AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL HARM AND/OR DISTRESS

48. Courts have held that continuous and coercive harassment can establish an IIED cause of action. Alexander v. Unification Church of America, 634 F.2d 673, 678–679 (2d Cir.1980) (filing of harassing lawsuits, constant surveillance, patrolling of plaintiffs' homes); Green v. Fischbein Olivieri Rosenbolt & Badillo, 119 A.D.2d 345, 507 N.Y.S.2d 148 (1st Dep't 1986)(baseless eviction proceedings against plaintiff-tenant by landlord, disruption in services, deterioration of living conditions, interference with mails, verbal abuse of plaintiff and his guests). But see, Gay v. Carlson, 60 F.3d 83, 89 (2d Cir.1995) (finding plaintiff had not established an IIED claim where “[a]ll that plaintiff alleges that any of the defendants has done is lodge official complaints about plaintiff's conduct or discuss the basis of those complaints with others.”).
49. A timely Notice of Claim was filed with the City of New York.
50. Because many of these “last actionable acts” occurred within the statute of limitations period, the action is not time-barred. Cf. Leonhard v. United States, 633 F.2d at 613 (holding that under general principles of New York law, the statute of limitations “ ‘runs from the commission of the last wrongful act.’ ”)(citations omitted).
- Hon. Denise L. Cote of this district recently reached a similar conclusion on this issue. Bonner v. Guccione, 94 Civ. 7735, slip. op. at 7–15, 1996 WL 22355 (S.D.N.Y. January 17, 1996)(holding where last act of an uninterrupted course of actionable conduct falls within statute of limitations, plaintiff permitted to assert IIED claim for entire course of conduct, even those acts beyond the statute of limitations). Cf. Leonhard v. United States, 633 F.2d at 613 (holding that under New York law where certain continuous wrongs are alleged, the last wrongful act triggers the statute of limitations).

51. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
52. Under the color of state law, Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT "JOHN" DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 intentionally caused continuous emotional distress and damages to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of continuous emotional distress and emotional injury to Plaintiff and violated her statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
53. Upon information and belief, Defendants committed multiple acts against Plaintiff, which invaded her interests and inflicted injuries upon her throughout all stages of investigation, continuous detention, hearings and trials all of which cumulatively amounted to intentional infliction of emotional harm and/or distress.
54. The emotional harm and/or distress continue to present day.
55. Defendants conduct transcended the bounds of human decency which amounted to more than the emotional harm that is encompassed within the other claims.
56. THE CITY OF NEW YORK is responsible based on the theory of respondeat superior.
57. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of her liberty, suffered specific physical injury, psychological injury and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE

58. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
59. Upon information and belief, a Notice of Claim was timely filed against the City.
60. THE CITY OF NEW YORK is responsible based on the theory of respondeat superior.
61. Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK

(TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT "JOHN" DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 negligently caused injuries and otherwise damaged Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of Defendant were the direct and proximate cause of injury to Plaintiff and violated their statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

62. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of her liberty, suffered specific psychological and emotional injuries and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER THE
UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION and 42 U.S.C. § 1983
AND
NEW YORK STATE CLAIM OF MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

63. Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
64. Defendants' actions with regard to the institution and maintenance of the criminal prosecution were committed wantonly and with a reckless disregard for whether a reasonable ground of suspicion existed, supported by the circumstances, which would lead a reasonably prudent person to believe that Plaintiff had committed a crime.
65. By the actions described above, Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT "JOHN" DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 initiated a prosecution against Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY.
66. By the actions described above, Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT "JOHN" DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 caused Plaintiff to be maliciously prosecuted without any probable cause, without reasonable suspicion, without any proper claims, without any right or authority to do so, illegally and with malice.

67. Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT “JOHN” DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 arrested and issued legal process in order to obtain collateral objectives outside the legitimate ends of the legal process and intimidating Plaintiff for their personal interest and further to prevent Plaintiff from disclosing the aforementioned evidence of their misconduct.
68. Defendants acted with intent to do harm to Plaintiff without excuse or justification.
69. The legal process was terminated in favor of Plaintiff.
70. A timely Notice of Claim was filed with the City of New York.
71. THE CITY OF NEW YORK is also responsible for the State Claim of Malicious prosecution based on the theory of respondeat superior.¹
72. It was obvious in this situation that based on the totality of circumstances, there was no probable cause to continue and even if there was probable cause to support the arrest (and Plaintiff does not believe there was), the evidence surfaced once Plaintiff identified himself and/or went further to prove his identity before being transported away from the scene.
73. By the actions described above, Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT “JOHN” DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 lacked probable cause to believe the proceeding could succeed.
74. In fact, no probable cause existed to support a conviction and thus, actual malice by Defendants may additionally be inferred by the lack thereof.
75. The charges were ultimately terminated in favor of Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY.
76. Defendants were at all times aware that the dealership and its agents, employees and/or representatives had made a clerical error with the paperwork.

