AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

26. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 25, as if more fully stated herein at length.

27. That Defendants acted with actual malice toward Plaintiff and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of the Plaintiff.

28. That as a result of the actions of Defendants, Plaintiff was seriously injured due to the intentional manner in which Defendants, their agents, servants, employees and/or licensees treated Plaintiff and he was wounded, suffered, still suffers, and will continue to suffer for some time great physical pain and great bodily injuries and became sick, sore, lame and disabled and so remained for a considerable length of time.

29. That the actions of the Defendants constituted unreasonable deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

30. That as a result of the actions by Defendants Plaintiff was traumatized and fears for his physical safety when he sees and encounters members of the New York City Police Department from that day and onward.

31. That as a result of the Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has been unable to sleep.

32. That as a result of the Defendants' actions, Plaintiff was forced to miss multiple days from work.

33. That as a result of the Defendants' actions Plaintiff sustained damage to his person in the sum within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and in excess of all inferior courts.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

34. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 33, as if more fully stated herein at length.

35. The intentional verbal abuse, false arrest, false imprisonment and maliciously prosecuted by Defendants violated the rights of Plaintiff as guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth and Eighth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the corresponding sections of the New York State Constitution, for which Defendants are individually liable.

36. Defendants having no lawful authority to arrest Plaintiff did, nevertheless, unlawfully arrest Plaintiff with actual malice toward him and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for his constitutional rights. Thus Plaintiff is entitled to both compensatory and exemplary damages.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST DEFENDANTS

37. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 36, as if more fully stated herein at length.

38. Defendants conspired to violate Plaintiff's statutory civil rights in violation of 42 U.S.C. sec.1983, et al as well as the corresponding sections of the New York State Constitution, for which Defendants are individually liable. Thus Plaintiff Plaintiff is entitled to both compensatory and exemplary damages, as well as attorney's fees.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST DEFENDANTS

39. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 38, as if more fully stated herein at length.

40. Plaintiff was verbally abused, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned and maliciously prosecuted by Defendants in a manner that was extreme, outrageous and unjustified and caused Plaintiff to suffer physical and severe emotional distress for which the Defendants are individually liable. The verbal abuse, false arrest, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution on and of Plaintiff by Defendants were unjustified and done with actual malice and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory and exemplary damages.

41. That during the pendency of the case, Defendants maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff by continuing to cooperate in a prosecution when Plaintiff should never have been arrested. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory and exemplary damages.

42. That during the pendency of the case, Defendants maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff by continuing to claim that he was in possession of a loaded weapon and marijuana when they knew he did not. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory and exemplary damages.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

43. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 42, as if more fully stated herein at length.

44. At all times pertinent hereto, MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES were acting within the scope of their employment as officers of the New York City Police Department and City of New York.

45. The City of New York and New York City Police Department are each liable for compensatory damages under the doctrine of respondeat superior for the intentional torts that MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES committed within the scope of their employment.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST DEFENDANTS

46. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 45, as if more fully stated herein at length.

47. The City of New York and New York City Police Department's failure to provide adequate training and supervision to MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES constitutes a willful and wanton indifference and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of private citizens, including Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

48. The City of New York and New York City Police Department's failure to provide adequate training and supervision to MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES caused MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES to arrest Plaintiff simply because they were annoyed by Plaintiff's actions even though they knew his conduct did not rise to criminal or unlawful behavior.

49. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that MULKEEN was the subject of two prior Civilian Complaint Review Board complaints and yet they continued to employ MULKEEN.

50. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that MULKEEN was the subject of two prior Civilian Complaint Review Board complaints and yet they continued to employ MULKEEN.

51. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that MULKEEN was the subject of a civil rights lawsuit, Speights v. The City Of New York et al, index number 15CV00800, in United States District Court, Southern District and yet they continued to employ MULKEEN.

52. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that MULKEEN was the subject of a civil rights lawsuit, Speights v. The City Of New York et al, index number 15CV00800, in United States District Court, Southern District and yet they continued to employ MULKEEN.

53. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that WICHERS was the subject of fourteen (14) prior Civilian Complaint Review Board complaints and yet they continued to employ WICHERS.

54. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that WICHERS was the subject of a civil rights lawsuit, Shawn Williams et al v. City of New York, index number 152348/2020, in Bronx Civil Supreme Court and yet they continued to employ WICHERS.

55. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that WICHERS was the subject of a civil rights lawsuit, Mohamed Jordan v. City of New York, et al., index number index number 029120/2019, in Bronx Civil Supreme Court and yet they continued to employ WICHERS.

56. That the City of New York and New York City Police Department were aware that WICHERS was the subject of a civil rights lawsuit, Bobby Cruz v. City of New York, et al., index number index number 025364/2019, in Bronx Civil Supreme Court and yet they continued to employ WICHERS.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST DEFENDANTS

57. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 56, as if more fully stated herein at length.

58. Upon information and belief, the City of New York and New York City Police Department maintained a system of review of police conduct which was so untimely and cursory that it was ineffective and permitted and tolerated the unreasonable detention of Plaintiff.

59. Upon information and belief, the City of New York and New York City Police Department maintained a system of review of police conduct which was so untimely and cursory that it was ineffective and permitted the wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of Plaintiff.

60. That as a result of the untimely and cursory review of polices conduct the City of New York and New York City Police Department fostered a system where MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES could arrest anyone who ran from police, and while not criminal, was irritating to MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES causing Plaintiff to be arrested. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

61. That as a result of the untimely and cursory review of polices conduct the City of New York and New York City Police Department fostered a system where MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES could arrest anyone without any oversight causing MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES to justify the arrest of Plaintiff.

62. That as a result of the untimely and cursory review of polices conduct the City of New York and New York City Police Department fostered a system where MULKEEN, WICHERS and DOES could arrest Plaintiff without any oversight ensuring that the City of New York and New York City would have another arrest to add to its crime statistics. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants as follows:

On the first cause of action, a sum within the jurisdiction of this Court and in excess of all inferior courts;
