27. Plaintiff did not resist arrest and complied with all lawful orders.
28. Based on information and belief, a Defendant supervisor was present on the scene and did not stop the unlawful arrest of Plaintiff.

30. After Plaintiff's arrest, at the Precinct, Plaintiff was subjected to a search of the intimate parts of their body causing embarrassment and humiliation.

36. Despite being provided such false information, on May 22, 2023, the NEW YORK County District Attorney’s Office declined to prosecute Plaintiff.
37. 38. During the assault, Defendants, BRIAN MCGINN and SANDY VARGAS, while acting in concert aiding each other, and Defendant Officers JOHN AND JANE DOE ONE THROUGH TWENTY, approached Plaintiff, grabbed him, tripped him, forced him to the - ground, pulled his arms, bent his wrists, rear cuffed him, struck him with parts of their body including their knees and hands, placed knees upon his back, placed their bodies upon him causing him to be unable to breath, while other Defendant officers watched.

39. Plaintiff was placed him in excessively tight handcuffs which Defendants refused to loosen despite repeated requests they do so.
40. After his false arrest and assault, Plaintiff was later transported from the scene via police vehicle to the 7th precinct.
41. While in the vehicle his requests for medical attention were denied.
42. Plaintiff repeatedly fainted while in custody both in the vehicle and at the precinct.
43. Plaintiff was later transported to the hospital before returning the precinct where he was issued the DAT and released.
44. Defendants' actions did cause Plaintiff to become fearful for their life and safety and did cause emotional and physical injuries to Plaintiff, the full extent of which is unknown but include: loss of consciousness/fainting; dizziness, difficulty breathing; neck pain, thigh pain, leg pain, chest pain, bleeding, injuries to his wrist, thumb, hand, back, hip, and shoulder, and nerves.
45. Some of the Defendant officers, as well as the Defendant City, knew or should have had reason to know of the assaulting officers' temperament and propensity for violence yet failed to appreciate the risk posed to the public and further failed to take adequate precautions to prevent the conduct as described herein
46. Defendants were knowingly and deliberately indifferent to the possibility that its police officers, were wont to violate the constitutional rights of arrestees as described herein.

47. Defendant Officer's placed Plaintiff in unreasonably tight handcuffs, which Plaintiff complained about, and which did cause severe injuries to Plaintiff's wrists.
48. The force used by Defendants caused Plaintiff personal, physical, and emotional injuries for which he later sought medical treatment.
49. Defendants repeatedly falsified information relating to the facts and circumstances surrounding Plaintiff's arrest.
50. During all of the events described, Defendants acted maliciously, willfully, knowingly and with the specific intent to injure Plaintiff and violate their civil rights.
51. Some of the Defendant officers who did not participate in the incident but were otherwise present and observed the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights failed to intercede on Plaintiff's behalf.
52. Plaintiff's injury was a foreseeable result of Defendant officers unlawful conduct and was the proximate cause of their injuries.
53. The City has been on notice that Defendants BRIAN MCGINN and SANDY VARGAS had a history and practice of misconduct against individuals but failed to take appropriate corrective action. Indeed, a review of their CCRB and Civil lawsuit history² shows the following: BRIAN MCGINN (9 CCRB complaints with 2 substantiated allegations including Force allegation; was a named defendant in Simmons, Evette vs City of New York, et al., 16CV01589, (SDNY 2016); was identified as an indicted co-conspirator in a police bribery scandal that was brought by the Office of the Department of Justice in

² The cited information was procured from Law Enforcement Lookup (LELU) "an extension of the Legal Aid Society's Cop Accountability Project (CAP), which empowers organizations and communities across New York City to hold police officers accountable for civil rights violations" See <https://legalaidnyc.org/law-enforcement-look-up/> and <https://www.50-a.org/officer/E29M>

SDNY³); SANDY VARGAS (3 CCRB allegations with 2 substantiated allegations, including Abuse of Authority and Discourtesy; has at least two Discipline cases: Case 2024-30371 (Failure to Timely Activate Body Worn Camera; Wrongfully Discourteous to an Individual Known to the Department); Case 2022-25415 (Failed to Make Required Entries in Department Logs).

54. The City has been on notice for more than a generation that brutality is widespread and that particular reforms need to be implemented. From reform-minded Commissioner Patrick Murphy to the Mollen Commission twenty-five years later, the City has been repeatedly cautioned that a systemic tolerance for brutality flourishes throughout the NYPD. Indeed, years before said violation was perpetrated upon Plaintiff, the Mollen Commission report noted, “This tolerance, or willful blindness, extends to supervisors as well.
55. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar conduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violent behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and the City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the Civil Rights of those who may come into contact with police officers.
56. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employee of the NYPD, and the City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, or without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, The City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

³ <https://www.nydailynews.com/2018/10/25/high-ranking-nypd-cop-cleared-of-role-in-cop-bribery-scandal/?clearUserState=true>

57. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption with the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead reward and promote these officers including those who are implicated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.
58. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article entitled Promotions, Not Punishments For Officers Accused of Lying, written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines the light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officers' misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's reluctance or to investigate or disciplines officers who lie and posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD.

The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusation relating to the officers intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

59. The NYPD has a long-standing and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article entitled 2495 Reports of Police Bias. One was deemed valid by the NYPD worried that within the last five years almost 2,500 several individuals have filed formal complaint with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with biased towards them, would not one single being substantiated by the NYPD such a finding is playing the incredible and obviously the result of a deliberately poor or non-existent investigatory protocol the report commitment to combat the prejudices and the bias is exhibited by many of their officers.
60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause
61. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the city of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reason suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.
62. Defendant's actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the right of any individuals who may come into contact with dependents, should be inferred, because such makers deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers were supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

63. Upon information and belief further details and facts relating to the unlawful policies customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers supervisors police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of Discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and the City of New York
64. Upon information and belief, the personal files, records and disciplinary histories of the officers Defendants will reveal a history of constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's, knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or poor employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendant committed similar violations in the future was extremely high.
65. Upon information and belief said personnel files records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the city, and the NYPD were fully aware Defendant passed constitutional violations, unacceptably high probability for the reoccurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as Law Enforcement Officers, or for employment in general, and not the NYPD, and the City of New York to engage in any preventative or corrective action in the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the city of tacit approval of such misconduct or the city's deliberate indifference towards civil rights of those who may interact with employees including Plaintiff.

66. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violation of their rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
