VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, SHAMEEK SUGGS, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On November 22, 2017, at approximately 3:00 p.m. plaintiff Shameek Suggs was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, false imprisonment, and false imprisonment while lawfully present in the vicinity of 202 York Street, Brooklyn, New York. Thereafter, the officers maliciously prosecuted and denied plaintiff a right to a fair trial by falsifying evidence, providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to the DA's Office and by signing a Criminal Court Summons which contained false information about plaintiff. Plaintiff was forced to appear in Court on 2 occasions before all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about March 7, 2018. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted and denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial of plaintiff in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and in violation of New York State Law.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff SHAMEEK SUGGS is a resident of New York, New York.

3. DETECTIVE BYRAN PITTS, Tax No. 927362, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. On the date of the subject incident, DETECTIVE BYRAN PITTS, Tax No. 927362, was assigned to the 84th precinct.

5. DETECTIVE BYRAN PITTS, Tax No. 927362, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. SERGEANT ANTONIO BOVE, Tax No. 932353, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. On the date of the subject incident, SERGEANT ANTONIO BOVE, Tax No. 932353, was assigned to the 84th precinct.

8. SERGEANT ANTONIO BOVE, Tax No. 932353, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

9. SERGEANT JOAO AZEVEDO, Tax No. 949211, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

10. On the date of the subject incident, SERGEANT JOAO AZEVEDO, Tax No. 949211, was assigned to the 84th precinct.

11. SERGEANT JOAO AZEVEDO, Tax No. 949211, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

12. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

13. At all times relevant hereto, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

14. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

16. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. On November 22, 2017, at approximately 3:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully in the vicinity of 202 York Street, Brooklyn, New York, when he was subjected to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, detention, false imprisonment, and false imprisonment.

18. At no time prior to being unlawfully stopped by the defendant officers did plaintiff commit a crime or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

19. Nevertheless, the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, handcuffed and unlawfully arrested plaintiff without legal justification or probable cause.

20. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

21. At no point in time did the defendant police officers recover any guns, drugs, or contraband of any kind from plaintiff.

22. Thereafter, plaintiff was then placed in the back seat of the police vehicle and transported to the 84th precinct.

23. At the 84th precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

24. While at the 84th precinct, plaintiff was unlawfully interrogated by the defendant police officers.

25. On November 23, 2017, after numerous hours in custody at the 84th precinct, in order to cover up their unlawful stop, question, frisk, and arrest, the defendant police officers issued plaintiff a summons for Jaywalking and plaintiff was released from the 84th precinct.

26. The defendant police officers stated false, misleading, and incomplete information in the summons that was issued to plaintiff.

27. Thereafter, plaintiff was forced to appear in Court on approximately two occasions before all charges were dismissed on March 7, 2018.

28. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and denial of fair trial and due process rights to plaintiff.

29. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, denial of due process, denial of a fair trial, against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

30. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 29 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

31. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, malicious prosecution, subjected to denial of his due process rights and denied the right to a fair trial without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure and denial of due process under the Fourth and Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

32. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 31 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

33. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

34. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

35. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

36. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

37. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

38. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

39. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

40. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching, plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

41. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution

42. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

43. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

44. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

46. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's, pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

47. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

48. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

50. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

52. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

53. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

54. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

55. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

56. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Shameek Suggs and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

57. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Shameek Suggs, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

58. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

59. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

60. The plaintiff repeats reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 59 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

61. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the United States Constitution, State of New York and New York State common law.

62. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

63. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

64. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

65. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

66. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

67. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

69. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 68 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

71. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

72. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

73. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

74. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

75. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Shameek Suggs demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

STUART E. JACOBS, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am a partner of the law firm of JACOBS & HAZAN, LLP, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is because plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
