POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTMENT

Re: CCRB Case No. 202306024 (Incident Date: July 2, 2023) regarding Police Officer Noah Elrowmeim, Tax No. 967860 (PODS Case No. C-032389)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances of this matter and determined that no disciplinary action is warranted in connection with the substantiated allegation regarding the search charge against Police Officer Elrowmeim.

In this matter, the Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances and determined that Police Officer Noah Elrowmeim was justified in searching the complainant for safety reasons before he was brought into the police vehicle and transported to the 70th precinct for a disorderly conduct summons. The Police Commissioner has determined that Police Officer Noah Elrowmeim searched the individual incidental to a lawful arrest. Therefore, no disciplinary action is warranted.

Separate and apart, formalized training would best address the allegation regarding the failure to provide a business card. Given his lack of disciplinary history and positive evaluations, training is more appropriate to address the misconduct.

Therefore, based on the above, and the totality of the circumstances, no disciplinary action will be imposed against Police Officer Elrowmeim for the alleged violation of Patrol Guide Procedure 208-05 (Arrest – General Search Guidelines). Additionally, Police Officer Elrowmeim will receive training from his Commanding Officer in Administrative Guide Procedure 304-11 (Compliance with New York City Right to Know Act).

Sincerely,

Craig Contrera
