Plaintiff Adrian Bradley, by and through his counsel, Michael Hueston, Esq.,
upon information and belief, alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights, common law, and tort action in which plaintiff seeks relief for the violation of plaintiff's rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff's claims arise from an incident that arose on or about April 3, 2015. During the incident, the City of New York, and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") subjected plaintiff to, among other things: unlawful search and seizure; false arrest; assault; battery; unreasonable force; failure to intervene; conspiracy; denial of a fair trial; implementation and continuation of an unlawful municipal policy, practice, and custom; and respondeat superior liability. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees, pursuant 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. Within 90 days of the incident alleged in this complaint, plaintiff served upon defendant City of New York a Notice of Claim setting forth the name and post office address of plaintiff, the nature of the claims, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claims arose, and the items of damages or injuries claimed.

3. More than 30 days have elapsed since plaintiff's demands and/or claims were presented to defendant City of New York for adjustment and/or payment thereof, and the defendant has neglected and/or refused to make any adjustment and/or payment.

4. Plaintiff has satisfied all conditions precedent for the filing of this action, including appearing at a 50-hearing. This action is being commenced within one year and ninety days of the date of the occurrence herein.

5. Venue is proper in the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County, because the acts in question occurred in the State of New York, Kings County, and the City of New York is subject to personal jurisdiction in Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County; and jurisdiction is proper because the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County has jurisdiction over plaintiff's state law causes of actions, and plaintiff's federal causes of action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Adrian Bradley is a resident of the State of New York, living at 266 Saint James Place, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11238.

7. At all times herein, defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

8. At all times relevant, defendant City of New York maintained a police department known as the NYPD, which employed the individual defendants.

9. At all times alleged herein, defendants Det. Scott Fernan, Shield # 335; Sgt. Parente; Det. Rahman; Det. Chichotky; Det. Ellerbe; Det. Rohan; Det. Rivera; Det. Fernandez; and P.O. Scanzano were employed as police officers with 88th Precinct, located in Kings County, New York, or other as yet unknown NYPD assignment, who violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

10. The individual defendants are sued in their individual and official capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Incident

11. On April 3, 2015, several police officers operating from the 88th Precinct located in Kings County, New York, including upon information and belief, the individual defendants Det. Scott Fernan, Shield # 335; Sgt. Parente; Det. Rahman; Det. Chichotky; Det. Ellerbe; Det. Rohan; Det. Rivera; Det. Fernandez; and P.O. Scanzano ("the police"), at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against plaintiff.

12. On April 3, 2015 at approximately 7:00 p.m., at and in the vicinity of 266 Saint James Place, Second Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11238, the police without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime unlawfully arrested plaintiff.

13. The police acted in concert in committing the above-described illegal acts against plaintiff.

14. 266 Saint James Place, Second Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11238 is a multiple story building with different apartments.

15. Plaintiff is a tenant in his own apartment, located at 266 Saint James Place, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, New York (“the apartment”).

16. The police broke into 266 Saint James Place, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, New York with firearms drawn.

17. Upon information and belief, the police were looking for two individuals, other than plaintiff, who lived in a separate apartment on the 4th Floor at 266 Saint James Place, Brooklyn, New York.

18. There were no weapons, contraband, or controlled substances in plaintiff's apartment or on his person.

19. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police obtained was issued upon the basis of extremely unreliable information, the unreliability of which was withheld from the issuing magistrate.

20. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police had was obtained by failing to properly supervise and verify the reliability of any informant before obtaining the warrant and this fact was withheld from the issuing magistrate.

21. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police had was executed beyond the scope of the warrant, including going into the wrong apartment.

22. Once the police entered plaintiff's apartment, plaintiff was not free to disregard the defendants' questions, walk away or leave the scene.

23. The police pointed firearms at plaintiff.

24. The police had plaintiff get on the floor.

25. The police placed excessively tight handcuffs on plaintiff's wrists.

26. The handcuffs left marks on plaintiff's wrists.

27. The police were abusive and rude.

28. The police found no basis to arrest to plaintiff.

29. Nevertheless, the police transported plaintiff to the 88th Precinct for arrest processing.

30. The police transported plaintiff to Brooklyn Central Booking for arraignment.

31. Upon information and belief, in order to cover up their illegal actions, the police, pursuant to a conspiracy, initiated by false sworn complaint(s) and/or conversations, falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed various crimes, and the District Attorney prosecuted plaintiff for various charges, including criminal possession of a controlled substance.

32. Plaintiff was released on his own recognizance.

33. After having to appear in criminal court the case against plaintiff was adjourned in contemplation of dismissal and dismissed forthwith.

34. Plaintiff was humiliated and embarrassed by the experience.

35. Plaintiff suffered physical injuries.

General Allegations

36. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any time during the above-described incidents.