77. Defendants nonetheless instituted a criminal case against Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY for an improper purpose – namely to attempt to justify their unlawful intrusion and search of Plaintiff's residence.
78. Defendants continued the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY even after she had been arrested.
79. Defendants nonetheless instituted a criminal case against Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY for an improper purpose – namely to attempt to justify their unlawful arrest and initiation of criminal prosecution against Plaintiff.
80. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY was deprived of her liberty, suffered specific psychological and emotional injuries and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FALSE ARREST and FALSE IMPRISONMENT

81. Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
82. There was no probable cause for the arrest. The plaintiff was never shown a warrant for her arrest. Plaintiff was never informed as to the reasons for her arrest and/or criminal allegations made against her.
83. By the actions described above, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT "JOHN" DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 caused Plaintiff to be falsely arrested and falsely imprisoned without probable cause, without reasonable suspicion, illegally, without any proper claims, and without any right or authority to do so. The acts and conduct of Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws of the Constitution of the State of New York.
84. The Defendants kept Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY within boundaries set up by Defendants themselves, by handcuffing Plaintiff and placing her in the holding cell, thereby creating physical obstacles which forcefully confined LESHONE GRAY to specific boundaries.

85. The Defendants clearly intended to keep Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY within those boundaries by holding Plaintiff in their custody.

86. The boundaries created by Defendants involved both physical and mental/emotional pressure.

87. Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY knew she was being imprisoned.

² "A claim to recover damages for abuse of process cannot be based on the mere commencement of an action by summons and complaint, without unlawful interference with person or property" (Island Fed. Credit Union v. Smith, 60 A.D.3d 730, 875 N.Y.S.2d 198). All three elements must be established in order to have a cause of action for abuse of process (see id.; see also Mago v. Singh, 47 A.D.3d 772, 851 N.Y.S.2d 593 [a counterclaim failed because it failed to allege "any actual misuse of the process to obtain an end outside its proper scope"]). In order for a party to bring a claim for abuse of process, three elements must be met: (1) there must be "regularly issued process, either civil or criminal;" (2) there must be "an intent to do harm without excuse or justification;" and (3) there is a "use of the process in a perverted manner to obtain a collateral objective" (Curiano v. Suozzi, 63 N.Y.2d 113, 480 N.Y.S.2d 466, 469 N.E.2d 1324).

AS AND FOR A ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER THE
UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION AND 42 U.S.C. § 1983
BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK
CLAIM FOR MONELL LIABILITY

123. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
124. At all times material to this complaint, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK acting through its police department, department of correction and through Defendants POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT “JOHN” DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 had in effect actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and usages which were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct alleged herein.
125. At all times material to their complaint, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK acting through its police department and through Defendants POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT “JOHN” DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 had in effect and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and usages of failing to properly train, screen, supervise and discipline employees and police officers, and of failing to inform the individual Defendants’ supervisors of the need to train, screen, supervise and discipline said Defendants. The policies, practices, customs, and usages were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct alleged herein.
126. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK acting through its police department and through Defendants POLICE OFFICER DENNIS WESTBROOK (TAX ID #947605), SERGEANT “JOHN” DEONARINESINGH (TAX ID #936469) and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN/JANE DOE #1-15 being aware that such lack of training, screening, supervision, and discipline leads to improper conduct, acted with deliberate indifference in failing to establish a program of effective training, screening, supervision and discipline. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK being aware that the persistent and substantial risk of improper detention of persons based upon insufficient or incorrect information, and effective training, screening, supervision and discipline would lessen the likelihood of such occurrences. These are recurrent circumstances which involve such potential danger to the constitutional rights of citizens, more specifically Plaintiff and which are officially tolerated by Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK. Such policies, practices, customs or usages were a direct and proximate cause of the conduct alleged herein and otherwise a direct and proximate cause of the harm/damages alleged herein, in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights as guaranteed under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the United States Constitution, including its Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

