Plaintiffs Jude Prescott & Andrew Pantin, by their attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiffs were deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiffs, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiffs and malicious prosecution of plaintiffs. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiffs' constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Jude Prescott is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
3. Plaintiff Andrew Pantin is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
4. Police Officer Nelson Ayala (Shield #8811) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
5. Police Officer Nelson Ayala (Shield #8811) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
8. New York Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiffs in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
14. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On February 28, 2014, at approximately 12pm on Greene Avenue between Evergreen Street & Central Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Prescott was driving his car looking for a place to eat.
16. Mr. Prescott saw his nephew, Andrew Pantin, and they began to talk.
17. Mr. Pantin got into the front passenger seat of Mr. Prescott's car. Mr. Pantin's friend accompanied him and took the backseat.
18. Less than two minutes after they got into Mr. Prescott's car, police officers approached, claiming there was suspicious activity taking place. Officers observed Mr. Pantin's friend in the backseat claiming that he pulled something out that resembled a gun and put it under the seat just as the police were approaching the window.
19. All three were told to step out of the car. Officers then began to search the vehicle.
20. Mr. Prescott, Mr. Pantin and Mr. Pantin's friend were arrested for possession of a firearm.
21. Mr. Pantin and Mr. Prescott did not see a gun or anything unlawful recovered from the vehicle.
22. The case was dismissed on motion of the prosecutor on September 26, 2014.
23. Jude Prescott was incarcerated for approximately 36 hours before he was bailed out for $2,500. Jude Prescott attended three court appearances.
24. On account of his arrest, Mr. Prescott lost 4 days of wages at $17 an hour.
25. On account of his arrest, he lost his primary technician job at Bellevue Hospital, paying $15 an hour, approximately $31,200 per year.
26. On account of his arrest, Mr. Prescott paid a private criminal defense attorney $7,500.
27. Andrew Pantin was incarcerated for approximately 4 days before he was bailed out. Mr. Pantin attended three court appearances.
28. On account of his arrest, Mr. Pantin lost his job at Methodist Hospital.
29. Plaintiff filed a notice of claim timely for some claims.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH AMENDMENT AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

30. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 29 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
31. The individually named defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority at the NYPD arrested and caused plaintiffs to be imprisoned without probable cause, maliciously prosecuted, and subjected to excessive forced based as well as an unlawful search in violation of plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty and the right to privacy under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

32. Plaintiffs repeat and allege paragraphs 1 through 31 as if fully set forth herein.
33. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiffs and, in fact, confined plaintiffs, and plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
34. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
35. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

36. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 35 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
37. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
38. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiffs.
39. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiffs and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
40. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to plaintiffs on September 26, 2014.
41. Plaintiffs were subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment rights.
42. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

43. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
44. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

45. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
47. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
48. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were subjected to an illegal search.
49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
50. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

51. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
52. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiffs.
53. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting plaintiffs to an illegal search.
54. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
55. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiffs.
56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

57. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
58. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiffs. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiffs and violated plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
59. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
60. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

61. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
62. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
63. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
64. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

65. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
66. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
67. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, JUDE PRESCOTT & ANDREW PRESTIN, plaintiffs, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
