INDEX NO.:

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, CLINTON RHONE, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 20, 2013, at approximately 3:30 a.m., plaintiff, CLINTON RHONE, while lawfully walking in the vicinity of 14th Street and 9th Avenue, New York, New York, was subject to an unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully assaulted, battered, and used excessive force against plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff CLINTON RHONE is a resident of the State of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER ADAM PALMER, Shield No. 24392, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER ADAM PALMER, Shield No. 24392, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 6th precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER ADAM PALMER, Shield No. 24392, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. POLICE OFFICER MATEUSZ TKACZUK, Shield No. 25963, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. POLICE OFFICER MATEUSZ TKACZUK, Shield No. 25963 is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 6th precinct.

8. POLICE OFFICER MATEUSZ TKACZUK, Shield No. 25963, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

9. POLICE OFFICER NICHOLAS VIRGILLO, Shield No. 24819, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

10. POLICE OFFICER NICHOLAS VIRGILLO, Shield No. 24819, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 6th precinct.

11. POLICE OFFICER NICHOLAS VIRGILLO, Shield No. 24819, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

12. SERGEANT DAMIAN SCANLON, Shield #04533, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

13. SERGEANT DAMIAN SCANLON, Shield #04533, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 6th precinct.

14. SERGEANT DAMIAN SCANLON, Shield #04533, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

15. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

16. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

17. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties.

They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

18. At all times relevant hereto, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

19. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

20. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK, in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50.

21. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claim.

22. The CITY OF NEW YORK held a hearing pursuant to 50-h of the general municipal law on or about March 11, 2014.

23. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

24. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

25. On April 20, 2013, at approximately 3:30 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully walking in the vicinity of 14th Street and 9th Avenue, New York, New York.

26. Plaintiff intended on walking to The Diner, located at the northeast corner of Hudson Street and 14th Street.

27. While Plaintiff was lawfully crossing the street on 14th Street from 10th Avenue to 9th Avenue, NY, NY, an individual in a car honked their car horn at him and screamed profanity at him out of the car window.

28. Unbeknownst to plaintiff, the individuals yelling profanities at him were police officers.

29. The defendant police officers then exited their unmarked car and approached plaintiff in an aggressive manner.

30. The defendant police officers then grabbed plaintiff and threw him forcibly against a brick wall without legal justification.

31. After plaintiff was thrown into brick wall, he was punched in the face by one of the defendant police officers.

32. Plaintiff was then thrown onto the ground and continuously kicked and punched by the defendant police officers.

33. At no time did plaintiff verbally or physically threaten the defendant NYPD officers, and no reasonable police officer would believe that plaintiff verbally or physically threatened the defendant NYPD officers at any time.

34. No reasonable police officer would have believed it was necessary to use physical force against plaintiff at any time.

35. Plaintiff was assaulted and battered and excessive force was used against plaintiff by the defendant NYPD officers without cause or legal justification.

36. At no time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

37. At no time did the defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons or contraband of any kind from plaintiff.

38. Plaintiff was then handcuffed in an excessively tight manner, dragged to his feet and put him in the back of a police vehicle and transported to the 6th precinct.

39. Upon arrival at the 6th precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and placed into a holding cell.

40. Plaintiff, who at that point was bleeding profusely from his face and head, requested medical attention from the defendant police officers.

41. Finally, after several hours of waiting, EMS arrived at the 6th precinct and treated plaintiff for his physical injuries.

42. Thereafter, on April 20, 2013, EMS transported plaintiff to Bellevue Hospital for further treatment of his injuries.

43. While at Bellevue Hospital, plaintiff was treated for several injuries, including but not limited to bruising and bleeding to his face.

44. Thereafter, plaintiff was transported back to the 6th precinct where he was placed back into a holding cell.

45. After several more hours at the 6th precinct, plaintiff was transported to Manhattan Central Booking.

46. On April 20, 2013, after approximately 18 hours in police custody, plaintiff was arraigned and released on his own recognizance.

47. As a result of the brutal assault on plaintiff by the defendant police officers, plaintiff was forced to miss one week of work.

48. Further, after plaintiff was released from custody, he was forced to seek additional medical treatment for a variety of physical injuries caused by the defendant police officers, including but not limited to injuries to his left wrist, injuries to his face, and injuries to his head.

49. None of the individually named defendants intervened to prevent or stop the assault and battery of plaintiff or prevent further injury to plaintiff.

50. By failing to intervene in order to stop this assault and battery, these defendants demonstrated a deliberate indifference to a substantial risk of serious harm to plaintiff.

51. The incident was extremely psychologically damaging to plaintiff. Furthermore, as a result of the incident, plaintiff suffered significant and permanent physical injuries.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment

Rights

52. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

53. The use of excessive force by defendants in throwing plaintiff onto the ground, handcuffing plaintiff excessively tightly, slamming his head into the ground multiple times, punching and and kicking plaintiff in the face was an objectively unreasonable physical seizure of plaintiff in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

54. The individually named police officer defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

55. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 54 as if fully set forth herein.

56. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

58. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

59. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 58 as if fully set forth herein.

60. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner struck plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

62. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training, and Supervision

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

64. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of correction officer duties on April 20, 2013 at the aforementioned location.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

65. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 64 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

67. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

68. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was brutally physically assaulted.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

71. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.

73. Defendants breached that duty of care by assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against plaintiff.

74. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

75. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by plaintiff.

76. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

77. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 76 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

78. By the actions described herein, the individually named correction officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff Clinton Rhone. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

79. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty, was assaulted, and sustained great emotional injuries.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

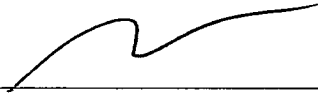

JURY DEMAND

81. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Clinton Rhone demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
