Plaintiff, by his attorney, CHRISTOPHER H. FITZGERALD, Esq., complaining of the Defendants, respectfully alleges the following:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff DARRYL LYNCH brings this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages, and attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and all attendant New York state common law and statutes, for violations of his civil rights, as said rights are secured by said statutes and the Constitutions of the State of New York and the United States.

2. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK was a Municipal corporation duly existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York and doing business in the State of New York.

3. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant BRANDON GONZALEZ was an employee of the New York City Police Department, acting in his capacity as a police officer, and under color of law.

4. That all acts and incidents complained of herein occurred in the County, City, and State of New York.

5. That heretofore, and on/or about April 3, 2017, and within 90 days after the state law claim of Malicious Prosecution accrued, plaintiff served a Notice of Claim, in writing, sworn by the claimant, containing the name and post office address of the plaintiff and plaintiff's attorney, the nature of the claim, the time when, the place where and the manner by which the claim arose, the items of damage and the injuries claimed to have been sustained, to be served upon the defendants by delivering a copy thereof to the person designated by law as a person to whom such claims may be served.

6. That plaintiff appeared for a hearing pursuant to §50-H of the General Municipal Law on or about July 6, 2017.

7. That the defendants have refused and neglected to adjust, settle and pay the same.

8. That this claim has been commenced and this action has been started within one year and ninety days after the accrual of the state law violation upon which the claim is based.

9. That all conditions and requirements precedent to the commencement of this action have been complied with.

10. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(2)(iv), defendants are jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that defendants owed the plaintiff a non-delegable duty of care.

11. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(7), defendants are jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that defendants acted with reckless disregard of the safety of others.

12. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(2)(iv), defendants are jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that defendants are vicariously liable for the negligent acts and omissions of others who caused or contributed to the plaintiff's damages.

13. That by reason of the foregoing, this plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which exceeds the monetary jurisdictional limits of any and all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction herein, in an amount to be determined upon the trial of this action.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On July 20, 2016, at approximately 2:20am, plaintiff DARRYL LYNCH was lawfully operating his motor vehicle on Third Avenue across from 2075 3rd Avenue in the County, City and State of New York.

15. On the time and date in question, claimant was pulled over by DEFENDANT POLICE OFFICER BRANDON GONZALEZ ("GONZALEZ"), Shield No. 24845.

16. DEFENDANT GONZALEZ announced that the stop was purportedly for failing to signal a lane change.

17. DEFENDANT GONZALEZ accused claimant of drinking alcohol, and then of possessing marijuana.

18. With this pretext, DEFENDANT GONZALEZ and several other officers of the NYPD searched the claimants vehicle including the glove compartment, trunk, center console, and plaintiff's book bag.

19. Plaintiff was arrested at the scene and taken to the 25th Precinct in handcuffs.

20. While at the 25th Precinct, plaintiff was subject to a strip search.

21. This strip search was gratuitous and humiliating to plaintiff, and yielded no evidence of criminal activity.

22. Plaintiff was thereafter taken to Central Booking in downtown Manhattan.

23. While at Central Booking, plaintiff was informed that DEFENDANT

GONZALEZ purportedly found methamphetamine in claimants vehicle. This was a fabrication by Gonzalez. At no time did claimant ever possess any amount of methamphetamine.

24. Plaintiff never possessed any amount of methamphetamine at any time, and this allegation was a fabrication by GONZALEZ.

25. Plaintiff was charged under Docket No. 2016NY043863 with, inter alia, PL §220.03, criminal possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree,

26. These charges against plaintiff was based entirely on the false allegations and fabrications by DEFENDANT GONZALEZ that he had recovered methamphetamine in plaintiff's vehicle.

27. All criminal charges against plaintiff was dismissed on January 10, 2017.

28. Plaintiff was acting lawfully when he was stopped, arrested and imprisoned by agents and/or employees of the City of New York, including, but not limited to, upon information and belief, agents employed by the New York City Police Department, and/or the 25rd Precinct and PSA 5.

29. Claimant was then maliciously prosecuted by and at the direction of the said individuals.

30. None of the aforementioned acts are or were protected by legal privilege, nor were such acts legally justified.

31. Said occurrence and the injuries and damages sustained by claimants were due solely to the negligence, carelessness, recklessness and willful misconduct of the CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees.