127. The existence of the above-described de facto unlawful policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices is known to, encouraged and/or condoned by supervisory and policy-making officers and Police Officers and defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, including but not limited to the NYPD.
128. At the time of the aforementioned constitutional violations, THE CITY OF NEW YORK and NYPD were and had been on notice of such unconstitutional conduct, customs, and de facto policies, such that the failure of THE CITY OF NEW YORK's NYPD to take appropriate remedial action amounted to deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of persons with whom the correction officers come in contact. In light of the extensive pattern of well-settled, pervasive customs and policies causing constitutional violations, documented in part infra, the need for more effective supervision and other remedial measures was patently obvious, but THE CITY OF NEW YORK and NYPD made no meaningful attempt to prevent future constitutional violations.
129. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK knew or should have known that the acts alleged herein would deprive Plaintiff of his rights under the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
130. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK is directly liable and responsible for the acts of Defendants, as it repeatedly and knowingly failed to properly supervise, train, instruct, and discipline them and because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to enforce the rules and regulations of the City and NYPD, and to require compliance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.

131. Despite knowledge of such unlawful de facto policies, practices, and/or customs, these supervisory and policy-making officers and officials of the NYPD and THE CITY OF NEW YORK, including the NYPD, have not taken steps to terminate these policies, practices and/or customs, do not discipline individuals who engage in such policies, practices and/or customs, or otherwise properly train police officers with regard to the constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and instead approve and ratify these policies, practices and/or customs through their active encouragement of, deliberate indifference to and/or reckless disregard of the effects of said policies, practices and/or customs or the constitutional rights of persons in the City of New York.
132. The aforementioned Defendant's THE CITY OF NEW YORK policies, practices and/or customs of failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers and encouraging their misconduct are evidenced by the police misconduct detailed herein. Specifically, pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, Defendants felt empowered to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause and then kept him in unsanitary and inhuman conditions.
133. Pursuant to the aforementioned THE CITY OF NEW YORK policies, practices and/or customs, the employees, representatives and/or agents failed to intervene in or report Defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights.
134. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK's wrongful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices and of the knowing and repeated failure of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK to properly supervise, train and discipline their employees, agents and representatives of NYPD.

135. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of her liberty, suffered specific physical, psychological and emotional injuries and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.
136. In this case, there was: Police withholding evidence and/or misrepresenting or falsifying evidence; overall inadequate police work and inadequate prosecutorial work-up of the case; and permitting and/or enforcing false arrest and placing Plaintiff in unsafe and unconstitutional conditions of confinement.
137. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned defendants in their capacities as officers pursuant to customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City, NYPD, all under the supervision of higher-ranking representatives, employees and/or agents of the NYPD.
138. The aforementioned customs, practices, procedures and rules of the City and NYPD include, but are not limited to: 1) arresting persons known to be innocent in order to meet “productivity goals”; 2) falsely swearing out criminal complaints and/or lying and committing perjury during sworn testimony to protect other officers and meet productivity goals; 3) failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers thereby encouraging their misconduct and exhibiting deliberate indifference towards the constitutional rights of persons within the officers’ jurisdiction; 4) discouraging police officers from reporting the corrupt or unlawful acts of other officers; 5) retaliating against officers who report police misconduct; and 6) failing to intervene to prevent the above-mentioned practices when they reasonably could have been prevented with proper supervision.
139. At the time of the aforementioned constitutional violations, THE CITY OF NEW YORK and NYPD were and had been on notice of such unconstitutional conduct, customs, and de facto policies, such that the failure of City and NYPD to take appropriate remedial action amounted to deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of persons with whom the police come in contact. In light of the extensive pattern of well-settled, pervasive customs and policies causing constitutional violations, documented in part infra, the need for more effective supervision and other remedial measures was patently obvious, but THE CITY OF NEW YORK and NYPD made no meaningful attempt to prevent future constitutional violations.

140. The existence of aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct, as documented by the following civil rights actions and parallel prosecutions of police officers:

a) Colon v. City of New York, 9-CV-0008 (JBW)(E.D.N.Y) (in an Order dated November 29, 2009 denying the City's motion to dismiss on Iqbal/Twombly grounds, wherein the police officers at issued were and prosecuted for falsifying evidence, the Honorable Jack B. Weinstein wrote:

'Informal inquiry by the court and among the judges of this court, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officers of the New York City Police Department. Despite numerous inquiries by commissions and strong reported efforts by the present administration— through selection of candidates for the police force stressing academic and other qualifications, serious training to avoid constitutional violations, and strong disciplinary action within the department—there is some evidence of an attitude among officers that is sufficiently widespread to constitute a custom or policy by the city approving illegal conduct of the kind now charged.'

