VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff TYLER GREENWOOD, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 19, 2017, at approximately 8:00 p.m., plaintiff Tyler Greenwood was lawfully present walking in the vicinity of Nostrand Avenue, between Hawthorne Avenue and Winthrop Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, falsely arrested, denied plaintiff the right to due process/ right to fair trial and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff without probable cause or any legal justification to accuse plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any manner. The defendants transported plaintiff against his will to the 71st Precinct where he was unlawfully searched, fingerprinted, photographed, interrogated, and detained in a filthy holding cell for many hours. Thereafter, the defendants denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff by initiating and continuing a criminal prosecution against him for crimes he did not commit and for which defendants lacked probable cause to accuse him of committing. The officers maliciously initiated and continued the criminal prosecution against plaintiff without probable cause by providing the District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and incomplete information about the facts that allegedly formed their basis for arresting and prosecuting plaintiff. All criminal charges were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on October 20, 2017. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, arrested, imprisoned, assaulted, battered, subjected her to the use of excessive force, denied him the right to due process/ right to a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

43. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

45. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

48. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 47 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

49. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

50. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

51. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

52. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

53. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

56. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

58. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

59. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

61. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

64. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

66. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

67. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff June Mabry, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

68. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

72. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 71 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.

74. Plaintiff's physical injuries caused when she fell over in the van being transported to the precinct were caused defendants breached that duty of care by causing plaintiff to suffer physical injuries as a result of defendants careless, reckless, negligent, and/or accidental behavior by improperly securing plaintiff in the van.

75. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

76. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by plaintiff.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

80. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 79 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

82. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

83. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of her safety, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

JURY DEMAND

85. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Tyler Greenwood demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
