POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202202350 (Incident Date: March 25, 2022) regarding Police Officer Antonio Meyers, Tax No. 966715 (DADS No. 2023-28734)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances in this matter and determined that no disciplinary action is warranted in connection with the single allegation that Police Officer Meyers refused to provide his name to an individual via text message.

In this matter, Police Officer Meyers, while off-duty, had a text message sent to his Department-issued phone by an individual with whom Officer Meyers had personally interacted some days earlier, while working on patrol. During that initial interaction, Officer Meyers had provided the individual with his business card. The text sent to Officer Meyers' telephone while he was off-duty requested his name and precinct, both of which were on the business card he had already provided. About one day after the text was sent to his phone, Officer Meyers returned to work and, during his tour he came into contact with the same individual inside the stationhouse talking to other officers. Officer Meyers identified himself and reminded the individual that he was the same officer who had interacted with him on earlier days.

There can be no question as to whether Officer Meyers properly identified himself to the individual in this matter. Officer Meyers lack of a quick response to a text sent to his phone while he was off-duty is not a proper basis for substantiated misconduct and will not result in Officer Meyers being sent for training.

COURTESY • PROFESSIONALISM • RESPECT

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Police Officer Meyers will receive no disciplinary action for the alleged violation of Administrative Guide Procedure 304-11 (Compliance with New York City Right to Know Act).

Sincerely,
