VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff SHAKERA GORDEN, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On November 6, 2021, at approximately 6:00 p.m., Plaintiff Shakera Gordon, while lawfully in the vicinity of 274 Hawthorne Street, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers rear-ended Plaintiff's vehicle, grabbed and slammed Plaintiff into a vehicle, causing serious physical injury necessitating hospital treatment. Plaintiff was deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and her constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Shakera Gordon is a resident of the state of New York.

2. NYPD Police Captain Frantz Souffrant, Shield No. 29044 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
3. NYPD Police Captain Frantz Souffrant, Shield No. 29044 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently NYPD Police Captain Frantz Souffrant, Shield No. 29044 is assigned to the 78th Police Precinct of the NYPD. At all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Captain Frantz Souffrant, Shield No. 29044 was assigned to the 71st Police Precinct of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbered One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbered One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
7. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
9. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
10. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on March 24, 2022.
11. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On November 6, 2021, at approximately 6:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of 274 Hawthorne Street, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully assaulted Plaintiff without legal justification.

15. Plaintiff was ideling in front of her neighbor Aaron's driveway when she was joined by her other neighbor, Travis, who decided to keep her company while she looked for parking.

16. When Plaintiff noticed Aaron's vehicle approaching she pulled her vehicle around the corner so he could enter his driveway.

17. Plaintiff stopped her vehicle at the corner of Nostrand and Hawthorne to allow Travis to exit the vehicle.

18. Defendant Officer pulled up in an unmarked vehicle and approached Plaintiff's vehicle.

19. Defendant Officer screamed at Plaintiff "You can't sit here while you are waiting for parking. You can't park in the driveways. There's no double parking " in an aggressive tone.

20. A week prior, Plaintiff's vehicle was searched, without probable cause, by the same Defendant Officer along with three other officers.

21. Plaintiff was not arrested or given a ticket for the incident that occurred a week prior.

22. Plaintiff complied with the Defendant Officer's order and began driving.

23. Plaintiff made a right on Winthrop and noticed Defendant Officer was following her.

24. Plaintiff pulled over on Winthrop.

25. Defendant Officer pulled up behind Plaintiff and states over the loudspeaker "Driver move your car. You can't sit here."

26. Plaintiff exited her vehicle and approached the Defendant Officer.

27. Plaintiff stated to Defendant Officer "I'm trying to park. Why are you riding me? I don't like this."

28. Defendant Officer ordered Plaintiff to "Get back in the car and move it."

29. Plaintiff re-entered her vehicle and drove across an intersection before pulling over.

30. Without warning, Defendant Officer rear-ended Plaintiff's vehicle.
31. Plaintiff exited her vehicle and approached Defendant Officer. Plaintiff asked Defendant Officer why he hit her vehicle and, because of plates in her neck from a prior accident, requested that he take her to the hospital.
32. Defendant Officer responded by grabbing Plaintiff by her arms and slamming her into his vehicle. Plaintiff requested medical attention on the scene.
33. Several other Defendant Officers arrived on scene while Plaintiff was being handcuffed.
34. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of her assailants told her that she was being arrested, what she was being arrested for, or where she was being taken.
35. Plaintiff was transported to the 71st precinct where she was processed and placed in a cell.
36. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
37. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Mischief in the Fourth Degree, Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument in the Third Degree, Obstructing Governmental Administration in the Second Degree, Resisting Arrest, Unlawful Fleeing a Police Officer in a Motor Vehicle in the Third Degree, and Operation of Motor Vehicle; Ideling of Engine Restricted.
38. While at the 71st precinct, Plaintiff again requested medical attention for her physical injuries.
39. Defendant Officers called an ambulance and transported Plaintiff to the Kings County psych ward.
40. Plaintiff was evaluated by medical professionals at the psych ward, given ice for her wrist, and an injection to manage the pain before being released.
41. Upon information and belief, Defendant Officers transferred Plaintiff from the hospital to Central Bookings where she appeared before a judge and was released after spending approximately forty hours in custody.
42. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on November 7, 2020, after approximately fifteen court appearances.
43. As a result of this incident, Plaintiff's wrists were covered in bruises and cuts that took weeks to heal.
44. Plaintiff also experienced significant pain in her right knee for approximately two weeks.

45. As a result of this incident, Plaintiff had to pay out of pocket to retrieve her vehicle from police custody and to repair her vehicle.
46. As a result of this arrest, Plaintiff, who works for the Board of Elections as a community liaison, has suffered significant damage to her reputation within the community.
47. As a result of this arrest, Plaintiff becomes extremely nervous around police officers.
48. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
49. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
50. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
51. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
52. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

53. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
54. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
55. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
56. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

58. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

59. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

62. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

63. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, rear-ending Plaintiff's vehicle, and grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

73. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

74. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

75. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

77. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
78. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner rear-ended Plaintiff's vehicle, and grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without her consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.
80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

83. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
84. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
85. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
86. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

87. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
88. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
89. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

90. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
91. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
92. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

93. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
94. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
95. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
96. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious injury, her liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear of his safety, her injuries worsened, she did not receive necessary medical treatment, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
97. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

99. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

101. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

102. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

103. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

104. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

105. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

106. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

107. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

108. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

109. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONMalicious Prosecution

110. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
111. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
112. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
113. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
114. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONDeliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

115. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
116. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff was suffering injuries from being rear-ended by a vehicle, and grabbed and thrown into a vehicle, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.
117. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in an increased severity of Plaintiff's injuries that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.
118. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.
119. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
120. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
121. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

GABRIELLA OROZCO, ESQ. an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am an associate of the law firm of SHULMAN-HILL PLLC, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is because Plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
