Case Summary

On April 1, 2022, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with IAB. It was received at the CCRB on April 11, 2022.

On April 1, 2022, at approximately 2:05 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was stopped in the vicinity of 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx by PO Daniel Demarco of the 46th Precinct (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, within NYPD guidelines). Lieutenant Rafael Tosado of the 46th Precinct accompanied PO Demarco as PO Demarco frisked and searched § 87(2)(b) (Allegations B and C: Abuse of Authority, within NYPD guidelines). PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and PO Demarco recovered a lighter that looked like a gun from § 87(2)(b) left pocket as well as a loaded gun from § 87(2)(b) front waistband. In the process of searching § 87(2)(b) PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado allegedly raised § 87(2)(b) arms behind his back, allegedly put him on the ground onto his stomach, and then allegedly turned him onto his hands which were handcuffed (Allegations D and E: Force, within NYPD guidelines).

PO Michael Phipps of the 46th Precinct arrived on scene with numerous back up officers from the 46th Precinct. PO Phipps assisted in escorting § 87(2)(b) to the 46th Precinct stationhouse from the location, and then later escorted § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) Hospital where he was treated for a dislocated thumb which was allegedly dislocated during the incident at an unknown point in time by an unknown officer (Allegation F: Force, officer unidentified). At the arrest location, at the 46th Precinct stationhouse, and en route to § 87(2)(b) Hospital, PO Phipps used various iterations of the words “fuck” and “shit” on multiple occasions as well as one instance of the word “pussy” in § 87(2)(b) presence (Allegations G and H: Discourtesy, substantiated, Allegation I: Offensive Language, substantiated, and Allegation J: Discourtesy, substantiated).

§ 87(2)(b) was arrested for criminal possession of a loaded firearm [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(a)]

The investigation obtained 12 body-worn camera videos from officers from the 46th Precinct (BR 02: videos, BR 03, BR 04, BR 05, BR 06, BR 07, BR 08, BR 09, BR 10, BR 11, and BR 12: summaries).

There was a four month delay in closing this case due to a request from the District Attorney's Office to postpone officer interviews until after a suppression hearing.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Police Officer Daniel Demarco stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Police Officer Daniel Demarco frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Police Officer Daniel Demarco searched § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Force: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Police Officer Daniel Demarco used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (E) Force: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Lieutenant Rafael Tosado used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Force: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, an officer used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated (BR 13) that PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado pulled up next to him in a black Chevrolet Impala and stopped him. Within 20 to 30 seconds, PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado exited the vehicle, immediately put § 87(2)(b) into handcuffs and searched him. PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado lifted § 87(2)(b) arms behind him which caused pain. PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado put § 87(2)(b) on the sidewalk on his stomach. PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado continued searching § 87(2)(b) groin area and then turned § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) onto his back on top of the handcuffs which were too tight. PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado stated that they allegedly “found a gun.”

Approximately 10 additional officers arrived within two to three minutes. § 87(2)(b) asked the officers to take phone numbers from his cellphone to call someone. § 87(2)(b) felt that the officers thought he was taking too long to get up because the 12 officers subsequently raised § 87(2)(b) into the air as if he was crowd surfing. § 87(2)(b) was then transported to the 46th Precinct stationhouse, realized that his thumb was injured, and was subsequently transported to § 87(2)(b) Hospital where he learned that his thumb was dislocated. § 87(2)(b) did not know at which moment his thumb dislocated.

Lieutenant Tosado stated (BR 14) that he and PO Demarco observed § 87(2)(b) walking on the sidewalk at a fast pace looking around. Lieutenant Tosado and PO Demarco approached § 87(2)(b) because they believed he was in possession of a firearm. § 87(2)(b) left pocket of his denim jacket appeared to be very heavy and based on Lieutenant Tosado’s training and experience he believed it to be the shape of an L-shaped firearm and he could see that the outline of the handle was toward the entrance of § 87(2)(b) pocket. § 87(2)(b) had walked by a bodega which had lights on it that made the lighting conditions well enough to see the outline.

Lieutenant Tosado could not remember what if any conversation he had with PO Demarco regarding stopping § 87(2)(b) and did not remember whose idea it was to stop § 87(2)(b). Besides the belief that § 87(2)(b) had a firearm, there was no other reason for stopping § 87(2)(b). PO Demarco said hello to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) approached the police vehicle and stated he was just drinking, had a little marijuana on him, and was trying to go home. PO Demarco flashed his flashlight at § 87(2)(b) left pocket and § 87(2)(b) looked down at the pocket. § 87(2)(b) then continued walking.

