POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202107676 (Incident Date: December 16, 2021) regarding Police Officer Khrishan Jainaraine, Tax No. 960718 (DADS No. 2023-27993)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances in this matter and determined that no disciplinary action is warranted.

In this matter, Police Officer Jainaraine responded to a call for assistance from a co-worker who was attempting to have an illegally parked vehicle towed, but was encountering interference from several individuals at the location. When Police Officer Jainaraine arrived on scene, an individual was standing in front of the vehicle that was waiting to be towed. After said individual ignored several requests by Police Officer Jainaraine to move onto the sidewalk, Police Officer Jainaraine grasped the individual's arm and moved her only a few feet to the sidewalk.

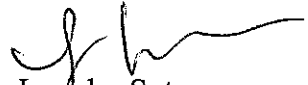

In addition to the fact that the individual could have been subject to arrest for obstructing governmental administration, by physically interfering with the officers attempt to have the vehicle removed, moving the individual away from the vehicle, was a common sense attempt to ensure her safety. Not only was this conduct reasonable under the circumstances, it was necessary for the officers to perform their official function.

COURTESY • PROFESSIONALISM • RESPECT

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Police Officer Jainaraine will receive no disciplinary action for the alleged violation of Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 (Force Guidelines).
