Karen Jaramillo, by her attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Karen Jaramillo is a citizen of the United States and resident of Maspeth, New York.
3. Police Officer Raynaldo Candelaria (Shield # 940977) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. Police Officer Raynaldo Candelaria (Shield # 940977) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on February 24, 2015.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Karen Jaramillo is 23 years old. She has been employed at Coppola's East Restaurant for four years as a hostess.
15. Ms. Jaramillo received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from Queens College in 2013.
16. Ms. Jaramillo has never been convicted of a crime.
17. On September 3, 2014, at approximately 2:30 pm, at Rockaway Beach in Queens, New York, Ms. Jaramillo was spending the day with her family at the beach.

18. Ms. Jaramillo and her cousin took a walk on the beach. They shared a cigarette. They did not want to smoke in front of her cousin's daughter.
19. By the time they threw the cigarette out, four police officers approached them and accused Ms. Jaramillo and her cousin of smoking a marijuana joint.
20. The officers arrested Ms. Jaramillo and her cousin and charged them with obstruction of governmental administration for swallowing the joint. Plaintiff tried to show the officer where in the sand the cigarette butt was but could not find it.
21. Police officers arrested Ms. Jaramillo in her bathing suit and did not allow her to change her clothes.
22. Ms. Jaramillo was incarcerated for approximately 20 hours before receiving an ACD at arraignment on September 4, 2014.
23. Ms. Jaramillo's employer learned of her arrest, which affected her reputation at work.
24. Plaintiff filed a notice of claim on November 2, 2014.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH AMENDMENT AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

25. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 24 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
26. The individually named defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority at the NYPD arrested and caused plaintiff to be imprisoned without probable cause, maliciously prosecuted, and subjected to excessive force as well as an unlawful search in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty and the right to privacy under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

27. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 26 as if fully set forth herein.
28. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
29. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
30. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

31. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 30 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
32. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

33. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 32 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
34. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
35. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

36. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search.
37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
38. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

39. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 38 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
40. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
41. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting her to an illegal search.
42. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
43. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
44. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLECTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

47. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
48. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
50. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
51. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
52. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
53. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
54. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
55. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, KAREN JARAMILLO, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
