STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On July 6, 2021, at approximately 6:00 a.m., Plaintiff Samia Ali was lawfully present in the vicinity of 232 Targee Street, in Staten Island, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

15. Plaintiff was asleep in her home at the aforementioned location when defendant officers began banging on her door.

16. The Plaintiff's husband went downstairs to answer the door, and defendant officers immediately handcuffed him.

17. Defendant officers then came upstairs and dragged Plaintiff, who was barely clothed, out of her bed and onto the floor, tearing the only clothing she was wearing, her underwear, off of her body in the process, rendering her completely naked and exacerbating a pre-existing neck injury.

18. Defendant officers ignored Plaintiff's tearful pleas to use the bathroom, causing her to urinate on herself, and then cursed at her, exacerbating her humiliation.

19. Defendant officers then dragged Plaintiff to a separate bedroom and made her wait there completely naked.

20. At some point defendant officers arrested Plaintiff, subjecting her to unlawful search and restraining her with metal handcuffs.

21. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

22. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff's person or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

23. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

24. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by the defendant officers without probable cause or legal justification, placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle, and transported to the 120th Precinct.

25. At the 120th Precinct, Plaintiff was placed in a holding cell, fingerprinted, photographed, and interrogated.

26. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Richmond County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime; specifically, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance.

27. After being booked and processed at the precinct, the Plaintiff was transported to Richmond County Central Booking.

28. Thereafter, Plaintiff was arraigned in Richmond County Criminal Court, charged with crimes she did not commit, and released on her own recognizance.

29. Immediately after her release from unlawful custody, the plaintiff went to Richmond University Medical Center, where she was treated for her neck injury, which had been severely aggravated by the egregious and unlawful conduct of defendant officers.

30. On January 5, 2022 all criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

31. As a result of this incident, Plaintiff's existing neck injury was exacerbated causing constant, debilitating pain in the time since, and requiring surgery to repair.

32. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

33. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

34. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