The remainder of Lieutenant Tosado’s statement is consistent with PO Demarco’s body-worn camera (BR 15: video, BR 04: summary) which shows at 00:21 seconds that PO Demarco is in the passenger seat of the police vehicle when § 87(2)(b) approaches the passenger window. At 00:33 seconds, PO Demarco shines a flashlight at § 87(2)(b). At 1:00 minute, PO Demarco exits the vehicle and says, “Mind if I just check you out real quick?” and § 87(2)(b) says, “Yeah you good.” PO Demarco says, “You got anything on you?” and § 87(2)(b) says, “No I don’t got nothing on me, I got a gun that looks like a lighter.” § 87(2)(b) turns away from PO Demarco, bends over at the waist, and says, “Let me put my shit down.” At 1:18 minutes § 87(2)(b) pulls his phone out of his waist and places it on the ground. § 87(2)(b) then gets on the ground and rolls onto his stomach. Lieutenant Tosado says, “Don’t do that.” Lieutenant Tosado explained (BR 14) that it appeared that § 87(2)(b) was attempting to conceal something that was in his front waistband based on him bending at the waist and getting onto the ground without being asked to.

At 1:25 minutes, PO Demarco continues to search § 87(2)(b) left jacket pocket and then at 1:44 minutes, tells § 87(2)(b) he is placing him in handcuffs. Lieutenant Tosado (BR 14) explained that PO Demarco had felt the handle of the object that was inside § 87(2)(b) left pocket. At 1:47 minutes, Lieutenant Tosado grabs § 87(2)(b) right forearm and PO Demarco places the handcuff on the right wrist and then places the other cuff on the left wrist without incident. PO Demarco continues searching § 87(2)(b) left pocket and pulls out a lighter that looks like a small gun. PO Demarco says, “That’s a lighter?” and § 87(2)(b) says, “I said I got a lighter that looks like a gun.” PO Demarco says, “Listen that’s why I put you in cuffs.” Lieutenant Tosado says, “Check him for everything else, why did you get on the ground” and instructs PO Demarco to turn § 87(2)(b) onto his side. PO Demarco continues to frisk § 87(2)(b) pockets and waist. PO Demarco attempts to turn § 87(2)(b) over and § 87(2)(b) struggles to remain on his stomach as if to prevent PO Demarco from frisking the front of his waistband.

At 5:05 minutes, after several minutes of § 87(2)(b) twisting his body and preventing PO Demarco from getting to his front waistband, PO Demarco pulls a gun out of § 87(2)(b) pants. At 6:11 minutes, PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado help § 87(2)(b) up and additional officers arrive on scene. PO Demarco or Lieutenant Tosado never place § 87(2)(b) onto his back.

PO Phipps body-worn camera footage (BR 16: video, BR 09: summary) shows at 2:30 minutes, § 87(2)(b) is asking officers for a pen and suddenly sits down on his own and says, "Y'all got to pick me up now." At 4:05 minutes, five officers pick § 87(2)(b) up off the ground and he kicks PO Daley and PO Minter who are holding his legs. § 87(2)(b) is set down and he walks to the police vehicle where he is transported to the 46th Precinct stationhouse. At 18:07 minutes, while § 87(2)(b) is in front of the desk § 87(2)(b) says, "I really think I do need medical attention too though I'm not going to lie to you this nigga really slammed me on the floor my fucking hand is hurting [...] This nigga just slammed me on the floor, tussling with him a little bit, nigga threw me on the floor, my shit hurting bro, I feel like my shit broken." At 28:00 minutes, Emergency Medical Services arrives, and at 42:57 minutes, as § 87(2)(b) is getting into the ambulance, he states, "Y'all might have been too rough bro if you're arresting me and I gotta go to the hospital for a broken hand." § 87(2)(b) is then transported to § 87(2)(b) Hospital.

§ 87(2)(a) – PHL 18(6)

The Threat, Injury, and Resistance report (BR 18) entered by Captain Odelle Despot of the 46th Precinct, stated that PO Demarco observed § 87(2)(b) with an object in his left pocket that was L-shaped, similar to the grip of a firearm. As officers approached § 87(2)(b) began to blade his body and attempt to conceal his waistband from being searched while subsequently throwing himself to the ground stomach first. § 87(2)(b) continued to roll on his stomach moving his body so PO Demarco could not reach his front waistband. PO Demarco finally gained access to § 87(2)(b) front waistband and recovered a loaded firearm. § 87(2)(b) was arrested and then at the 46th Precinct stationhouse desk made statements that officers threw him to the ground and that he had pain in his left hand. § 87(2)(b) was removed to § 87(2)(b) Hospital by EMS § 87(2)(b). Captain Despot visited the hospital as § 87(2)(b) thumb was being manipulated back into its normal position by hospital staff and § 87(2)(b) stated he was rolling around during the incident. Upon reviewing the body-worn camera footage, Captain Despot noted that the hand injury could have been pre-existing, and that § 87(2)(b) was actively resisting by tensing up and forcibly twisting his body with his hands up to avoid being frisked so that the firearm would not be discovered.