32. As a result of the defendants' conduct, plaintiff has been caused to suffer, inter alia, severe anxiety, humiliation, and embarrassment, damage to personal reputation, apprehension, fear and distrust of the police, emotional and psychological trauma, and violation of rights under the U.S. and New York Constitutions, and applicable statutory and case law.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
NEGLIGENCE

33. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
34. Defendants negligently caused emotional distress, psychological harm, physical injuries, and damage to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury to the plaintiff and violated their statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the state of New York.
35. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, psychological and emotional injuries, violation of their civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, and humiliation.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, and TRAINING

36. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
37. THE CITY OF NEW YORK and THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT ("NYPD") has a duty to use reasonable care in the employment, training and supervision of its employees.
38. This includes a duty to investigate and find out whether employees are competent to do work without danger of harm to others.
39. The CITY OF NEW YORK knew or should have known that defendants GONZALEZ and JOHN DOES 1-2 and other unidentified officers of the NYPD present on the scene were incompetent, have a vicious propensity, and/or have a bad disposition.

40. The CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD could have easily anticipated the incident of July 20, 2016

41. The CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD failed to adequately investigate and correct the disposition and propensity of defendants GONZALEZ AND JOHN DOES 1-2 and other unidentified officers of the NYPD present on the scene.

42. Because of this history, the incident of July 20, 2016 was a foreseeable consequence of NYPD'S failure to adequately train, reprimand, or re-assign defendants.

43. Because of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD's failure to take appropriate action, plaintiff have suffered the injuries claimed herein.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
DEPRIVATION OF FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS UNDER 42 U.S.C. §1983

44. Plaintiff repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

45. At the time of plaintiff's arrest, there was no credible evidence that plaintiff had committed a crime.

46. All of the aforementioned acts of the Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, and the individual defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.

47. All of the aforementioned acts deprived Plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. §1983.

48. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants and other unidentified officers of the NYPD present on the scene, in their capacities as police officers, with all of the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

49. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to their customs, usages, practices, procedures, and the rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, all under supervision of ranking officers of said department.

50. The individual defendants, and defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in Constitutionally violative conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure, or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

51. As a result of the above constitutionally impermissible conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer psychological and emotional injuries, violation of his civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, and damage to his reputation and his standing within his community.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
FALSE ARREST UNDER 42 U.S.C. §1983

52. Plaintiff repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

53. plaintiff was arrested in the absence of probable cause, at the direction of, or under practices, policies or customs promulgated by the NEW YORK POLICE DEPARTMENT and CITY OF NEW YORK.

54. As a result of the aforesaid conduct by defendants, plaintiff was subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest by the defendants and taken into custody and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained and confined without any probable cause, privilege or consent.
55. As a result of the above constitutionally impermissible conduct, plaintiff was caused to suffer psychological and emotional injuries, violation of their civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, and damage to their reputation and their standing within their community.
56. As a result of defendants' impermissible conduct, plaintiff demand judgment against defendants in a sum of money to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER STATE and FEDERAL LAW

57. Plaintiff repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
58. At the aforementioned times and locations, was detained and held under the imprisonment and control of the defendants and other unidentified officers of the NYPD present on the scene without probable cause.
59. Defendants commenced the criminal action against plaintiff in the absence of any probable cause that a crime had been committed.
60. Defendants commenced this criminal action out of malice.
61. The criminal action against plaintiff have terminated in his favor.

62. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, said arrest, confinement and restraint of liberty was not otherwise privileged.
63. That plaintiff was conscious of the confinement.
64. That as a direct, sole and proximate result of the false arrest, imprisonment, and malicious prosecution, plaintiff was caused to and did sustain humiliation and embarrassment, emotional and mental distress, moral and mental degradation, indignity and disgrace, injury to personal reputation, inconvenience, and the disturbance and disruption of life.
65. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to the plaintiff and violated his statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the law of the Constitutions of the State of New York and of the United States.
66. As a result of the above constitutionally impermissible conduct, plaintiff was caused to suffer psychological and emotional injuries, violation of their civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, and damage to their reputation and his standing within their community.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands the following relief jointly and severally against all of the defendants:

- a. Compensatory damages;
- b. Punitive damages;
- c. The convening and empaneling of a jury to consider the merits of the claims herein;
- d. Costs and interest and attorney's fees;
- e. Such other and further relief as this court may deem appropriate and equitable.
