Plaintiffs, as and for their Verified Complaint, by their attorney, STUART M. RISSOFF, herein states as follows:

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
ON BEHALF OF SALVADOR MONTAS

1. The plaintiffs at all times hereinafter mentioned where and still are residents of the County of the Bronx in the State of New York.

2. That at all times herein, defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK (hereinafter the "CITY"), was and still is a municipal corporation, created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

3. That at all times herein, defendant, CITY, operated, maintained, managed and controlled the Police Department of the City of New York.

4. That at all times herein, the New York City Police Department of the City of New York is an agency, instrumentality, department of defendant, CITY, and/or defendant, CITY derived benefit from the activities of the Police Department of the City of New York.

5. That at all times herein, Defendant's Office of the Bronx District Attorney, was a municipal entity organized and existing under, and by virtue, of the laws of the State of New York and the City of New York.

6. That at all times herein, Defendant MIRIAM O'SULLIVAN, was employed by the Office of the District Attorney, County of Bronx, as an Assistant District Attorney.

7. That at all times herein, Police Officer ALFRED MALDONADO, was employed as a Police Officer by the New York City Police Department and/or the City of New York.

8. That the plaintiffs filed notices of claim, in accordance with applicable statutes, on the defendants, and within 90 days after the date that the claim herein arose, and that at least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

9. That the plaintiffs has fully complied with defendants' demand for examination, said examinations having been held on November 21, 2017.

10. That this action is being commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

11. On or about June 5, 2017, at approximately 7:30 P.M., the agents, servants and employees of the aforesaid entities, including, but not limited to Police Officer Alfred Maldonado, during the course of a criminal investigation, did both express and implied undertake, promise, and assure Plaintiff Salvador Montas that his identity would not be disclosed to the public or the target of the criminal investigation, in exchange for his cooperation in said criminal investigation. Based upon the aforesaid promises, assurances and undertakings, and in reliance thereon, Plaintiff Salvador Montas did cooperate with the entities above named, and their agents, servants and employees.

12. Thereafter, and on or about June 6, 2017, Plaintiff Salvador Montas was contacted by Assistant District Attorney Miriam O'Sullivan. Plaintiff Salvador Montas reiterated his need to not have his identity disclosed to the public or the target of the criminal investigation. The aforesaid entities, including, but not limited to, Assistant District Attorney Miriam O'Sullivan, again did agree, promise and undertake, both expressly and impliedly, and did assure Plaintiff Salvador Montas, that his identity would not be disclosed to the public or the target of the criminal investigation, in exchange for his cooperation in said criminal investigation.

13. Thereafter, and on or about June 7, 2017, Plaintiff, in reliance upon all of the aforesaid promises, assurances, and undertakings, did appear at the Office of the Bronx District Attorney, at which time he was advised that his identity had been improperly disclosed and revealed to the target of the criminal investigation and the general public by the aforesaid entities and individuals, including, but not limited to, Assistant District Attorney Miriam O'Sullivan and Police Officer Alfred Maldonado, as a result of his identification in, among other documents, the deposition of Officer Maldonado.

14. Thereafter, and on or about June 30, 2017 and July 14, 2017, Salvador Montas was advised that the aforesaid entities, their agents, servants and employees, without his permission or consent, obtained orders of protection, thereby improperly, and in violation of the aforesaid promises, assurances and undertakings, reveal and disclose his identity to the subject of the criminal investigation (the defendant in the criminal proceeding) a second and third time

15. Plaintiff sustained personal injuries economic damages, and loss of services resulting from negligence; prima facie tort; intentional and negligent infliction of emotional distress; negligent training, supervision, retention and hiring of agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, including The New York City Police Department, and including, but not limited to, Police Officer Alfred Maldonado, shield number 7409, of the 44th Precinct; negligent training, supervision, retention and hiring of agents, servants, and employees of the Bronx District Attorney's Office, including, but not limited to, Assistant District Attorney Miriam O'Sullivan; assumption of, existence of, and formation of, a special relationship and special duty between plaintiffs, including plaintiff Salvador Montas, and the aforesaid municipal entities, which include the City of New York, The New York City Police Department and the Bronx District Attorney; violation and breach of said special relationship and special duty by the aforesaid municipal entities, which include The City of New York, The New York City Police Department and The Bronx District Attorney; violation and breach of said special relationship and special duty by the aforesaid municipal entities, as a result of actions of the agents, servants and employees of City of New York, the New York City Police Department, and Bronx District Attorney's Office, direct contact between Salvador Montas and agents, servants, and employees of the City of New York, the New York City Police Department and Office of the Bronx District Attorney's Office; promises, actions, and affirmative undertakings, both express and implied, by agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, New York City Police Department, and the Office of the Bronx District Attorney, including but not limited to, Police Officer Alfred Maldonado and Assistant District Attorney Miriam O'Sullivan that the identity of Salvador Montas would not be disclosed to the public or the target of the criminal investigation; knowledge by the foregoing municipal entities and individuals that breach of said promise and affirmative undertaking could and would lead to harm; justified and detrimental reliance by the Plaintiff Salvador Montas on the aforesaid promises and affirmative undertakings made by the aforesaid municipal entities and individuals, as a result of which plaintiff Salvador Montas has been damaged.

16. That this action falls within one or more of the exceptions set forth in Article 16 of the CPLR.

17. Plaintiff Salvador Montas has suffered damages, including, but not limited to, mental, emotional, and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear for himself and the safety of his wife and children, who are the co-plaintiffs herein, medical expenses all to his damage in the sum of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00).
