VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Malik Williams, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On December 11, 2020, at approximately 8:30 p.m., Plaintiff Malik Williams, while lawfully in the vicinity of the northwest corner of Junius Street and Sutter Ave, County of Kings, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Malik Williams is a resident of the state of New York.
3. New York City Police Officer Abir Noor, Shield No. 21625, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
4. New York City Police Officer Abir Noor, Shield No. 21625, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Abir Noor, Shield No. 21625 was assigned to the 60th Police Precinct of the NYPD.
6. New York City Police Officers John Does Numbers One through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. New York City Police Officers John Does Numbers One through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on January 17, 2022.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On December 11, 2020, at approximately 8:30 p.m., Plaintiff was a passenger in his girlfriend's vehicle in the vicinity of the northwest corner of Junius Street and Sutter Ave, County of Kings, State of New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully detained and arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
16. Plaintiff was in the vehicle with his girlfriend and other female friends.
17. Defendant officers stopped the vehicle and approached with guns drawn.
18. Defendant officers asked for licence and registration and Plaintiff's girlfriend handed Defendant officers the documents.
19. Defendant officers ordered everyone to get out of the vehicle.
20. Defendant officers checked everyone's identification cards and put everyone back in the vehicle.
21. Defendant officers returned with guns drawn and told Plaintiff to exit the vehicle.
22. Plaintiff attempted to exit the vehicle but Defendant officers grabbed his leg and dragged him out.
23. Plaintiff grabbed the door to keep from falling face first to the ground.
24. Plaintiff screamed that he was not resisting and was exiting the vehicle.
25. Defendant officer tased Plaintiff twice.
26. One tazer got caught in Plaintiff's hoodie.
27. The other tazer hit Plaintiff's side and Plaintiff drops to the floor face down.
28. Defendant officers punched and kicked Plaintiff.
29. Defendant officers took Plaintiff's sneakers off and threw them across the street.
30. Defendant officers hit Plaintiff with a baton multiple times on his legs and back.
31. Plaintiff lost consciousness from the beating.
32. Plaintiff woke up with his hands handcuffed behind his back, feet cuffed, and laying face-down in the back of a long 8-seater-type van.
33. Plaintiff suffered scrapes and bruises all over his body.
34. Plaintiff bled from his mouth and nose.

35. Plaintiff did not receive any medical care at the scene.
36. Defendant officers transported Plaintiff to Police Service Area 2.
37. Defendant officers dragged Plaintiff into the Police Service Area 2 with his hands and feet cuffed.
38. Defendant officers told Plaintiff to “stop being such a little bitch” and that he was “acting like a girl” when he requested medical attention.
39. Plaintiff refused to be transferred before receiving medical care.
40. Plaintiff remained at Police Service Area 2, handcuffed, laying with his stomach on the floor, for two hours while waiting for an ambulance.
41. Paramedics struggled to remove Plaintiff’s handcuffs because of how tightly they were placed around Plaintiff’s wrists.
42. Plaintiff was transported to Brookdale Hospital for medical treatment.
43. Defendant officers transported Plaintiff back to Police Service Area 2, where he remained for two hours before being transferred to Central Booking.
44. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney’s Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
45. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney’s Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Possession of a Controlled Substance.
46. Plaintiff appeared before a Judge and was released on his own recognicence.
47. On November 17, 2021, Plaintiff’s case was ordered to be dismissed and sealed.
48. As a result of injuries suffered during the arrest, Plaintiff has experienced reoccurring problems with his right arm, occasional back pain, and a limp resulting from painful ankles.
49. Plaintiff has also suffered emotional distress due to the arrest. Plaintiff suffers from anxiety and insomnia.
50. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

51. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
52. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
53. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
54. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

55. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
56. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
57. Defendant Officer's breached that duty of care by deliberately restraining and injuring Plaintiff.
58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendant officers deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
59. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
60. Defendants officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

63. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
64. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
65. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
66. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

69. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
70. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

72. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
73. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
76. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

78. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
79. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
80. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
81. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
82. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
83. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
84. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

85. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
86. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

88. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
89. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
90. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
91. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his property was damaged, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
92. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
93. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
94. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
95. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

96. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
97. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
98. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
99. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
100. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
101. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
102. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
103. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
104. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Malicious Prosecution

105. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
106. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
107. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

108. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
109. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

110. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
111. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tasing Plaintiff multiple times, cuasing him to fall the ground face first, lose consciousness, and suffer other injuries, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
112. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

113. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
114. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.
115. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
116. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
117. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

118. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

119. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
120. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tased Plaintiff multiple times, causing him to fall the ground, fracture his spine, lose consciousness and suffer other injuries, thereby brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
121. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
122. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
123. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
124. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

125. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and, re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
126. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and

v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

127. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

128. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

129. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

130. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

131. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Malik Williams demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