b) McMillan v. City of New York, 04-cv-3990 (FB)(RML) (E.D.N.Y.)(officers fabricated evidence against an African-American man in Kings County and initiated drug charges against him, despite an absence of an quantum of suspicion);

c) Richardson v. City of New York, 02-CV-3651 (JG)(CLP) (E.D.N.Y.)(officers fabricated evidence including knowingly false sworn complaints, against an African-American man in Kings County and initiated drug charges against him, despite an absence of any quantum of suspicion);

141. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and practices, specifically with regard to the practice or custom of officers lying under oath, falsely swearing out criminal complaints or otherwise falsifying or fabricating evidence, are further evidenced, inter alia, by the following:

a) Morgan Cloud, The Dirty Little Secret, 43 EMORY L.J. 1311, 1311-12 (1994) ("Judges, prosecutors, defense lawyers, and repeat offenders all know that police officers lie under oath."); Jerome H. Skolnick, Deception by Police, CRIM. JUST. ETHICS, Summer/Fall 1982, at 40, 42 (concluding that police "systematic[ally]" perjure themselves to achieve convictions); ALAN M. DERSHOWITZ, THE ABUSE EXCUSE 233 (Hachette Book Group 1994) (suggesting that "recent disclosures about rampant police perjury cannot possibly come as any surprise" to those who have practiced criminal law in state or federal courts); ALAN M. DERSHOWITZ, THE BEST DEFENSE xxi-xxii (Random House 1983) ("Almost all police lie about whether they violated the Constitution in order to convict guilty defendants."); Deborah Young, Unnecessary

Evil: Police Lying in Interrogations, 28 CONN. L. REV. 425, 427 (1996) (asserting that “the reported cases of police lying represent only a fraction of the actual cases in which police lying occurred”); David Kocieniewski, Perjury Dividend-A Special Report, N.Y. TIMES, Jan. 5, 1997, at A1 (noting that according to one New York police officer, “lying under oath was standard procedure”); Lie Detectors Could Curb Police Perjury, USA TODAY, Aug. 1, 1996, (Magazine), at 13 (“[M]any experienced trial lawyers have said they believe police officers frequently lie on the stand.”); Joseph D. McNamara, Has the Drug War created an Officer Liars' Club?, L.A. TIMES, Feb. 11, 1996, at M1 (noting recent perjury scandals have surfaced in police departments in Los Angeles, Boston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Denver, New York, and other large cities; and stating “[H]undreds of thousands of law-enforcement officers commit felony perjury every year testifying about drug arrests.”).

b) The Mollen Commission concluded that police perjury and falsification of official records is probably the most common form of police corruption facing the criminal justice system. It concluded:

Regardless of the motives behind police falsifications, what is particularly troublesome about this practice is that it is widely tolerated by corrupt and honest officers alike, as well as their superiors. Corrupt and honest officers told us that their supervisors knew or should have known about falsified versions of searches and arrests and never questioned them.¹ {...} What breeds this tolerance is deep-rooted perception among many officers of all ranks within the Department that there is nothing really wrong with compromising the facts to fight crime in the real world. Simply put, despite devastating consequences of police falsifications, there is a persistent belief among officers that it is necessary and justified, even if it is unlawful. As one dedicated officer put it, police officers often view falsification as, to use his words, “doing God’s work” – doing whatever it takes to get the suspected criminal off the streets. This is so entrenched, especially in high-crime precincts, that when investigators confronted one recently arrested officer with evidence of perjury, he asked in disbelief, “What’s wrong with that? They’re guilty.” See, Mollen Commission Report pgs 36-41.

142. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies, specifically with regard to "productivity goals," may be further inferred from the following: Deputy Commissioner Paul J. Browne has repeatedly admitted that NYPD commanders are permitted to set "productivity goals."³
143. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and practices, specifically with regard to the failure to supervise, train, instruct, and discipline police officers, encouraging their misconduct, and exhibiting deliberate indifference towards the constitutional rights of persons with whom officers come into contact are further evidenced, inter alia, by the following:

³ Jim Hoffer NYPD Officer claims pressure to make arrests WABC-TV Eyewitness News, March 22 2010, available at <http://abclocal.go.com/Wabc/story?section=news/investigators&id=73053S6> ("Police Officers like others who receive compensation are provided productivity goals and they are expected to work").

