor. PO Rene denied grabbing the left side of § 87(2)(b)’s neck and denied restricting her breathing or § 87(2)(b) complaining that her breathing had been restricted. PO Robbins assisted PO Rene in handcuffing § 87(2)(b).

PO Rodriguez testified that § 87(2)(b) pushed past PO Rene on the stairs, swung at him, and made contact with his shoulder area. PO Rene took § 87(2)(b) to the ground, but PO Rodriguez did not see how PO Rene did so. PO Rodriguez did not see PO Rene grab § 87(2)(b) by the left side of her neck or otherwise make contact with § 87(2)(b)’s neck.

PO Rene and PO Robbins both prepared Threat, Resistance, or Injury Reports (TRIs), which were consistent with PO Rene’s testimony regarding the actions he and § 87(2)(b) took during the incident.

Force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service for a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of service should consider the following:

- a) The nature and severity of the crime/circumstances
- b) Actions taken by the subject
- c) Duration of the action
- d) Immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and/or bystanders
- e) Whether the subject is actively resisting custody
- f) Whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight
- g) Number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS
- h) Size, age, and condition of the subject in comparison to the MOS
- i) Subject’s violent history, if known
- j) Presence of hostile crowd or agitators
- k) Subject apparently under the influence of stimulant/narcotic which would affect pain tolerance or increase the likelihood of violence. NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 (BR 08).

A chokehold shall include, but is not limited to, any pressure to the throat or windpipe, which may prevent or hinder breathing or reduce intake of air. Members of the service shall not use a chokehold. NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) consistently testified that once the officers left and they were allowed to enter his apartment, the deadbolt lock on one of § 87(2)(b)'s closet doors was broken off and the closet door had its hinges off. § 87(2)(b) also testified that room dividers inside the apartment were broken and cracked.

Sgt. Wilson denied seeing any damage inside the apartment. PO Liebe denied damaging any property inside the apartment or seeing any other officer do so.

Allegation (I) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Teara Wilson failed to provide a business card to

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) testified that PO Rene gave them both his business card. § 87(2)(b) testified that he did not receive a business card from any of the officers.

Sgt. Wilson, who was on scene for the duration of the incident, testified that a business card was “probably not” left with § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) but later stated that she did not know if a business card was left with them.

During a law enforcement activity, which includes frisks, an officer shall offer a business card to the individual at the conclusion of a law enforcement activity that does not result in an arrest or summons. New York City Administrative Code 14-174 (BR 20).

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation I be closed as substantiated.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first complaint to which § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) have been a party (BR 21-22).
- § 87(2)(b) has been party to one prior CCRB complaint and has been named a victim in one allegation (BR 23):
  - § 87(2)(b)
- Sgt. Wilson has been a member of service for 15 years and has been a subject in two prior complaints and four allegations, none of which was substantiated. § 87(2)(g)
- PO Rene has been a member of service for three years and has been a subject in one prior complaint and one allegation, which was not substantiated. § 87(2)(g)

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This complaint was not suitable for mediation.

- § 87(2)(b) filed a Notice of Claim with the City of New York claiming “pain and suffering, medical bills, personal injuries including but not limited to back, neck, shoulder, mental trauma, and fear and anguish” and seeking $5,000,000 as redress. A 50H hearing was held on § 87(2)(b) (BR 24).