In People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (1976) (BR 19), the court found that where a police officer entertains a reasonable suspicion that a particular person has committed, is committing or is about to commit a felony or misdemeanor, the CPL authorizes a forcible stop and detention of that person. A corollary of the statutory right to temporarily detain for questioning is the authority to frisk if the officer reasonably suspects that he is in danger of physical injury by virtue of the detainee being armed.

In People v. Wright, 253 A.D.2d 720 (1998) (BR 20), the defendant was seen by one of the arresting officers with his pants pocket weighted down by an "L-shaped" object, which the arresting officer believed to be the outline of a gun. The arresting officer's observation provided reasonable suspicion to believe that defendant was armed and dangerous and justified the officer's brief question and minimally intrusive pat down of defendant's pants pocket.

In People v. Sanchez, 38 N.Y.2d 72 (1975) (BR 21), the court found that an officer can conduct a limited search of an area if they feel a hard object and can provide an articulable reason to believe that said object poses a dangerous threat.

New York State Penal Law § 265.01 (BR 22) states that possession of an imitation pistol is a class A misdemeanor.

NYPD Patrol Guide procedure 221-01 (BR 23) states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of service. Any application of force must be reasonable under the circumstance and the following should be considered in determining whether it is reasonable: The nature and severity of the crime/circumstance, actions taken by the subject, duration of the action, immediacy of perceived threat or harm to the subject, MOS, or bystanders, whether the subject is actively resisting custody, whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight, number of subjects in comparison to number of MOS, size, age, and condition of subject compared to that of the MOS, subject's violent history, presence of hostile crowd or agitators, and whether the subject is apparently under the influence of stimulants/narcotics.

§ 87(2)(g) it was undisputed that a lighter that looked like and was shaped like a handgun was found inside of § 87(2)(b) pocket and § 87(2)(g) body-worn camera footage showed that § 87(2)(b) approached the officers, and came close enough to PO Demarco for him to shine his flashlight at § 87(2)(b) pocket § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation A be closed as within NYPD guidelines.

§ 87(2)(g) immediately informed PO Demarco on body-worn camera that he had "a gun that looks like a lighter," § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegations B and C be closed as within NYPD guidelines.

§ 87(2)(g) PO Demarco's body-worn camera footage showed that § 87(2)(b) put himself on the ground voluntarily, that § 87(2)(b) arms were never pulled up excessively behind his back while being handcuffed, and that PO Demarco and Lieutenant Tosado only attempted to get § 87(2)(b) to lay on his side and never put him onto his back on top of his hands the investigation § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations D and E be closed as within NYPD guidelines.

Although it was undisputed that § 87(2)(b) thumb was dislocated by the time he was treated at § 87(2)(b) Hospital, § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) the body-worn camera footage does not capture any actions taken by any officer that depicted officers interacting with § 87(2)(b) left thumb § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) it is therefore recommended that Allegation H be closed as officer unidentified.

Allegation (G) Discourtesy: At 72 West 181st Street in the Bronx, Police Officer Michael Phipps spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (H) Discourtesy: At the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Michael Phipps spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (I) Offensive Language: At the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Michael Phipps made offensive remarks to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Discourtesy: En route to § 87(2)(b) Hospital in the Bronx, Police Officer

Michael Phipps spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) did not allege that PO Phipps used discourteous or offensive language, however, excessive instances of the word fuck, multiple instances of the word shit, and one instance of the word pussy were caught on PO Phipps' body-worn camera footage (BR 16: video, BR 09: summary).

PO Phipps' body-worn camera footage (BR 16: video, BR 09: summary) shows at 2:25 minutes, PO Phipps saying, "Big man I'm not going to fuck with you [...] on what I ain't got shit" when § 87(2)(b) asks officers to write down phone numbers for him. PO Phipps explained (BR 24) that he used profanity because it was just "two adults having a conversation" and § 87(2)(b) was also cursing, so rather than being "robotic" he spoke like a human being to gain compliance.

