JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants.

----- X

Plaintiff DONTE WHITE, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 31, 2018, at approximately 1:30 a.m., plaintiff Donte White, while lawfully in the vicinity of 1248 Clay Avenue, Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, questions, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Thereafter, plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied the right to due process and a fair trial until all charges were dismissed on December 3, 2018. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff DONTE WHITE is a resident of the state of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER ROBERT CABRERA, Tax No. 959525, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER ROBERT CABRERA, Tax No. 959525, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 44th Precinct

5. POLICE OFFICER ROBERT CABRERA, Tax No. 959525, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff is scheduled to testify at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on January 30, 2020.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On October 31, 2018, at approximately 1:30 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully sitting inside of his friend's motor vehicle in the vicinity of 1248 Clay Avenue, Bronx, New York when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped the vehicle and unlawfully handcuffed and falsely arrested plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

16. The defendant officers then forced plaintiff to get out of the vehicle and proceeded to search the vehicle without legal justification or probable cause.

17. The defendant police officers then unlawfully searched plaintiff's friend's motor vehicle without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

18. At no point relevant herein did the defendant police officers recover any drugs, weapons or other contraband from plaintiff or from plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

19. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law, nor did plaintiff behave in a manner that would lead a reasonable police officer to believe that plaintiff committed, was about to commit or was committing a crime.

20. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully handcuffed and unlawfully arrested plaintiff by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

21. The handcuffs placed on plaintiff were unreasonably tight on plaintiff's wrists, causing plaintiff to suffer pain and injuries to his wrists and hands.

22. Plaintiff told the defendant police officers that the handcuffs were hurting his wrists and hands, and asked the defendant police officers to loosen the handcuffs, but the defendant police officers ignored plaintiff and failed to loosen the handcuffs.

23. The unreasonably tight handcuffs were the direct and proximate cause of the serious physical injuries to plaintiff's wrists and hands.

24. Plaintiff was transported by the defendant police officers to the 44th Precinct against his will, where he was photographed, searched, fingerprinted and then placed in a holding cell by the defendants.

25. After several hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was given a summons for Disorderly Conduct and was released from the precinct.

26. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information about the facts that allegedly led them to believe that plaintiff committed Disorderly Conduct.

27. Based upon the false, misleading and/or incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers, a prosecution was initiated against plaintiff.

28. Thereafter, plaintiff was forced to appear in Court on one occasion and all charges were dismissed on December 3, 2018 because the allegations against plaintiff were legally insufficient.

29. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of plaintiff's right to due process and a fair trial.

30. The unlawful search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, denial of plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

31. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 30 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

32. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

33. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

34. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

35. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

36. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

38. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

39. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

40. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 39 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

41. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

42. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

46. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION.

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

47. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

48. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

49. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the District Attorney's Office.

50. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the District Attorney's Office.

51. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Donte White, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

52. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Donte White, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

56. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 55 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

57. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Donte White. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

58. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

64. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

65. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

66. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 65 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

67. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

68. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

69. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

71. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

73. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by grabbing plaintiff and tightly handcuffing plaintiff constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

76. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 75 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

77. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

78. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

79. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

82. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner handcuffed plaintiff excessively tightly without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

84. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
