Plaintiffs, by their attorney, NORA CONSTANCE MARINO, ESQ. complaining of the Defendants herein, respectfully show this Court, and allege as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the Plaintiff RUDOLPH COLLINS
("COLLINS") was and still is a resident of the County of Queens, State of New York.

2. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK ("CITY") was and still is a municipal corporation, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the law of the State of New York.

3. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT ("NYPD") was and still is a municipal corporation and/or municipal police department, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the law of the State of New York.

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned defendant P.O. KUMAR ("KUMAR") was an agent, servant, and/or employee of defendants City and NYPD; was a member of the NYPD; and was acting for, upon, and in course of and in furtherance of the business of his employers and within the scope of his employment for defendants City and NYPD.

5. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendants John Does 1-10, names being fictitious as names are unknown at this time, were agents, servants, and/or employees of defendants City and NYPD; were members of the NYPD; and were acting for, upon, and in course of and in furtherance of the business of their employers and within the scope of their employment for defendants City and NYPD.

6. That all times hereinafter mentioned defendants City and NYPD employed police officers and jailors and others hereafter mentioned in this complaint.

7. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendants City and NYPD owned, maintained, supervised, managed, operated, inspected and controlled the various jails, police, facilities, police stations, police precincts, police equipment, police vehicles, all hereinafter mentioned in the complaint.

8. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, all of the actions of the officers allege herein were done within the scope and course of their employment with defendants City and NYPD and under color of the state law.

9. That prior to the commencement of this action, and within ninety (90) days after the happening of the incident herein, plaintiff herein served a Notice of Claim in writing upon the defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

10. That a 50-H hearing was held for each claimant.

11. That this action is commenced within one (1) year and ninety (90) days of the date when the incident occurred to the plaintiff.

FACTS

12. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege all of the allegations set forth above.

13. On August 30, 2017, at approximately between 9:30 a.m., claimant, while lawfully and peacefully, after parking his vehicle in front of the deli and grocery located at 10-03 Tenth Street, Long Island City, New York, had exited his vehicle and was intending to enter the deli and grocery to purchase a coffee when, having only taken a few steps, was approached by two NYPD police officers, one of them being Officer Kumar, the other one name unknown at this time. The officers instructed claimant to "go back to [his] car"; claimant complied. Within a matter of just a few minutes, more officers arrive, totaling up to approximately fifteen or more officers. Claimant was handcuffed, tackled, and physically assaulted without provocation, probable cause, reasonable suspicion, or any reason whatsoever.

14. After illegally detaining the claimant for approximately fifteen minutes on the street, claimant was taken by way of a police vehicle to the 114th Precinct. He was detained at the precinct for approximately four hours; maybe more. Defendants finally released the plaintiff; he was only given a summons for failure to wear a seatbelt and failure to obey a police officer, without any further explanation.

15. That plaintiff did not violate any law, rule, or regulation, or acted in any way that would justify said actions, arrest, or detention.

16. That defendants KUMAR and/or JOHN DOES arrested plaintiff for no reason.

17. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without probable cause.

18. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without reasonable suspicion.

19. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without cause of any sort.

20. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension and detention were carried out without any justifiable reason whatsoever.

21. That at all relevant times, defendants acted forcibly in detaining plaintiff.

22. That by reason of the foregoing, plaintiff suffered damages.

23. Defendants used excessive force, handcuffed, deprived plaintiffs of his liberty, freedom, and constitutional rights, despite the fact that plaintiff had not committed a crime or violation.

24. That despite the fact that defendants knew that there was no probable cause to believe that plaintiff committed any crime, one or more than one of the defendants authorized and approved the formal arrest of the plaintiff.

25. That the defendant officers arrested plaintiff despite the fact that they knew that the no crimes or violations were committed and that there was no probable cause or justification for such an arrest and/or detention.

26. That at all times, the officers acted within the scope of their employment of defendants City and NYPD and under the authority of color of state law as police officers.

27. Although the defendants knew that detaining and arresting plaintiff when they had no right to do so, in violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights, the defendants processed plaintiff generating misleading and false accusatory instruments in order to lay charges against plaintiffs even though defendants knew or had reason to know that they were making an illegal arrest.

28. That said arrest constituted a false arrest and false imprisonment and deprived plaintiff of his personal freedom and civil rights, and led to a malicious prosecution.

29. That defendants, their officers, agents, servants and/or employees were responsible for plaintiffs' arrest, assault and detention during this period of time.

