17. Plaintiff was sitting in the passenger seat of his friend's vehicle, which was parked at the aforementioned location.

18. As the plaintiff was talking to his friend inside the vehicle, he observed several unmarked NYPD vehicles surround their car with lights flashing.

19. Several uniformed defendant officers approached the vehicle and told both men to get out of the car.

20. Plaintiff and his friend were confused as they were not parked illegally nor were there any equipment malfunctions with the vehicle, they had committed no crimes, nor had they engaged in any behavior that would prompt an interaction with police.

21. Defendant officers then reached through the passenger side window, unlocked the car, opened the door, and dragged the plaintiff out of the vehicle.

22. Defendant Officer Hijazi assisted in dragging Plaintiff out of the vehicle and standing him up against the car.

33. The following morning, at approximately 3 a.m. on December 1, 2021, the plaintiff was released from custody at 40th Precinct with no charges; the Bronx County District Attorney had declined to prosecute, as the plaintiff had committed no crime.
