COMPLAINT

Index No. /2020E

Plaintiff, JAMES KELLY, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, CHARLIE LITTLE, ADLAI PINNEY, UNDERCOVER OFFICER NO. C0069 and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of the State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights and the deprivations to his liberties, as enumerated and promulgated by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arise from a May 15, 2019 incident, in which Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff outside the vicinity of 14 Bruckner Boulevard, The Bronx, New York. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries.
3. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained for eleven (11) contiguous months, from the date of his unlawful arrest, until his eventual release from unlawful custodial detention on, or about, April 9, 2020. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to due process, until April 21, 2020, when the criminal indictment and all related charges against plaintiff were dismissed via the entry of a nolle prosequi, thus terminating the criminal proceedings in plaintiff's favor.

4. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

5. Within ninety (90) days of the accrual dates of the claims herein, plaintiff served the New York City Comptroller's Office with written notice of said claims.

6. Over thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

7. Plaintiff has complied with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-h of the New York General Municipal Law.

8. The claims herein are being commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days of the dates they arose.

9. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

10. Plaintiff, JAMES KELLY ("Mr. Kelly"), is an African American male, who presently resides in Bronx County, within the City and State of New York.

11. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

12. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

13. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

14. Defendants, CHARLIE LITTLE (“LITTLE”), ADLAI PINNEY (“PINNEY”) and UNDERCOVER OFFICER NO. C0069 (“UC 69”), were at all times relevant herein, police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD, or City of New York, and as such, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times, Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD, or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

18. On, or about, May 15, 2019, at approximately 5:30 p.m., Mr. Kelly was inside of 14 Bruckner Blvd, The Bronx, New York, for his regularly scheduled parole meeting.

19. As plaintiff was waiting and in obedience of all local, state and federal laws, he was aggressively approached by defendants, including LITTLE and PINNEY, who had their arms outstretched menacingly toward plaintiff.

20. Defendants, including LITTLE and PINNEY, then informed Mr. Kelly without explanation that he was being placed under arrest and proceeded to violently contort plaintiff's arms behind his back and apply metal handcuffs to his wrists in an excessively tight fashion.

21. Defendants, including LITTLE and PINNEY, then removed Mr. Kelly against his will to a Bronx County NYPD precinct, where said defendants subjected plaintiff to an illegal strip-search with attendant cavity inspection, which was conducted by or at the direction of defendants, as well as other indignities particular to unjust confinement.

22. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, never observed Plaintiff committing a crime or violation of the law, or any act that could reasonably be suspected as such, including the sale or possession of crack/cocaine or any other illicit substance.

23. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to justify their stop, seizure, search, questioning, detention, arrest or subsequent prosecution of Mr. Kelly, as defendants did not possess any credible evidence that would lead a reasonable officer to believe that plaintiff has committed any crime or violation of the law, at any point in time.

24. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, engaged in the fabrication of evidence in the form of their observations regarding plaintiff's alleged sale and possession of crack/cocaine and defendants' recovery of said illicit controlled substances to support their knowingly false criminal allegations against Mr. Kelly, including his intentional distribution and possession with the intent to distribute controlled substances, namely crack/cocaine.

25. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, forwarded said false claims to prosecutors so that plaintiff would be arrested, detained and criminally prosecuted, despite the absence of any probable cause to support such gratuitous impingements to plaintiff's civil rights and liberties.

26. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, suppressed exculpatory evidence, including UC 69's failures to identify Mr. Kelly as the true perpetrator, video recordings and photographs of the actual suspect, who did not physically resemble Mr. Kelly in any capacity, and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrication of said false allegations against plaintiff to justify their wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution against plaintiff, and defendants' destruction, concealment, sabotage or other form of evidence suppression related to defendants' body cam recordings, so that said recordings could not be used to exonerate plaintiff and incriminate defendants.

27. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, therefore caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, despite the clear lack of any probable cause to believe Mr. Kelly was guilty or that one would succeed.

28. As a result, defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, maliciously prosecuted and denied plaintiff his right to fair trial, until the criminal proceeding terminated in his favor, via the unconditional and outright dismissal of the criminal complaint and associated charges on April 21, 2020, due the clear lack of probable cause to believe plaintiff had committed any crime or offense, whatsoever.

29. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, arrested, intentionally caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to retaliate against plaintiff for his prior lawsuits against defendants or the NYPD, generally, to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution as leverage to obtain information related to actual crimes, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

30. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, unjustly and unlawfully targeted plaintiff for arrest and prosecution, due to impermissible considerations, regarding plaintiff's color, race or ethnicity, or defendants' perceptions thereof, as defendants would not have violated plaintiff's civil rights, if he was not an African-American male and member of protected class, as a racial minority.

31. Defendants, LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, Mr. Kelly's parole officers, as well as prosecutors, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Mr. Kelly of his liberties and civil rights.

32. Mr. Kelly asserts that Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due solely to their racially discriminatory prejudices against African American males, particularly those on parole from their sentenced period of incarceration, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Mr. Kelly, so that he would provide defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

33. Mr. Kelly further asserts that Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, acted in such an unlawfully reprehensible manner, due to their unsubstantiated and unreasonable presumption that Mr. Kelly would be aware of serious ongoing criminal activity or actively committing a crime himself, solely because of his status as an African American male.

34. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Mr. Kelly's race to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

35. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizure, arrest, and malicious prosecution against plaintiff, even after they were unable to discover any evidence to justify such conduct.

36. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff, due solely to defendants' perception or consideration of Mr. Kelly's race, arrest/criminal history or parole status.

37. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, possessed no valid reason to approach, stop, question, search or arrest plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities.

38. Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, subjected Mr. Kelly to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, seize, search, detain, arrest or accuse any white parolees, who had engaged in activity identical to the kind that resulted in plaintiff's illegal search and seizure, namely living law abiding and productive lives while out on parole.

39. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

40. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

41. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

42. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

43. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

44. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

45. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

46. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

47. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

48. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

49. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

50. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

51. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

53. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to Plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

54. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

55. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

56. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69.

57. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

59. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including LITTLE, PINNEY and UC 69, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

60. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Protected Speech or Activity Retaliation Claim Under New York State Law

61. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

62. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Art. I, § 8, of the New York State Constitution.

63. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by plaintiff's constitutionally protected speech or activities.

64. Defendants' retaliatory actions against plaintiff resulted in the deprivation of his liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against him.

65. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected plaintiff's protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing him from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling his desire to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

66. Accordingly, plaintiff's right to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by Art. I, § 8, of the New York State Constitution, was violated by defendants.

67. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

New York State Law

126. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
127. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.
128. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.
129. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon plaintiff.
130. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to plaintiff's criminal prosecution.
131. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
132. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

133. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
134. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.
135. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.
136. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon plaintiff.

137. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

138. Defendants' actions therefore resulted in deprivations to plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

139. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Due Process Under
New York State Law

140. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

141. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

142. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors.

143. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment deprivation to plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

144. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's right to a fair trial, pursuant to Art. I, §§ 1, 2 & 6, of the New York State constitution, in addition to Art. II, § 12, of the New York State Civil Rights Law.

145. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

146. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Rights to Fair Trial & Due Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

147. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

148. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

149. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors.

150. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment deprivations to plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

151. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution

152. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

153. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

154. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

155. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to New York City Admin. Code § 14-151

156. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

157. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights & Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

158. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

159. Plaintiff, as an African American male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

160. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation

161. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

162. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

163. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

164. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

165. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

166. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, § 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, § 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and § 296, ¶ 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

167. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

168. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights & Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 & 1983 Against Individual Defendants

169. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

170. Plaintiff, as an African American male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

171. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity

172. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

173. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

174. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

175. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

176. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

177. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

178. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights & Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 & 1986 Against Individual Defendants

179. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

180. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

181. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

182. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

183. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

184. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

185. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

186. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

187. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

188. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

189. Accordingly, defendants committed a crime of violence against plaintiff and violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. § 10-403.

190. Defendant Best Buy, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

191. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

192. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

193. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

194. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

195. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

196. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

197. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

198. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

199. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention & Supervision Under
New York State Law

200. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

201. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

202. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

203. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

204. Defendant City knew or should have known of its employee defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

205. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

206. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

207. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

208. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

209. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

210. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates to such an extent that is tantamount to a deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

211. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

212. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

213. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of plaintiff's civil rights, pursuant to Constitution of the United States.

214. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