At 9:40 minutes, PO Phipps takes § 87(2)(b) into the 46th Precinct stationhouse. At 9:51 minutes, PO Phipps says, "Let us do the fucking paperwork, let us put you in the back, do all the shit, and you can use the phone." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) that it was just how he talked. PO Phipps did not curse at § 87(2)(b) to demand that he did the paperwork, just to reasonably explain to him what they needed to do to move forward. At 10:12 minutes, at the desk, PO Phipps says "I'm not saying shit to you, you're telling me all this shit, I'm not even asking you." At 22:10 minutes, PO Phipps takes § 87(2)(b) into a bathroom to remove his handcuffs and says, "I'm not trying to fucking twist your other arm. Work with me, man." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) he did not want to hurt § 87(2)(b) by twisting his arm.

At 27:32 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I haven't bullshit you yet, I'm telling you there's an ambulance coming for you." PO Demarco hands PO Phipps an object and PO Phipps says, "Is this your poker for the fucking uh, your shit." At 29:55 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I'm not going to fucking violate you, I don't want your jewelry." At 31:20 minutes, PO Phipps says, "You fucking hurt, you fucking hurt." At 31:40 minutes, PO Phipps says, "You've been locked up before you know that all this shit takes time. I'm not trying to fucking [...] Trust me I don't want to get in trouble for jewelry as much as you don't want to fucking miss it [...] If your jewelry goes fucking blame me because I'm not going to let anything happen to your fucking jewelry [...] I'm not trying to fuck with you [...] I'm trying to just get you through so you're not fucking sitting here and not knowing what's happening. There's no reason for me to bullshit you [...] Let me do what I can do to get you through so we can get you fucking, whatever. [...] Just give us the fucking pants. [...] That's why I'm not like 'yo, you're being a pussy,' I'm telling you like you want to go to the doctor." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) that he spoke this way because it was just two adults having a conversation. § 87(2)(b) was cursing so PO Phipps was cursing and deescalating as § 87(2)(b) was irate, wanted to leave, and was going to argue with EMS. PO Phipps gave § 87(2)(b) a cigarette, had a conversation, and calmed him down using regular language that people use instead of speaking to him like a robot. PO Phipps stated that he used the word "pussy" because people on the street use that word when they call each other weak. The word "pussy" was used a synonym for "weak" in this context.

At 36:32 minutes, PO Phipps says, "Smoke your fucking cigarette." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) that he said that because § 87(2)(b) was dawdling. PO Phipps let § 87(2)(b) smoke the cigarette to deescalate the situation. At 38:20 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I'm going to double lock these, so they don't fucking, chill." At 39:27 minutes, PO Phipps says, "Hopefully the just pop that shit back in." At 41:40 minutes, PO Phipps says, "Has anybody fuck with you yet? [...] Nobody's fuck with you yet [...] We didn't fuck with you. [...] I didn't fuck with you, I didn't fuck with you. [...] You're going here, you're going there, you're coming right the fuck back here." At 42:52 minutes, PO Phipps says, "You made me get fucking meth on my hands." § 87(2)(b) goes into the ambulance and PO Phipps says, "Sit back so I can put the shit on you." At 43:50 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I don't fucking know either." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) that he was using the same language § 87(2)(b) was using with him, having an adult conversation, and he was building rapport.

At 46:11 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I'm not going to see your shit from jail, I don't give a fuck about that." At 47:07 minutes, PO Phipps says, "I'm not the fucking courts so I'm not going to tell you. [...] Unless you got fucking wild shit pending. like unless you got fucking warrants and I-cards and shit you're not telling me about." At 48:55 minutes, PO Phipps says, "This isn't 2016, they're not trying to fucking they're not trying to send people to the island. [...] Don't be freaking out, don't do anything that's going to fucking. [...] My partner and I we treat this like it's fucking business, it's not personal [...] Just fucking work with us [...] I don't fucking know." PO Phipps explained (BR 24) it was just two adults having a conversation and it was deescalating § 87(2)(b) and calming him down.

NYPD Patrol Guide procedure 200-02 (BR 25) states that officers are to respect the dignity of each individual and render services with courtesy and civility.

In DAO-DCT Case Number: 2018-18951 (BR 26), the tribunal found that even with good intentions, the officer was responsible to act with decorum in their interactions with the public. Even if there was no indication that the civilian was offended by inappropriate language, under the particular circumstances, the gratuitous use of the word "fucking" was unprofessional. There are certain situations where profane remarks made during a stressful or chaotic situation would not constitute misconduct.

NYPD Administrative Guide 304-06 (BR 27) prohibits officers from using discourteous or disrespectful remarks regarding gender.
