23. At this time, there was a fight between unknown individuals. The fight was broken up and one of the individuals involved in the fight was struck by a car. The Plaintiff, along with his sister and a friend were spectators to the fight. The Plaintiff was not involved in the fight. After the fight was broken up, the Plaintiff, his sister and his friend started walking.

24. While Plaintiff was at said location and walking, he was confronted and assaulted by Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

25. 26. At this time, one of Plaintiff's teacher, a Ms. Lopez attempted to alert the Defendants that Plaintiff was not involved in the fight but was ignored and threatened.

27. At no time did Plaintiff give Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 a reason to stop him, having his arms and wrists violently twisted behind his back, being sprayed in his face with mace, picked up and slammed to the ground and being kneed in his back while face down on the ground.

28. At no time prior to Plaintiff being grabbed on his shoulder, having his arms and wrists violently twisted behind his back, being sprayed in his face with mace, picked up and slammed to the ground, violently kicked, and had a knee placed on his back while face down on the ground did Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 identify themselves as Police Officers.

19. At no time did Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, observe Plaintiff committing a crime or violation of the law.

20. Upon information and belief, there was an incident happened among students from W.B.'s school which W.B. was not involved in at all.

21. Plaintiff was searched and seized in an unlawful manner by Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, when they physically choked the Plaintiff around his neck, having his arms and wrists violently twisted behind his back, being sprayed in his face with mace without probable cause, picked up, slammed to the ground and being kneed in his back while face down on the ground.

22. While Plaintiff was on the ground. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, slammed him to the ground, violently struck him and kneed him in his back repeatedly.

23. Plaintiff had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person including but not limited to being choked him around his neck, having his arms and wrists violently twisted behind his back, being sprayed in his face with mace, kicked and assaulted, slammed to the ground, then kneed in the back repeatedly about his body, causing him to sustain various emotional and physical injuries.

29. One of W.B.'s teacher Mr. Lopez passed by and saw W.B. being kneed on the ground, he tried to explain to the officers that W.B. was not involved in the incident at all but was ignored by the Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10. Defendants later threatened Mr. Lopez that he would be arrested too if he kept interfering with the Police Officers.

30. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 have displayed a pattern and practice of using excessive and unreasonable force.

31. During all of the events described, the Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.

32. Plaintiff's eyes, left hip and shoulders were severely injured by the violent conducts by Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI. CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

33. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then forcibly removed plaintiff to the Mount Sinai Medical Center where Plaintiff was treated with eyedrops and pain reliever only, and later transported Plaintiff to the 18th Precinct.

34. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then proceeded to criminally process plaintiff, which included fingerprinting, retina scans and various bodily searches.

35. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then subjected plaintiff to illegal interrogation tactics by threatening him with a protracted criminal prosecution followed by a lengthy imprisonment, if he did not comply with defendants' demands by agreeing to testify and provide false evidence against the defendants' true target and suspect.

36. Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, retaliated against plaintiff by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that defendants observed plaintiff resisting arrest.

37. Plaintiff was later transported to Crossroads Juvenile Center in Kings County where he was questioned about the incident and was eventually allowed to go home.

38. Plaintiff received the Order of Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal by Family Court of the State of New York (Hon. Carol Goldstein) on June 24, 2020.

39. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BICOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

40. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

41. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with a Docket Number of D-13536-19. Upon information and belief, the identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 Defendants are known only to the Defendants.

42. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

43. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain system in throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

44. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

45. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019. and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD

‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

46. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

47. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

48. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

49. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

50. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came from the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

51. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

53. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

54. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

55. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants. the NYPD and City of New York.

56. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

57. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

58. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

59. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

60. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including OSIPOWICH, BOYLE, BIOCCHI, CACCIOPPOLI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

61. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
