FACTS

18. On March 1, 2016, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Plaintiff PABLO ULLOA was lawfully operating a livery taxi at or near the intersection of Pennsylvania Avenue and Sutter Avenue in the County of Queens, City and State of New York.
19. At this time, the Plaintiff pulled his vehicle over to pick up a customer who had called the taxi dispatch base where the Plaintiff works, and requested a cab at that location.
20. In other words, the plaintiff was not picking up a street hail, nor was he involved in any other unlawful or suspicious activity.
21. The Defendants were present at that time and location, on duty, in uniform, and in a marked NYPD van.
22. Without any legal justification or excuse, the Defendants pulled their vehicle up to the Plaintiff's vehicle, exited their vehicle, and approached Plaintiff's vehicle.
23. The Defendants asked the Plaintiff, in sum and substance, if he was picking up a street hail, to which he replied that he was not, and he offered to show the Defendants the communication on his tablet from his base assigning him to the request by the passenger at that location.
24. The Defendants refused to look at the tablet and, without any warning, justification, or excuse, reached into Plaintiff's vehicle through an open window, unlocked his door, and began violently twisting his left arm, causing the Plaintiff to suffer arm, shoulder, and chest pain.
25. The Defendants also struck the Plaintiff on his body with their fists, and caused Plaintiff to hit his head on the inside of his vehicle.

26. The Defendants' actions caused the Plaintiff to fear for his safety, so he called 911 and complained of the Defendants' conduct.
27. The Plaintiff was not involved in any illegal or suspicious activity, and the Defendants' conduct was unjustified and illegal.
28. Nonetheless, the Plaintiff was formally arrested, was placed in handcuffs, and was transported to a local area hospital to receive medical treatment for the injuries he sustained at the hands of the Defendants.
29. At no time on March 1, 2016, did Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of law.
30. At no time on March 1, 2016, did Defendants possess probable cause to arrest Plaintiff or to order Plaintiff's arrest.
31. At no time on March 1, 2016, did Defendants possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest Plaintiff.
32. Nevertheless, after being treated at the hospital, the Plaintiff was taken to a local area precinct by the Defendants where he remained in their custody.
33. Plaintiff was held for several hours at the stationhouse before he was transported to Kings County Central Booking where he was held for several additional hours before he was arraigned on a criminal complaint containing false allegations provided by the Defendants, including Defendant Rivera.
34. Pursuant to these false allegations, the Plaintiff was charged with and arraigned on one count of violation of VTL 1102.
35. The Defendants provided knowingly false and misleading information to prosecutors at the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

36. Each of the allegations were false and the Defendants knew them to be false when they were made.
37. Despite Defendants' unconstitutional actions, all charges against Plaintiff were dismissed when he acceded to an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal at his arraignment.
38. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff Pablo Ulloa sustained, inter alia, mental anguish, shock, fright, apprehension, embarrassment, humiliation, physical injuries, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
39. All of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.
40. All of the aforementioned acts deprived Plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and were therefore in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.
41. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers with all of the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.
42. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.
43. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR FALSE ARREST AND EXCESSIVE FORCE
UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

44. Plaintiff PABLO ULLOA repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
45. As a result of the Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff was subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest, taken into custody, and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained, and confined without any probable cause, privilege, or consent.
46. As a result of the Defendants' conduct, the Plaintiff was subject to a level of force by the Defendants in excess of what was reasonable under the circumstances.
47. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted, he was put in fear for his safety, he was falsely arrested without probable cause, and he was physically injured.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FOR MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

48. Plaintiff, repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
49. Defendants arrested, searched, and incarcerated plaintiff PABLO ULLOA, in the absence of any evidence of criminal wrongdoing, notwithstanding their knowledge that said search, arrest and incarceration would jeopardize Plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety, and violate his constitutional rights.
50. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials, with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

51. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials pursuant to the customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.
52. Those customs, policies, patterns, and practices include, but are not limited to:
 - i. requiring officers to make a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
 - ii. requiring precincts to record a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
 - iii. failing to take any measures to correct unconstitutional behavior when brought to the attention of supervisors and/or policy makers;
 - iv. failing to properly train police officers in the requirements of the United States Constitution.
53. The aforesaid customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department directly cause, inter alia, the following unconstitutional practices:
 - i. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to inflate the officer's arrest statistics;
 - ii. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to positively affect precinct-wide statistics;
 - iii. falsifying evidence and testimony to support those arrests;
 - iv. falsifying evidence and testimony to cover up police misconduct.
54. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY

OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department constitute a deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of Plaintiff, BRUCE WRIGHT.

55. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.
56. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.
57. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, Plaintiff was placed under arrest unlawfully.
58. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating the constitutional rights of Plaintiff.
59. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers, and were directly responsible for the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.
60. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived Plaintiff of federally protected constitutional rights, particularly their Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights to be free from unreasonable search and seizure.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR FALSE ARREST,
FALSE IMPRISONMENT, AND
EXCESSIVE FORCE,
PURSUANT TO STATE LAW

61. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
62. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK assumed responsibility supervision, and authority over THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT and, its agents, servants and employees, and is liable to plaintiff for the acts complained of herein under the theories of vicarious liability and respondent superior.
63. Plaintiff was detained and held under the imprisonment and control of the defendants under false pretenses.
64. Due to the negligence of the defendants, their servants, agents, employees, licensees, independent contractors and/or police officers while in the course and scope of their employment with THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and acting under authority of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, falsely arrested and imprisoned the plaintiff, without warrant, authority of law or probable cause therefore.
65. That the acts and conduct on the part of the individual defendants constituting unlawful and unconstitutional conduct are: unlawfully and intentionally detaining and confining plaintiff against his will and without his consent; unlawfully and intentionally detaining and confining plaintiff without privilege, probable cause or valid legal process; fabricating evidence against the plaintiff; unlawfully detaining and confining plaintiff through the unlawful arrest of plaintiff; unlawfully detaining and confining plaintiff through the use of force; unlawfully arresting plaintiff and placing plaintiff in handcuffs without reasonable cause therefore, and committing such other acts resulting in the unlawful arrest and imprisonment of plaintiff.

66. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, said arrest, confinement and restraint of liberty was not otherwise privileged.
67. That plaintiff was conscious of the confinement.
68. That as a direct, sole and proximate result of the false arrest, imprisonment, and excessive force, plaintiff was caused to and did sustain humiliation and embarrassment, emotional and mental distress, moral and mental degradation, indignity and disgrace, injury to personal and business reputation, inconvenience, disturbance and disruption of life, legal expenses, and loss of personal income.
69. By the actions described above, defendants "POLICE OFFICERS" and THE CITY OF NEW YORK caused plaintiff to be falsely arrested and/or falsely imprisoned without probable cause, without reasonable suspicion, illegally, without any proper claims, and without any right or authority to do so; and caused plaintiff to suffer physical injuries. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to the plaintiff and violated his statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws of the Constitution of the State of New York.
70. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, suffered a loss of quality and/or enjoyment of life, economic injury, physical injury, psychological injury and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants on each of the foregoing causes of action as follows:

- i. an order awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- ii. an order awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- iii. reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. §1988; and
- iv. directing such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper, together with attorneys' fees, interest, costs and disbursements of this action.
