VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff ANTHONY QUILES, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On February 10, 2022, at approximately 10:00 p.m., Plaintiff Anthony Quiles, while lawfully in the vicinity of 1352 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers tased Plaintiff twice. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Anthony Quiles is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD Police Officer Victor Cruz, Shield No. 22651 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Victor Cruz, Shield No. 22651 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Victor Cruz, Shield No. 22651 was assigned to the 44th Police Precinct of the NYPD.
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on June 10, 2022.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On February 10, 2021, at approximately 10:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of 1352 Grand Concourse, County of Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully assaulted Plaintiff without legal justification.
16. Plaintiff was returning home on his motorized scooter, which was under 50cc, after visiting with his mother when he was hit by a van.
17. Plaintiff chased after the van and attempted to speak with the driver at a red light. Plaintiff was unable to communicate with the driver since he did not respond in English.
18. As Plaintiff continued to chase after the van, Plaintiff noticed two Defendant Officers ahead and headed towards them. The driver of the van also approached the Defendant Officers.
19. Plaintiff informed the Defendant Officers that his right arm was hit by the van and that he was willing to file a police report.
20. Defendant Officer Victor Cruz responded by grabbing Plaintiff's right arm. The arm Plaintiff just informed Defendant Officers that had been hit by the van.
21. Plaintiff pleaded with the Defendant Officers. Plaintiff asked, "What's going on, why you stopping me, I'm asking for your help."
22. When it became clear that Defendant Officers were not going to assist Plaintiff in any way, he turned to walk away. As Plaintiff turned, Defendant Officer Victor Cruz and his partner both shot their tasers and hit Plaintiff in the back, causing Plaintiff to fall unaided onto the hard ground.
23. Several more Defendant Officers arrived on scene and jumped on top of Plaintiff who was already incapacitated on the ground after having been tasered twice.
24. Defendant Officers dug their knees into Plaintiff's back as they handcuffed him.
25. Defendant Officers lifted Plaintiff off the ground and placed him into a police vehicle and then transported him to the 44th precinct.
26. Upon arrival at the precinct, Plaintiff was booked and illegally searched again.
27. Defendant Officers, without cause, placed their hands inside Plaintiff's pants and search around his genitals. Plaintiff experienced severe emotional trauma as a result of Defendant Officer's highly invasive search and broke down in tears while Defendant Officers conducted the invasive search.
28. After six hours spent in police custody, Plaintiff was released with a Desk Appearance Ticket.

29. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
30. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Resisting Arrest.
31. On May 6, 2022, after approximately three court appearances, the criminal case against Plaintiff was dismissed and there records thereof were sealed.
32. Two days after his release, Plaintiff sought medical care from Bronx Lebanon for his lower back pain. Plaintiff was given medication and a shot to help manage the pain.
33. Plaintiff has also spoken to his primary care physician about the emotional and psychological symptoms of his arrest. Plaintiff is unable to sleep without nightmares and is suffering from symptoms of PTSD.
34. As a result of his arrest, Plaintiff does not feel safe asking the police for assistance.
35. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
36. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
37. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
38. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
39. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

40. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

41. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
42. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

46. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
47. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

49. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.
54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

55. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
56. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tasing Plaintiff twice and multiple Defendant Officers jumping on top of Plaintiff after he was tased constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

58. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
59. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

60. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
62. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

64. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
65. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tased Plaintiff, roughly handcuffing, grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle and slamming Plaintiff's foot against the vehicle brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
66. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
69. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

70. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

71. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
72. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
73. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
74. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
75. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

77. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
78. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

80. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
82. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
83. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his injuries worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
84. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
86. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

88. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
89. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
90. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
91. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
92. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

93. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
94. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
95. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
96. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Malicious Prosecution

97. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
98. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
99. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
100. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
101. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

102. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
103. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
104. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

105. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 24 hours in total.

106. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

107. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

108. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

109. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

110. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

111. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

112. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

113. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

114. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

115. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.
116. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
117. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
