11. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant police officer, JOSEPH LONGA, was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer with the NYPD.

12. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant police officer, RYAN BRADLEY, was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer with the NYPD.

13. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant police officer, JOSEPH LONGA, was acting under color of law and authority as police officer with the NYPD.

GEORGAKLIS & MALLAS, PLLC

2

14. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant police officer, RYAN BRADLEY, was acting under color of law and authority as police officer with the NYPD.

AS AND FOR THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs “1” through “14” of this Complaint as if the same were more fully set forth in full herein.

16. The incident began on or about April 8, 2022, at approximately 7:45 a.m., while Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, was lawfully operating his vehicle on 13th Avenue at or near its intersection with 84th Street, in the County of Kings, in the City of New York, and State of New York.

17. On April 8, 2022, Plaintiff was abiding by all traffic laws, including adhering to the posted speed limit, properly signaling, and maintaining a valid registration and insurance.

18. On April 8, 2022, Defendant police officers, RYAN BRADLEY and JOSEPH LONGA, without any legal basis, reasonable suspicion or probable cause, initiated a traffic stop of Plaintiff’s vehicle.

19. On April 8, 2022, Defendant police officers, RYAN BRADLEY and JOSEPH LONGA, in retaliation, initiated a traffic stop of Plaintiff’s vehicle.

3

20. Defendants, RYAN BRADLEY and JOSEPH LONGA's, actions in stopping Plaintiff without any legal basis, reasonable suspicion or probable cause violated the Plaintiff's fourth amendment rights, as incorporated against the states through the fourteenth amendment.

21. On April 8, 2022 at the time of the alleged occurrence, the individual Defendant police officer, JOSEPH LONGA, was an agent, servant and employee of the Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and was acting in furtherance of the scope of his employment, acting under color of statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs, and usages of the State of New York, and Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and acting in his individual and official capacity.

22. On April 8, 2022 at the time of the alleged occurrence, the individual Defendant police officer, RYAN BRADLEY, was an agent, servant and employee of the Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and was acting in furtherance of the scope of his employment, acting under color of statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs, and usages of the State of New York, and Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and acting in his individual and official capacity.

23. On April 8, 2022, while the Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, was in the custody of the Defendants, he was caused to be negligently, intentionally, wrongfully, willfully, maliciously, and with gross negligence, physically assaulted, by Defendants and was caused to sustain severe and permanent physical injuries.

24. That by reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, injured.

4

25. As a result of the aforementioned occurrence, Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, sustained serious and severe permanent personal injuries, and sustained conscious pain and suffering; was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, and sustained injuries of a permanent and lasting nature; was and continues to be obliged to incur and expend large sums of money for medical care and attention in an endeavor to cure himself from the injuries he sustained; and was and continues to be incapacitated from attending to his usual occupation and activities.

AS AND FOR THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

26. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs “1” through “25” of this Complaint as if the same were more fully set forth in full herein.

27. On April 8, 2022, while Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, was lawfully present at the aforementioned location, he was unlawfully detained by employees, agents and/or servants of defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, its agencies, agents, servants, and/or employees, including Defendant police officers, JOSEPH LONGA and RYAN BRADLEY.

28. That said unlawful detention was without justification and beyond the boundaries of reasonableness.

29. That Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including but not limited to Defendant police officers, JOSEPH LONGA and RYAN BRADLEY, acted in bad faith and without justification in committing the aforesaid detention of Plaintiff.

5

30. That Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants, and/or employees, including but not limited to Defendant police officers, JOSEPH LONGA and RYAN BRADLEY, acted in bad faith and without justification in committing the aforesaid detention and unlawful imprisonment of Plaintiff.

31. That at the time of his unlawful detainment, Plaintiff had not committed any illegal act.

32. That at the time of his unlawful detainment, Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any crime.

33. That at the time of Plaintiff's unlawful detainment, Defendants knew or should have known, through the exercise of proper police procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned detainment was false and without justification.

34. That said unlawful detainment caused Plaintiff to suffer severe emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages, legal expenses and damage to his reputation.

35. That said unlawful detainment caused Plaintiff to suffer pain, shock, and mental anguish; these injuries and their effects will be permanent; as a result of said injuries the Plaintiff has been caused to incur and will continue to incur expense relative to his injuries.

36. The aforementioned occurrence took place due to the negligence of the Defendants, their agents, servants, or employees, acting within the scope of their authority, within the scope of their employment and in furtherance of their agency.

6

37. No negligence on the part of the Plaintiff contributed to the occurrence described herein.

38. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, acting through their agents, servants and employees, failed and refused to use such care in the performance of their duties as reasonably prudent police employees would have used under similar circumstances.

39. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, through its agents, servants and employees, negligently, knowingly, recklessly and intentionally breached its duty of reasonable care to the Plaintiff, thereby causing the Plaintiff injuries.

40. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, through its agents, servants and employees, negligently, knowingly, recklessly and intentionally breached its duty of reasonable care to the Plaintiff, thereby causing the Plaintiff injuries.

41. As a consequence, thereof, Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, has been injured.

42. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, has suffered serious and severe emotional distress, personal injuries, loss of earnings and loss to his reputations.

43. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff, RALPH IORIO, demands judgment against defendants in amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts.

7

AS AND FOR THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

44. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs “1” through “43” of this Complaint as if the same were more fully set forth in full herein.

45. The aforementioned Defendants used unnecessary and excessive force in apprehending the Plaintiff and caused Plaintiff to suffer serious permanent injuries.

46. The aforementioned Defendants used unnecessary and excessive force in detaining the Plaintiff and caused Plaintiff to suffer serious permanent injuries.

47. During the course of the unlawful stop, Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants, and/or employees, including but not limited to police officers, RYAN BRADLEY and JOSEPH LONGA, used excessive and unnecessary force against the Plaintiff, including, but not limited to, pushing, pulling, grabbing, and violently shoving Plaintiff to the ground.

48. Plaintiff suffered the physical and psychic trauma, shock, debasement, fright and humiliation of being publicly subjected to unjustified assault at the hands of the Defendants.

49. At all relevant times, and in the excessive use of force, the Defendants herein acted with actual malice toward Plaintiff and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of Plaintiff.

GEORGAKLIS & MALLAS, PLLC

8

50. The Defendant police officers, RYAN BRADLEY and JOSEPH LONGA's actions constitute unreasonable and excessive use of force without due process of law.

51. Upon information and belief, at all times pertinent hereto, Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, permitted and tolerated a pattern and practice of unreasonable use of force by City of New York police officers.

52. The acts, omissions, systematic flaws, policies, and customs of Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, caused these police officers to believe that the excessive and unreasonable use of force would not be aggressively, honestly, and properly investigated, with the foreseeable result that officers are more likely to use excessive or unreasonable force against Plaintiff and others in the future.

53. The acts, omissions, systematic flaws, policies, and customs of Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, caused these police officers to believe that the excessive and unreasonable use of force would not be aggressively, honestly, and properly investigated, with the foreseeable result that officers are more likely to use excessive or unreasonable force against Plaintiff and others in the future.

9

AS AND FOR THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

54. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs “1” through “53” of this Complaint as if the same were more fully set forth in full herein.
