The Plaintiff was falsely arrested without the Defendants possessing probable cause to do so also he had to seek medical attention as a result of the excessive force used by Defendants herein against his person as well as a result of the delay in treatment caused by Defendant herein.

19. The above action of the Defendants resulted in the Plaintiff, IRVING INGRAM, being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution:

- a. Freedom from summary punishment;
- b. Freedom from cruel and inhuman punishment;
- c. Freedom from illegal search and seizure;
- d. Freedom from false arrest;
- e. Freedom from malicious prosecution; and
- f. Freedom from the use of excessive force during the

ACTION IN FAVOR OF IRVING INGRAM

22. The Plaintiff, IRVING INGRAM, incorporates, repeats and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs "1" through "21" with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.

23. The Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of arrest, search and seizure especially when its police officers are not in possession of a court authorized arrest and a search warrant and where an individual, especially as here, has not committed a crime and has not resisted arrest, that its police officers should only use reasonable force to effectuate an arrest and the arrest should be based on probable cause.

24. The Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was negligent by failing to implement a policy with its Police Department and instruct police officers who, absent the consent of the Plaintiff (or similarly situated individuals) or without the possession of a court authorized arrest search warrant, said police officers of the City of New York are not to arrest individuals such as the Plaintiff here where probable cause is lacking and the use of force should only be reasonable when an individual resists arrest and should not be used where a criminal defendant is not resisting arrest.

25. THE CITY OF NEW YORK is negligent due to its failure to implement a policy with its Police Department or actively enforce the law, if any of the following are lacking:

1. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as the Plaintiff herein can be arrested.

2. Force cannot be used against an individual who does not physically resist arrest.

3. An individual who sustains physical injury at the hands of the police during the arrest process should receive prompt medical attention.

26. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, which caused the police officers to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, seize illegally and search the Plaintiff, commit an assault/battery to his person and deny his prompt medical attention under the belief that they would suffer no disciplinary actions for their failure to take proper or prudent steps in this case.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION IN FAVOR OF IRVING INGRAM

27. The Plaintiff, IRVING INGRAM, repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in paragraphs "1 through "30" as if set forth at length herein.

28. The Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the Police Officer Defendants, the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said Police Officer Defendants or had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that these officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

29. That by reason of the foregoing, this plaintiff was severely injured and damaged, rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, sustained severe nervous shock and mental anguish, great physical pain and emotional upset, has suffered and continued to suffer serious and extreme mental and emotional anguish, distress and psychological damages and difficulties, some of which injuries are permanent in nature and duration, and plaintiff will be permanently caused to suffer pain, inconvenience and other effects of such injuries, plaintiff incurred and in the future will necessarily incur further hospital and/or medical expenses in an effort to be cured of said injuries; and plaintiff has suffered and in the future will necessarily suffer additional loss of time and earnings from employment; and plaintiff will be unable to pursue the usual duties with the same degree of efficiency as prior to this occurrence, all to plaintiff's great damage.

30. The Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the Police Officer Defendants, the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said Defendants or had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that these officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by THE CITY OF NEW YORK and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

31. That by reason of the aforesaid unlawful and malicious prosecution, the plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, was subjected to great indignity, humiliation, pain and great distress of mind and body and was held up to scorn and ridicule, was injured in his character and reputation, was prevented from attending his usual business and avocation, was injured in his reputation in the community and the said plaintiff has been otherwise damaged.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION IN FAVOR OF IRVING INGRAM

33. On or about the 16th of June, 2023 at approximately 12:30 a.m., and thereafter, plaintiff's motor vehicle was in good mechanical and cosmetic condition. Defendants jointly and severally in their capacity as police officers, through their negligence and/or affirmative actions, caused damage to the plaintiff's motor vehicle in the sum of $11,757.51.

34. At all times mentioned herein, the plaintiff, IRVING INGRAM, loss of property valued at $143,300.00 dollars.

35. On or about the 16th of June, 2023 at approximately 12:30 a.m., and thereafter, the Defendants jointly and severally in their capacity as police officers, through their negligence and/or affirmative actions, took possession, control and custody of the plaintiff's personal property and failed to safeguard the property from loss or theft, resulting in loss of the property.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, together with the costs and disbursements of this action in the amount of damages greater than the jurisdictional limit of any lower court which would otherwise have jurisdiction. Additionally, plaintiff demands in respect of all causes of action, punitive damages and attorney fees pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.