30. That at all times mentioned the unlawful, wrongful and false arrest of plaintiffs was without right and without probable or reasonable cause.

31. That the defendants acted with a knowing, willful, wanton, malicious, gross, reckless, unlawful, unreasonable and flagrant disregard of plaintiffs' rights, privileges, welfare and well-being and were guilty of egregious and gross misconduct towards them.

32. That all of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation of the part of the plaintiff.

33. The direct and proximate results of the defendants' acts are that plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent injuries of a physical and psychological nature.

34. That defendant violated plaintiff's first, fourth, fifth, and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution and the New York State Constitution, and New York State law.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
FALSE ARREST

35. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

36. Defendants used excessive force, assaulted, punched, kicked, handcuffed, threatened, and deprived plaintiffs of his liberty, freedom, and constitutional rights, despite the fact that plaintiff had not committed a crime or violation.

37. That the defendant officers arrested plaintiff despite the fact that they knew that the no crimes or violations were committed and that there was no probable cause or justification for such an arrest and/or detention and/or videotaping.

38. That at all times, the officers acted within the scope of their employment of defendants NYPD and under the authority of color of state law as police officers.

39. The aforescribed constitutional violations are all actionable under and pursuant to New York State Law, the New York State and Federal Constitution.

40. Although the defendants knew that detaining and arresting plaintiffs when they had no right to do so, in violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights, the defendants criminally processed the plaintiff, generating misleading and false accusatory instruments in order to lay charges against plaintiff, even though defendants knew or had reason to know that they were making an illegal arrest.

41. The direct and proximate results of the defendants' acts are that plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent injuries of a physical and psychological nature.

MONELL CLAIM PURSUANT TO 42 U.S.C § 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986
AND RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR

45. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained herein as if fully set forth at length herein.

46. All of the acts and omissions by the individual defendants, described above were carried out pursuant to overlapping policies and practices of the NYPD which were in existence at the time of the conduct alleged herein and were engaged in with the full knowledge, consent and cooperation and under the supervisory authority of defendant NYPD.

47. Defendant NYPD, by their policy-making agents, servants and employees, authorized sanctioned and/or ratified the individual Defendants' wrongful acts and/or failed to prevent or stop those acts and/or allowed those acts to continue.

48. Defendants detained, arrested, assaulted, battered, and victimized plaintiff in the absence of any evidence of probable cause or reasonableness to do so, notwithstanding their knowledge that said assault and battery would jeopardize Plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety and constitutional rights.

49. Defendant NYPD has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of use of reasonable detention and/or arrest.

50. The direct and proximate results of the defendants' acts are that plaintiff suffered severe and permanent injuries of a physical and psychological nature.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
MUNICIPAL AND/OR GOVERNMENTAL LIABILITY

51. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

52. That defendant NYPD, its employees, agents and/or servants, failed to take any necessary steps to prevent this occurrence; failed to properly train its employees, agents and/or servants in arrest procedures; failed to control and supervise its employees, agents and/or servants; failed to prevent the aforesaid detention, incarceration, violation of constitutional rights, and permanent psychological injuries to the plaintiffs; and were otherwise reckless, careless, and negligent.

53. That as a result of the above referenced negligence; Plaintiffs were caused to sustain damages and their constitutional rights were violated.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
EXCESSIVE FORCE

54. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

56. As a direct and proximate result of the unlawful excessive force used against plaintiff by defendants deprived plaintiff of his Constitutional rights in violation of the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution and are liable to Plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

57. Defendant officers used excessive force against plaintiff with knowledge that plaintiff did not commit a crime and that the arrest and force used to effectuate the arrest was excessive, unnecessary and without cause or grounds therefore.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

58. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

59. That one of or more than one of the defendant officers prepared formal accusatory instruments, with the knowledge that no crime or violation had occurred.

60. That one of or more than one of the defendant officers prepared and filed charges against plaintiffs with malice and the intent of depriving plaintiff of his liberty and right to not have their person seized knowing they had no cause or grounds to do so.

61. That one of or more than one of the Defendant officers prepared and filed these charges against Plaintiffs with the intent to deprive Plaintiffs of their constitutional rights.

62. That defendant NYPD, its employees, agents and/or servants, failed to take any necessary steps to prevent this occurrence; failed to properly train its employees, agents and/or servants in arrest procedures; failed to control and supervise its employees, agents and/or servants; failed to prevent the aforesaid pain and suffering, defamation, incarceration and permanent psychological injuries to the plaintiffs; and were otherwise reckless, careless and negligent.