a) In response to the Honorable Judge Weinstein's ruling of November 25, 2009 in Colon v. City of New York, 09-CV-00008 (E.D.N.Y.), in which he noticed a "widespread... custom or policy by the city approving illegal conduct" such as lying under oath and false swearing, NYPD Commissioner Raymond Kelly acknowledged, "When it happens, it's not for personal gain. It's more for convenience."

b) Regarding Defendant City's tacit condonement and failure to supervise, discipline or provide remedial training when officers engage in excessive force, the Civilian Complaint Review Board is a City agency, allegedly independent of the NYPD, that is responsible for investigating and issuing findings on complaints of police abuse and misconduct. When it does, however, Commissioner Kelly controls whether the NYPD pursues the matter and he alone has the authority to impose discipline on the subject officer(s). Since 2005, during Kelly's tenure, only one quarter of officers whom the CCRB found engaged in misconduct received punishment more severe than verbal "instructions." Moreover, the number of CCRB-substantiated cases that the NYPD has simply dropped (i.e., closed without action or discipline) has spiked from less than 4% each year between 2002 and 2006, to 35% in 2007, and approximately 30% in 2008. Alarming, the NYPD has refused to prosecute 40% of the cases sent to it by the CCRB in 2009. As a result, the percentage of cases where the CCRB found misconduct but where the subject officers were given only verbal instructions or the matter was simply dropped by the NYPD rose to 66% in 2007. Substantiated complaints of excessive force against civilians accounted for more than 10% of the cases that the NYPD dropped in 2007 and account for more than 25% of cases dropped in 2008.

144. The existence of the above-described de facto unlawful policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices is known to, encouraged and/or condoned by supervisory and policy-making officers and officials of the NYPD and defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, including without limitation, the Police Commissioner.
145. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived Plaintiff of his federally protected rights, including, but limited to, the constitutional rights enumerated herein.
146. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK knew or should have known that the acts alleged herein would deprive Plaintiff of his rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
147. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK is directly liable and responsible for the acts of Defendants, as it repeatedly and knowingly failed to properly supervise, train, instruct, and discipline them and because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to enforce the rules and regulations of the City and NYPD and to require compliance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.

4 Daily News, Editorial: City Leaders Must Get Serious About Policing the Police, August 20, 2008.

148. Despite knowledge of such unlawful de facto policies, practices, and/or customs, these supervisory and policy-making officers and officials of the NYPD and THE CITY OF NEW YORK, including the Commissioner, have not taken steps to terminate these policies, practices and/or customs, do not discipline individuals who engage in such policies, practices and/or customs, or otherwise properly train police officers with regard to the constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and instead approve and ratify these policies, practices and/or customs through their active encouragement of, deliberate indifference to and/or reckless disregard of the effects of said policies, practices and/or customs or the constitutional rights of persons in the City of New York.
149. The aforementioned Defendant's THE CITY OF NEW YORK policies, practices and/or customs of failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers and encouraging their misconduct are evidenced by the police misconduct detailed herein. Specifically, pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, Defendants felt empowered to arrest Plaintiff, medicate and confine him thus, making blatant violations of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.
150. Pursuant to the aforementioned THE CITY OF NEW YORK policies, practices and/or customs, the employees, representatives and/or agents failed to intervene in or report Defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights.
151. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK's wrongful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices and of the knowing and repeated failure of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK to properly supervise, train and discipline their agents, employees, or representatives.
152. There is a clear causal connection between the actions of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the constitutional violations in this case. Here, THE CITY OF NEW YORK caused and is implicated in the constitutional violations and thus, should be held liable for the unconstitutional actions taken by the police officers.

153. Here, it is clear that THE CITY OF NEW YORK took action by their hiring and retention, which is sufficient to expose them to liability. Amnesty America v. Town of West Hartford, 361 F3d 113, 125 (2d Cir. 2004).
154. Upon information and belief, THE CITY OF NEW YORK was on notice that these policies were being unconstitutionally applied by inadequately trained medical staff and consciously has chosen not to train them or hire staff more adequate. City of Canton, Ohio v. Harris, 489 US 378 at 387.
155. By being aware of the medical staff's unconstitutional actions and consciously ignoring them, this in turn can mean that THE CITY OF NEW YORK ratified the defendants' actions. See, Sorlucio v. New York City Police Dept., 971 F2d 864, 870-871 (2d Cir. 1992) (municipality lies where the subordinate's misconduct is "so manifest, as to imply the constructive acquiescence of senior policymaking officials").
156. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of her liberty, suffered specific physical injury, psychological injury and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff LESHONE GRAY demands judgment against Defendants herein, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