37. Plaintiff did not violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

38. The individual defendants did not observe plaintiff violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

39. The individual defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their employment. Said acts by said defendants were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority or law, and in abuse of their powers, and said defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiff of his rights.

40. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff experienced personal and physical injuries, pain and suffering, fear, an invasion of privacy, psychological pain, emotional distress, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and financial loss.

41. Plaintiff is entitled to receive punitive damages from the individual defendants because the individual defendants' actions were motivated by extreme recklessness and indifference to plaintiff' rights.

FIRST CLAIM

(UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEIZURE UNDER FEDERAL LAW)

42. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

43. Defendants unlawfully searched and seized plaintiff without a lawful warrant, cause, consent, and/or beyond the scope of any warrant.

44. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for unlawful search and seizure under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

SECOND CLAIM

(UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEIZURE UNDER STATE LAW)

45. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

46. Defendants unlawfully searched and seized plaintiff without a lawful warrant, cause, consent, and/or beyond the scope of any warrant.

47. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for unlawful search and seizure under New York State law.

THIRD CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER FEDERAL LAW)

48. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

49. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiff without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime.

50. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for false arrest under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTH CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER STATE LAW)

51. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

52. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiff without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime.

53. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for false arrest under New York State law.

FIFTH CLAIM

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

54. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

55. The individual defendants' use of force upon plaintiff was objectively unreasonable.

56. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiff.

57. Those defendants who did not touch plaintiff, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiff from this conduct.

58. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for using unreasonable force, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SIXTH CLAIM

(ASSAULT)

59. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. Among other things as described above, individual defendants' battery, false arrest, and unreasonable use of force against plaintiff placed him in fear of imminent harmful and offensive physical contacts.

61. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York State law for assault.

SEVENTH CLAIM

(BATTERY)

62. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

63. Among other things as described above, the individual defendants' false arrest, and use of force against plaintiff were illegal physical contacts.

64. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York State law for battery.

EIGHTH CLAIM

(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

65. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

66. Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent the violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights, but they failed to intervene.

67. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for failing to intervene to prevent the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

NINTH CLAIM

(CONSPIRACY)

68. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

69. Defendants are liable to plaintiff because they agreed to act in concert to inflict an unconstitutional injury; and committed an overt act done in furtherance of that goal causing damage to plaintiff under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

TENTH CLAIM

(DENIAL OF A FAIR TRIAL)

70. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

71. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiff because they intentionally conspired to fabricate evidence against plaintiff, including omitting and/or manipulating evidence, and suppressing exculpatory evidence and forwarded that false evidence to police officers, prosecutors, and the court.

72. The individual defendants violated the law by either testifying falsely, providing false information, and/or drafting and signing false criminal court complaints and/or false police reports and forwarding them to police officers, prosecutors and the court.

73. The individual defendants were on notice that creating fabricated evidence is a clear violation of law because it is well established that individuals who knowingly use false evidence to obtain a conviction act unconstitutionally, depriving plaintiff of liberty without due process of law or a fair trial, and the harm occasioned by such unconscionable actions are redressable in an action for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Fair Trial Clause of the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

ELEVENTH CLAIM

(MONELL CLAIM)

74. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendant City of New York, through a policy, practice and custom, directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff.

76. Defendant City of New York through the NYPD and its officers, committed the following unconstitutional practices, customs and policies against plaintiff: (1) wrongfully arresting innocent persons in order to meet productivity goals; (2) unlawfully obtaining and improperly executing warrants; (3) fabricating evidence against individuals; and (4) using unreasonable force on individuals.

77. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York, at all relevant times, was aware that the defendants were unfit officers who have previously committed the acts alleged herein, have a propensity for unconstitutional conduct, or have been inadequately trained.

78. Nevertheless, defendant City of New York exercised deliberate indifference by failing to take remedial action. The City failed to properly train, retrain, supervise, discipline, and monitor the individual defendants and improperly retained and utilized them. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant City of New York failed to adequately investigate prior complaints filed against the individual defendants.

79. Further, defendants City of New York was aware prior to the incident that the individual defendants (in continuation of its illegal custom, practice and/or policy) would stop, arrest and prosecute innocent individuals, based on pretexts and false evidence.

80. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct involving the individual defendants, placing the defendant City of New York on notice of the individual defendants' propensity to violate the rights of individuals.

TWELFTH CLAIM

(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

81. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

82. The individual defendants were acting within the scope of their employment when they committed the above described acts against plaintiff, including falsely arresting, assaulting, and battering plaintiff.

83. The City of New York is therefore vicariously liable under New York State law for the aforesaid torts.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the defendants; and demands judgment and compensatory damages, individually and/or collectively in an amount that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction as to the above-stated cause of action against all defendants; punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as and for the above-stated causes of action against the individual defendants; together with costs and disbursements of this action and legal fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
