Plaintiff, YOORVENS JEUDY, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On July 30, 2019, at approximately 9:00 p.m., plaintiff Yoorvens Jeudy, while lawfully in the vicinity of 251
Winthrop Street, Brooklyn, New York, was subjected to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment, assault, battery, and subjected to excessive force by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, assaulted and battered, and subjected to excessive force in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, YOORVENS JEUDY is a resident of the state of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH NICOLETTI, Tax No. 961004, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH NICOLETTI, Tax No. 961004 is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 71st Precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH NICOLETTI, Tax No. 961004, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. SERGEANT ANTHONY BLUM, Tax No. 948681, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. SERGEANT ANTHONY BLUM, Tax No. 948681 is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 48th Precinct.

8. SERGEANT ANTHONY BLUM, Tax No. 948681, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

9. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-4 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Police Officers John Does #1-4 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK.

14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

15. A 50-h hearing was conducted on January 23, 2020.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On July 30, 2019, at approximately 9:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully in the vicinity of 251 Winthrop Street, Brooklyn, New York when the individually named defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, and searched plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

19. At no point in time had plaintiff committed any crime whatsoever.

20. Nevertheless, the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, and frisked plaintiff without any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

21. At no point in time did the defendant police officers recover any drugs, guns, or contraband of any kind from plaintiff.

22. Without provocation or legal justification, the officer grabbed plaintiff's and forcibly twisted his arms behind his back, causing plaintiff to suffer physical injury to his left wrist.

23. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

24. The handcuffs placed on plaintiff were unreasonably tight on plaintiff's wrists, causing plaintiff to suffer pain and injuries to his wrists and hands.

25. Plaintiff told the defendant police officers that the handcuffs were hurting his wrists and hands, and asked the defendant police officers to loosen the handcuffs, but the defendant police officers ignored plaintiff and failed to loosen the handcuffs.

26. The unreasonably tight handcuffs were the direct and proximate cause of the serious physical injuries to plaintiff's wrists and hands.

27. The defendant police officers forcibly handcuffed plaintiff and unlawfully arrested plaintiff without legal justification or probable cause.

28. Thereafter, plaintiff was unlawfully transported to the 71st precinct.

29. Upon arrival at the 71st precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed and placed into a holding cell.

30. While at the 71st precinct, plaintiff requested that EMS be called for the injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers.

31. The defendant police officers called EMS and EMS arrived at the 71st precinct and treated plaintiff for injuries to his left wrist.

32. On July 31, 2019, the defendant police officers voided plaintiff's arrest because he did not commit any crime and he was released from the 71st precinct without any charges.

33. After the unlawful arrest was voided, plaintiff was transported by EMS to Maimonides Medical Center to receive medical treatment for the injuries caused by the defendant police officers.

34. Plaintiff was treated at Maimonides Medical Center and was given a soft splint for his left wrist injury and was discharged on July 31, 2019.

35. As a result of the medical treatment, plaintiff has medical bills in the amount of approximately $5,000.

36. Some of the individually named police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, assault, battery, and excessive force against plaintiff.

37. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, assault, battery and unlawful strip search against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain serious physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

38. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

39. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, and frisked, unlawfully seized, unlawfully stripped searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

40. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

42. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

46. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

47. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

48. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

49. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

53. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

54. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

55. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

56. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

57. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

58. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

59. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

60. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

61. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

63. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

64. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

65. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

66. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

67. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

68. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner struck plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

69. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

71. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

73. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

75. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

76. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 75 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

77. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by grabbing plaintiff and tightly handcuffing plaintiff and bending his wrist back causing him to suffer a sprained wrist constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

78. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

79. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

80. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

81. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

82. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

83. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

85. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

86. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

87. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Yoorvens Jeudy demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
