Plaintiff RUBEN RIVERA, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully imprisoned by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable confinement of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. RUBEN RIVERA is a citizen of the United States and a resident of KINGS, New York.
3. POLICE OFFICER ABIR H. NOOR (Shield #21625) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER ABIR H. NOOR (Shield #21625) is being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-12 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John Doe #2-12 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(h) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on October 21, 2019.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On August 9, 2019 at around 9:30pm Mr. Rivera was outside with friends when police unlawfully stopped and searched him. Mr. Rivera was unlawfully imprisoned and charged by summons with disorderly conduct.
15. An unmarked car with tinted windows drove up and a person came out. The person was not in uniform and did not announce himself as a police officer. Ruben got scared and ran. He thought he was getting robbed. This belief was corroborated by the man chasing him saying, "when I catch you I am going to beat you up." Ruben was never charged with resisting arrest, OGA, assault, harassment, menacing.
16. The police officers committed vehicular assault. One police officer who was either Asian or Hispanic ran his police car into Plaintiff. Ruben was on the sidewalk in a driveway. The cop car actually pulled up onto the sidewalk and into the driveway and hit him. The gate stopped him from flying from the impact. The car was going fast and swerved into him. It was a quick impact, not like a steady moving forward motion to get him to be trapped. The police car colliding into his body caused him to fall and his leg got stuck under the car. It was painful. It bruised. He had trouble walking on it for a month. The police car also almost hit a girl. Her dad yelled "you almost hit my daughter".
17. The officers were very rough with him while taking him into custody by handcuffing him too tight and throwing him into the police car.
18. Upon arrival at the precinct Ruben was asking the police why he was being arrested because he committed no crime prior to the police approach. The officer refused to give him an explanation and said things like "shut the fuck up". While repeatedly questioning why he was being put into a cell, the Middle Eastern or Indian officer choked him. After being put in the choke hold, multiple officers (same as the one's on the scene plus others) came and threw him on the ground "mushed" his face and used their bodies to flatten his body against the ground. The officers threatened to tase him. This whole episode took place inside the precinct while Ruben was handcuffed. Ruben is 5'6 and was appx 135-140lbs.
19. During his time in custody he was put in an interrogation room and asked if he knows "gansta rappers" and offered $1500 for any gun he could bring them. Ruben had no information to share.
20. Immediately upon release from the precinct in the middle of the night Ruben went to Brookdale Hospital. He was scared that something was seriously wrong with his leg and he wanted to talk to someone "safe". Brookdale Medical records are full of references by Ruben to the vehicular assault and injuries from the choke hold. The photos of his neck and clavicle bone show strangle marks and scratches. The medical records from Brookdale Hospital corroborate this injury and it's bodily location calling the marks "excoriations."

21. The case was dismissed and sealed on September 26, 2019.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

ASSAULT

22. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 21 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
23. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that he had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff. Defendant was assaulted by numerous officers.
24. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
25. The City, as the employer of defendants is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

BATTERY

26. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 25 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
27. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery. Plaintiff was assaulted by numerous officers.
28. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

29. The City, as the employer of Defendants is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

30. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 29 as if fully set forth herein.
31. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
32. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
33. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

34. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
35. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
36. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused him a serious deprivation of liberty as a result. Case was dismissed.
37. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.
38. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
39. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate his state constitutional and tort rights.
40. The criminal case was dismissed and sealed.

41. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

42. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
43. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

44. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 43 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
45. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
46. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
47. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon his person over the course of the false arrest.
48. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
49. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
52. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of his liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.
53. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
54. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

56. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 55 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
57. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
58. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
59. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondent behavior.

NINTH & TENTH & ELEVENTH CAUSES OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal false-arrest/excessive-force/unlawful-search claims (9th claim), malicious-prosecution claim (10th claim), and deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (11th claim).

60. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 59 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

61. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
62. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
63. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of his Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
64. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, use of undue force upon him, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated his Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of his person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
65. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
66. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of his 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, he also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

67. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
68. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
69. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
70. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline,

71. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
72. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
73. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
74. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.
